Laos Situation 'Grave' U.S. Builds Up Forces

PRINCE BOUN OUM
. . . claims key city recaptured.

Assembly Approves New Rule

VIENTIANE (CP)—Prince Boun Oum's government announced today that its forces recaptured the key northeastern city of Xieng Khouang Monday night from pro-Communist rebels.

Information Minister Bouavan Norasing said the city was retaken by a battalion of paratroopers that jumped three and one-quarter miles east of Xieng Khouang.

Norasing's announcement was the government's first admission that the rebels had taken Xieng Khouang.

King Savang Vathana meanwhile convoked an extraordinary session of the National Assembly today to give a vote of confidence to the provisional government of Premier Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosoavan, the military strongman whose troops drove leftist rebels from Vientiane in mid-December.

This move was aimed at placing the government on a constitutional footing and depriving former neutralist premier Souvanna Phouma of a claim to legality. He fled to Cambodia after his efforts to conciliate leftists and pro-Westerners failed.

WOULD STIFLE CLAIM

Legalizing Boun Oum's government through constitutional processes also should help deprive the Soviet Union of a basis for claims that its airdrops of supplies and weapons to the Pathet Lao guerrillas and other leftist troops driven from the capital are conducted at the request of the legal government.

The Prince meanwhile announced his government had ordered its representative at the United Nations to indict Rusia before the Security Council on charges of violating territory and of illegally supplying arms to the leftist forces.

In Bangkok, Thailand, today Pote Sarasin, secretary-general of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, said he believes there still is a way for a political settlement in Laos.

A SEATO spokesman stressed that there was a big difference between "intervention" and an "invasion" and said the confusing situation in Laos should be studied carefully before any action is taken.

U.S. WARSHIPS ARRIVE

The army command of Communist North Viet Nam charged today that an American aircraft carrier and several other warships of the U.S. Seventh Fleet had arrived in the South Viet Nam port of Ta Nang.

Soviet's Tass said the army command also charged that the United States had sent eight helicopters, 13 bombers and fighters and a large group of military personnel into South Viet Nam, which borders on the war-torn kingdom of Laos.

The command protested to the International Control Commission for Viet Nam.

Ike Seeks 'Fast, Clear Action'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today accused the Soviet Union and North Vietnam of airlifting "extensive air materials" and "substantial numbers" of North Vietnamese Communists into Laos in support of Red rebels there.

The state department issued the accusation "in view of the grave situation in Laos."

It said it has "hard evidence" that Soviet and North Vietnamese transport planes have made at least 130 flights into Laos since Dec. 15.

Earlier the Communist North Viet Nam army command charged that a carrier and several other warships of the U.S. Seventh Fleet had arrived in the South Viet Nam port of Ta Nang.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the army command also charged the U.S. had bombers, fighters and a large group of personnel in South Viet Nam which borders Laos.

President Eisenhower today received additional intelligence reports on the Laos situation from his top advisers.

FAVORS FAST ACTION

In advance of today's meeting, Eisenhower was represented as convinced that fast and clear action is the best way to avoid any Communist commitment to agression in Laos. But he was said to be hopeful of a solution short of military intervention by outside powers.

In Moscow, Soviet Premier Khrushchev warned at a Cuban Embassy reception that the "dangerous hotbed of the fire which has started in Laos must be extinguished in time."

In London, reliable sources said Britain, favoring a broadly-based neutralist government, has come around to full support for revival of the three-country truce commission established in 1954.

The commission, comprising representatives of India, Canada and Poland, was established to supervise a truce in the Indo-China War at the 1954 Geneva conference but it was adjourned indefinitely in the summer of 1958.

CANADA UNWILLING

In Ottawa Monday night an official said the Canadian government is unwilling to reconvene it against the wishes of the Laotian government.

India, Russia and Communist China all have called for revival of the commission.

In Paris, a French government spokesman said Monday that the rightist regime of Prince Boun Oum does not meet the objectives of the 1954 Geneva agreement which ended the war in the former French colony.

British newspapers almost unanimously opposed any American active intervention in Laos.

HOWE FUNERAL ON WEDNESDAY

MONTREAL (CP)—A large group of government officials and top businessmen will attend the funeral of Clarence Decatur Howe Wednesday.

The controversial statesman, who for more than 20 years played a leading role in both government and business circles, died New Year's Eve of a heart attack, He was 75. (See stories, page 5.)

Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Associate Defence Minister Sevigny will represent the federal government at the service, to start at 2 p.m. EST. at Christ Church Cathedral in downtown Montreal.

Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson and a large group of Mr. Howe's former associates will represent the Liberal party.

ISLAND SHOOTING

Two Airmen Found Dead

COURTENAY—Two RCAF flight sergeants were killed here Monday in a double shooting that RCMP today described as an apparent murder-suicide.

The bodies of Flt. Sgt. B. B. Simms and Flt. Sgt. K. A. MacGregor were found side by side in the front room of MacGregor's home off Campbell River Road on the northern outskirts.

A 7.65-millimetre automatic pistol lay between them.

Both men had been shot in the head. Two shots had been fired from the pistol.

INQUEST TODAY

In a joint statement, the RCMP at Courtenay and the RCAF at Comox said investigations were incomplete and that while murder-suicide is "strongly suspected," possible motive for the shootings or other details could not yet be released.

An inquest was to open this afternoon, with a date for the main hearing to be set.

The men were found by a neighbor, Robert Lay, together with other friends of MacGregor.

Police said Mr. Lay knocked on the front door of the MacGregor house and noticed what appeared to be a bullet hole in the front window pane.

FULLY CLOTHED

With two companions he partially forced the rear door of the house and saw one of the bodies sprawled on the front room floor.

This was at 4 p.m.

Mr. Lay immediately notified RCMP. Neither he nor his friends went into the house.

RCMP entered by the rear door and found the bodies, fully clothed.

The weapon involved belonged to MacGregor.

Simms, 38, is survived by the widow and two sons at RCAF Station, Comox. MacGregor, about 40, was on temporary duty at the station as a member of No. 2 construction maintenance unit. He is survived by the widow in Calgary.

MacGregor's home station was Lincoln Park, Calgary.

CPR HEAD DIES

W. A. Mather, chairman of the CPR and a railroad worker since he was 19, died Monday in hospital at Winnipeg after an illness of four months. Funeral service will be held in Winnipeg Thursday. (See story page 3.)

NEW MANAGER FOUND

Two Resign Arena Board

By JOHN MIKA

The Memorial Arena controversy, which simmered quietly through the holiday season, boiled over again today with these developments:

- Mayor Percy Scurrah prepared to replace vacationing chairman Frank Mulliner;
- Commissioner Courtney Haddock resigned to protest "unfair" treatment to six former employees;
- A commission sub-committee prepared final touches to appointment of Jack Morgan, Nelson, as the new arena manager.

Mayor Scurrah, asked about rumors that he had obtained Mr. Mulliner's resignation, said:

"I expect his resignation today. I expect to name a replacement today but it will not be in my speech."

(He was referring to his inaugural address before city council this afternoon in which the 1961 council committees and civic boards are named.)

Mr. Mulliner, who was in the centre of the controversy following resignation of the arena's office staff and three other employees, left for a six-week vacation just before Christmas after council refused to fire the commission at its own request. He went to Montreal for the holiday but is reported to be in Bermuda at present.

Mr. Haddock, who previously had threatened to resign, turned in his withdrawal from the commission this morning.

Slim Prospect for Rehiring

"I agreed to withhold my resignation previously on the distinct assurance that there would be fair treatment for the employees—which meant reinstatement until a new manager was appointed," he said.

"There doesn't appear to be any prospect of that now so I'm resigning in protest."

Mr. Morgan, currently manager of the Nelson Arena, was interviewed by commission members during a visit here last week.

A reliable source said he had been "selected" for replacing present manager Joe Dukowski although the actual appointment still had to be made.

Mr. Dukowski tendered his resignation, effective in three months, during the controversy that broke out when the other employees quit.

No selection for filling the job vacated by former office manager Kenneth Noakes has been made.

"Mr. Noakes has been out of work for 2½ months now—including through Christmas—and he still doesn't know whether he will be re-engaged," said Mr. Haddock. "It isn't good business to throw away his 11 years of experience.

"That isn't justice. We should be grateful to these employees for pointing up the situation instead of punishing them.

"I've done all I could for them but apparently it isn't enough. I just can't understand the commission's position."

(Allegations in affidavits submitted by Mr. Noakes and his colleagues said that purchases of liquor were made for consumption in the arena and work on Mr. Dukowski's house and boat were made by arena maintenance employees.)

ARMS ADVISER

Former Allied high commissioner in Germany, John J. McCloy was named today by president-elect Kennedy to be his chief adviser and policy planner on disarmament. McCloy, 65, a Republican, is a former assistant secretary of war under President Truman.

Puck Coach Crash Victim

SASKATOON (CP)—Eight persons were killed and five were severely injured in two head-on car collisions during the holiday weekend in Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagner of Winnipeg and playing coach Vic Kreklewetz of Yorkton Terriers of the Saskatchewan Senior Hockey League were killed when their cars collided Monday near Elfros, 120 miles east of Saskatoon.

Holland Ends Crisis, Premier Stays

THE HAGUE (Reuters)—The 12-day-old cabinet crisis ended in The Netherlands Monday night with Catholic Premier Jan de Quay withdrawing his resignation.

Socialists Lose Vote In Belgium

BRUSSELS (CP)—Parliament today rejected a Socialist move to scrap the government's economic austerity program as violent demonstrations against the measure continued to hit strike-crippled Belgium.

Roman Catholic and Liberal party members, linked in Premier Gaston Eyskens' coalition government, combined to defeat a Socialist motion calling for withdrawal for the government austerity bill. The chamber rejected the motion by a vote of 121 to 83, with one Liberal abstention.

Several tanks guarded the packed parliament building as legislators debated the controversial bill, designed to meet losses by Belgium in The Congo.

Socialists attacked the economic plan, which would increases taxes, for causing the "extreme social tension" gripping the country.

SOCIALISTS JEER

Eystens paid tribute to Catholic trade union members who did not join the Socialist-called strikes. Socialists jeered the premier as he made no concession to their demands to withdraw the program.

Georges Bohy, Socialist leader in the House, called on Eyskens to resign, declaring: "You have plunged this nation into a state of siege. It is time for you to go."

Taking the floor, the premier lashed out at the strikers.

"An enormous amount of damage is being done to the country," the Conservative premier said. "Private industry is suffering heavy losses and these will have considerable repercussions on the budget."

Favor Sunday Films

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP)—In a plebiscite held as part of civic elections here Monday, voters were strongly in favor of Sunday movies. The count was 14,653 in favor and 9,744 opposed.

$60 MILLION TREASURE HERE 20 YEARS

Canada Returns Polish Art

DERBY LINE, Vt. (CP)—A fortune in Polish art en route to its homeland after 20 years in Canada crossed the border into the United States today under heavy guard. The value of the shipment was estimated at $60,000,000.

RCMP escorted two huge moving vans carrying the art shipment from Quebec City to the border. Vermont state troopers took over at Derby Line.

Officials in charge of the convoy declined information about its destination or its route across New England to Boston.

In addition to the two vans, the convoy included several carloads of officials who declined to identify themselves.

Twenty years of Canadian custody of the treasures came to an end, as well as 13 years of international wrangling and bargaining, as the province of Quebec agreed to give them up.

M. Drobrosielski, a deputy of the Polish ambassador in Washington, was at the border to receive the valuable cargo.

He told reporters relations between Canada and Poland will improve "because the treasures question has been a big gulf between us."

He said they will be loaded on a Polish ship in Boston.

The transfer, ending one quarrel, opened the possibility of another—with the Polish government-in-exile.

The government-in-exile's representative in Montreal, Octawian Jastrzembski, was shocked by news of the transfer—which would have been made in complete secrecy but for a leak in Montreal.

"Why the speed? Why the secrecy? Why? Mr. Jastrzembski cried. "I was always informed before.

". . . I cannot believe that any Western government would do this to the legal government of Poland, which deposited the treasures in Canada."

He said he will appeal to the federal government. Court action might be taken.

The treasures had been in the provincial museum since 1948, when the late premier Maurice Duplessis took them into custody and steadfastly refused the Communist government's claim to them.

He maintained to his death that the government-in-exile, as the last democratically-elected government of Poland, was the only one with any title to the treasures.

The treasures include gold-encrusted robes of the ancient Polish kings, tapestries, gold and silver ornamental plate, jewelled swords and crowns and a solid-gold saddle. Many date back to the 15th century.

Looks like there's a fight developin' over whether or not there's a fight in Laos.

HECTIC DAYS AHEAD FOR U.S. CONGRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Congress convened today already embroiled in a liberal vs. conservative struggle such as clearly will be waged over much of president-elect John Kennedy's program.

In both Senate and House of Representatives, Democrats who call themselves liberals were bidding for a bigger voice in charting the legislative course to be followed in the next two years.

House insurgents want to break up a coalition of conservative Democrats and Republicans on the rules committee which has managed in the past to block or delay legislation not to their liking.

With Salvador were his brother Ferdinand, Miguel Romin and George Perec, all of Mexico City.

Wife Shot on Street

TORONTO (CP) — Police have charged George Edward Templeton, 25, with murder in the shooting of his 23-year-old estranged wife on a street near her home Thursday. Mrs. Margaret Templeton was shot twice as she walked along the street with her two young sons. Templeton, arrested at the scene, had been separated from his wife eight months.

MARGARET SIPS AS TONY SHOOTS

BIRR, Ireland (AP) — Princess Margaret sat in front of a roaring log fire Monday, sipped a gin and tonic and shuffled a pack of cards.

Outside, the rain beat on the battlements of Birr Castle, where Margaret and her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones, are spending an Irish vacation.

While Margaret and the ladies—among them her mother-in-law, the Countess of Rosse—played canasta, a favorite card game with British royalty, Tony and the men were out shooting.

Tony was accompanied by his step-father, the Earl of Rosse, who owns the castle; Billy Wallace, an old friend of Margaret's; the gamekeeper, Pat Mollison, and Chief Inspector Fred Croker.

It rained heavily and they came in at 4 o'clock without a pheasant among them.

The Irish were revelling in the publicity that the British royal visit—the first for 32 years—has brought the emerald isle.

Brendan O'Regan, chairman of the Irish tourist board, said:

"Margaret's arrival has done more for our tourist business than thousands of pounds worth of advertising could do."

A London newspaper meanwhile said the Princess and her husband, delighted with their reception in the republic were considering buying an estate in County Wicklow.

Castro Orders U.S. Envoys Cut

HAVANA (AP) — United States-Cuban relations grew more frayed today with an order from Premier Fidel Castro for a slash of the U.S. Embassy staff here to 11 by Wednesday night.

In a wrathful prelude to the United Nations Security Council meeting Wednesday, when Cuba will advance new charges that the U.S. plans to invade Cuba, Castro declared the U.S. Embassy is filled with spies directing counter-revolutionaries.

He said the U.S. staff would be reduced to the same number that Cuba maintains in its embassy in Washington.

Although Castro said he was not breaking relations with the U.S., he invited the entire staff to leave Cuba.

"We are not breaking with them," he shouted. "If they want to go, let them go."

Thousands of Castro's followers massed in Civic Plaza roared their approval with shouts of "Cuba si, Yankees no," and with demands that the U.S. give up its naval base at Guantanamo in eastern Cuba.

Six months ago there were 120 on the U.S. Embassy staff. Now there are 87. U.S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal was recalled last October and embassy wives and children were sent home last September. Cuba has not had an ambassador in Washington for months.

Castro spoke on the second anniversary of his revolution after staging the biggest military show in Cuban history in the plaza. For seven hours he reviewed soldiers and militia showing off weapons from the Soviet bloc, including 54 heavy tanks, artillery and rocket launchers.

At a reception in Moscow on the Cuban anniversary Soviet Premier Khrushchev picked up the Cuban charge that the U.S. is planning an invasion by Jan. 18 to wipe out alleged Soviet rocket bases being constructed in Cuba.

Khrushchev said this was "alarming news" and declared there were no Soviet military bases in Cuba.

Children Buried

JOHANNESBURG (Reuters) — Two white men died trying to rescue a Negro mine worker from a gas-filled pit at the South Voodepoort mine, 10 miles west of here.

They collapsed from the effects of the gas when they went to help the unconscious Negro. All three were dead when brought out.

Mayor Marks Up No. 6 In Inaugural Addresses

Today is inaugural day in Greater Victoria with all four councils and the school board formally opening for 1961 business.

City council was to meet in the afternoon to hear Mayor Percy Scurrah make his sixth inaugural address — only the third man to make that many since the city was incorporated 99 years ago.

Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane administered the oath of office to Victoria's 1961-62 aldermen and school trustees elected last month, including newcomers Ald. M. J. Griffin and Ald. A. W. Toone and trustee Ralph Fryer. Also sworn-in for a second term was police commission appointee, Chester Dowman.

Mr. Justice Macfarlane, who retires in March after 40 years' service on the bench here, was thanked by Mayor Scurrah for performing the swearing-in ceremonies in the past.

Swearing-in ceremonies for new councillors in the outlying municipalities were scheduled to precede the evening inaugural meetings, set for 7.30 p.m. in Saanich and Esquimalt and 8 p.m. in Oak Bay.

Greater Victoria School Board's inaugural meeting was set for 8 p.m.

City Liberals Ottawa-Bound

Heads of Liberal associations in Greater Victoria and district will attend a three-day meeting of the national body next week in Ottawa.

Heading the group will be national executive member for B.C., Arthur Cox, who will leave early for conferences before the meeting opens Monday morning.

Also scheduled to attend are former MLA for Victoria, George Gregory; Oak Bay association president Geoffrey Ellis; president of the Esquimalt Liberal Association, Joseph Saville; president of the Saanich Association, James Gorst; and former Langford association president, William O'Kell.

"We've given up GOING WITHOUT for New Year's"

"Our New Year resolutions this year have a lot more to do with getting rather than giving up . . . thanks to the B of M.

"Seems that for many Old Years past our money appeared to just melt away, when there were so many things wanted around the house . . . a modern stove . . . a desk for Dad's den . . . a decent TV. Finally, it was Dad who put his foot down.

"'Starting with the New Year,' said Dad, 'we're going to get some of the things we've gone without for far too long. We're going to finance all the things we really need under a new purchase plan I've been looking into — the Bank of Montreal Family Finance Plan. It's a modern plan that's designed for people just like us. Come the January sales, we'll get what we need at bargain prices and do our paying for what we buy with a single payment each month.'

"So this year, we'll all have to watch our pennies a little more closely, but it's a challenge and the whole family is going to pitch in. Mother's the keenest of all. It's hard to say whether it's the life insurance protecting the loan, or the prospect of a new stove, that pleases her most.

"Anyway, we're one family who figures we've found the ideal New Year's resolution for 1961. How about you? Isn't it time you considered giving up going without?"

56-Year Career Ends As CPR's Mather Dies

WINNIPEG (CP) — W. A. Mather, 75, chairman of the CPR and a railroader since 19, died in hospital Monday of cancer after a four-month illness.

He was born in Oshawa, Ont., seven weeks before the railway's last spike was driven in British Columbia. He received his schooling in Kenora, where he later made his summer home.

As a college student, he worked in the Kenora-Winnipeg region when the CPR was expanding its double track. He graduated in 1908 with an engineering degree from McGill University.

From a noted milling family, he was independently wealthy, but disliked any personal fuss. After inheriting a valet on his private railway car from former president Sir Edward Beatty, he would fume if helped on with his coat.

A reticent man, he had a small circle of friends, mainly bankers and others outside the railway field.

SERVED ACROSS WEST

In 1910, Mr. Mather became resident engineer for the CPR at Winnipeg. He later served at Kenora as superintendent, at Vancouver as assistant general superintendent and at Moose Jaw and Calgary as general superintendent. In 1935, he was appointed assistant to the vice-president, in Montreal.

He was named vice-president at Winnipeg in 1942 and six years later was elected the company's seventh vice-president.

INTERESTS WIDE

Mr. Mather was chairman of Canadian Pacific Steamships Limited and Canadian Pacific Airlines Limited and director and member of the executive committee of Consolidated Minnig and Smelting Company of Canada Limited.

He was also a director with the Scottish Trust Company, the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway Company, Canadian Express Company, Canadian Marconi Company and West Kootenay Light and Power Company Limited.

His range of interests led him to become a member of the advisory committee of the Canadian Standards Association, a director of the Canadian Forestry Association and a member of the Eastern Railroads Presidents Conference.

Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Jane, of Vancouver, a son David, of Neenah, Wis., and a sister, Jean, of Winnipeg.

Boy Politicos Ask Tighter Driving Laws

Before the 30th session of the Older Boys' Parliament of British Columbia, prorogued Saturday, the young MLAs aimed two resolutions at their real-life counterparts.

Main requests were introduction of compulsory auto insurance for B.C. residents; adoption of the points system for driver's licence suspension; and a campaign to impress moral responsibility in driving.

DEFEATED

The House defeated a move to raise the minimum driving age from 16 to 18 years of age. The resolution has been forwarded to Attorney-General Robert Bonner.

Second resolution favored promotion and interest in the physical development of the people of the province. It urged the government to assist non-profit clubs and organizations towards this end by providing grants-in-aid.

A resolution that the boys go on record as favoring an extension of the existing provincial government subsidy on university registration fees—to include all students—was tabled.

FASTEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-acid) powder, holds false teeth more firmly. To eat and talk in more comfort, just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

A SUNNY SWAN SONG AS OLD YEAR FADES

The weather year of 1960 ended on a bright note, with 80 hours 12 minutes of sunshine in December, most since 1941, to make it the 11th sunniest in the 47 years official records have been kept.

Normal for the month is 65 hours 42 minutes. Highest temperature during the month was 55.7 degrees Dec. 12, a new record for that day.

The full year totalled 2,193 hours of sunshine, compared with a normal of 2,216.4 hours. Total precipitation was 23.28 inches, against a normal of 26.14 inches.

BENNETT LOOKS AT B.C. ECONOMY

After the Pause, a Surge

B.C.'s economy will bounce upward in 1961 after a year of "pause", Premier W. A. C. Bennett predicted today.

Mr. Bennett said he is optimistic both for this year and the 1960s as a whole. He picked tourism as the big industry of the decade, saying it will be worth more than a billion dollars by the 1970s.

"The slowdown of the months just past," he added, "reflected no basic weakness in the economy. Given sound fiscal, trade and internal development policies at the national level, Canadians will halt the slowdown and resume the forward thrust of the country's development as an industrial power."

"SECOND ROUND"

Mr. Bennett, in a New Year's statement reviewing economic prospects, said that a "second round" of industrial development began in B.C. during the last year.

"Much of this new investment will begin to yield production and payrolls during the coming year."

Mr. Bennett concedes that B.C. had an unemployment problem—"but to a lesser degree than in previous recession periods."

He adds: "The province has entered into an era of unparalleled co-operation between labor and management."

HIGHLIGHTS

Some of the premier's highlights of 1960: Wood products plants at Castlegar and Woodfibre, Howe Sound, completed and near completion; $16,000,000 worth of revenue from oil and gas sales, with the prospect of $100,000,000 in winter exploration and pipeline investments next year of $93,000,000.

U.K. Colony Advances

LONDON (Reuters)—Major constitutional advances in the British African protectorate of Bechuanaland will come into force during 1961, it was announced here. The Commonwealth relations office said the new constitution for the 75-year-old protectorate will include legislative and executive councils for the first time.

Churchill Calls for Unity

LONDON (Reuters) — Sir Winston Churchill called Monday for closer unity among the Western power in 1961.

The statesman, 86, noted in his first public comment on political affairs since he was laid up by a fall in November, that the year opened on a "disturbed scene."

"The three great forces which sustain the free world—the British Commonwealth and Empire, the United States of America and Europe—must combine ever closer, not merely locally where our problems show an immediate community of interest, but throughout the world," he said.

"Only then can we march towards a future of limitless expectation."

The Age of C. D. Howe

AS OF FEW CONTEMPORARIES it could be said of the late Clarence Decatur Howe that he was among Canada's true giants. Our entire history has produced only a handful of his equals as a builder of the nation's wealth. There have been other men with ability of organization and management as powerful as his, but "C. D." was unique and, in many ways, quite unlike his public image.

The driving executive who revolutionized the Canadian economy in wartime, the rough-and-ready parliamentarian who could seldom suffer fools gladly, the adventurer who had sampled life from the professor's chair to a lifeboat in the winter Atlantic, the international statesman who had grappled with the great of the earth, the engineer who had built huge works and dreamed big—this public man hid with a certain shyness a warm, lovable and very modest human being.

Perhaps the strangest fact of a prodigious Canadian career was that it originated in a foreign country. Among all our imports from the United States Howe was one of the most valuable. And once he had seen this country with the eye of the trained engineer and the imagination of genius, he became the most ardent Canadian of his day. But there was much more to this extraordinary person than his obvious talents.

Behind all the achievements, and a few mistakes, lay a passionate love of Canada usually disguised by gruff speech but never diminished in the least by political misfortune.

He could blunder in the manoevures of parliament, he could be defeated at the polls and find himself replaced by lesser men, but accidents of that sort did not touch his indestructible faith, or a surviving youthfulness even in his old age. He was still young in heart when death struck, still doing the work of a dozen men, still following his Canadian dream.

Many books will be required to estimate his effect on this nation, no history of our age can be written without taking his labors into account and no one in any corner of the land can escape the results of his achievement.

Until that record, much of it still secret, is revealed and all the evidence in, the best obituary of a truly great Canadian is a simple fact—Howe left Canada richer and stronger than he found it. We shall not look upon his precise like again.

Gangsters, Not Delinquents

MR. J. EDGAR HOOVER HAS renewed his campaign to deny young thugs, criminals and hoodlums the protection of classification as "juvenile delinquents." He would abolish the term.

In that desire he will be joined by any number of people who have looked into what is called "juvenile delinquency" and felt that the phrase, and the sympathy it invokes because of the adjective, is something present society can do without.

Mr. Hoover was talking about young gangsters in 1960. He is properly disturbed because "this is a year when teen-aged terrorism has become so commonplace that the American public has virtually built up a shock resistance to vicious murders, rapes, assaults, robberies, and, in fact, the entire spectrum of atrocious crime committed by young people."

There is a sharp difference between such behavior and the small misdemeanor involved in a boy riding his bicycle at night without a light. But the youngster involved in a minor infraction of a bylaw can be brought before juvenile court and disciplined in a way which makes him a statistic in tables of juvenile delinquency.

Perhaps the time has come here, as in the United States, to re-examine the whole approach to juvenile delinquency, to strip young criminals of the protection they are now granted once it is shown that they were old enough to understand the serious nature of their actions. The public, as Mr. Hoover has explained on other occasions, deserves at least the protection of knowing who such hoodlums are.

On the other hand, small breaches which merit no more than a brief and non-sadistic trip to the woodshed by a father and his son, might very properly be removed from the juvenile delinquency category.

We need a little clearer definition at both extremes of poor behavior by boys and girls under 18, and perhaps less protection from publicity for them and their parents when the sanction of publicity would be effective.

Room for Further Development

CANADA'S TRADE AGREEMENT with Russia is not working out as well as had been hoped. The arrangement whereby we would sell twice as much to Russia as we bought was based on total Canadian purchases of $12.5 millions during the first year. But at the present rate we shall have bought only about $8 millions; the Soviet Union therefore will not buy more than $16 millions of Canadian goods.

This is an avenue of trade which could be pursued with benefit. There are many Russian products which we could use with advantage, and many goods which we could profitably sell in this new market. Britain buys goods to the value of some $200 millions a year from the U.S.S.R., without anything of a strategic nature being involved.

If the world is not to be divided permanently into two armed camps, if continuing contacts are conducive to world peace, then mutually advantageous trade is one of the best means of furthering co-operation and understanding. We can only gain, and in our present need for overseas markets the gain would be substantial.

We Can't Take It With Us

WHILE a good deal of public attention has been directed to the dangers of nuclear fall-out, less is heard of another growing hazard—the radioactivity of nuclear "garbage."

The garbage is the product of nuclear plants and industrial processes and presents a mounting problem of safe disposal. Some radioactive liquids and solids have been buried in underground concrete tombs, others have been buried at sea in concrete and steel containers. But there is still argument among the experts as to the safety of such procedures. Meticulous care must be taken to ensure that the radioactivity does not seep into soil and water where it may eventually find its way into plants, fish, animals and man.

Recently the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission decided to dump atomic wastes into the Atlantic 150 miles off the Nova Scotia coast. Ottawa replied to provincial protests by saying that the procedure would be according to approved international standards and that there would be no hazard. Mexico had earlier protested against a similar dumping program, and the AEC has been under fire at home for other disposal methods.

This is not a problem that will diminish. The radio-activity is long-lasting, indestructible and penetrating. As more and more atomic "graveyards" are established, whether at sea or underground, the possibility of seepage will increase. The situation could well impose a limiting factor on the development of our atomic age—at least until some future genius can find an answer to it.

Picking Up the Chits

THE SOBERING, AFTER-Christmas realization, that while Santa may deliver the presents, somebody has to pay the bills, has been brought home to the people of Quebec.

The account for that province's new "free" hospitalization scheme and "tuition-free" schools is being compiled. It will be paid by the taxpayers.

There is nothing unnatural in this development. It is one of the simple facts of life which occasionally escape the public's notice as it enjoys the bounty of the state. The state's bounty exists only where it is provided by the public—a truth borne home to Quebec people by a one-third reduction in exemptions on provincial income tax and a 2 per cent increase in corporation taxes.

The point emphasized in the ancient province is one that should be drawn to the attention of all Canadians. The state can give them nothing free. There is always a price tag attached and the name on it is that of the taxpayer.

STRETCHED TO THE SNAPPING POINT

By TONY EMERY

Concerning the Joys of Pedagogy . . . and a Few Top Marks

IF you want to know what I did for Christmas, I marked examination papers. If you are one of the 62,457 people who have asked me what I think of the Chant Commission report and have received an unsatisfactory answer be assured that it is nothing personal; it is just that I have been marking examination papers. If you want to know how far the nervous system of the average human being will stretch before it snaps, try marking examination papers.

Emery

The pressure begins when you look at the things. There they are in stacks, yay high, on floor and table. (Incidentally, can you throw any light on the interesting adverb of quantity, extent or degree which sounds like "yay," sometimes "yo", usually employed in conjunction with adjectives such as "big", "small," "narrow", "wide" and so on? Apparently unknown before Second World War, it was in common use among students at UBC in 1955 and 1956, and since every American I have questioned denies any knowledge of it, it may very well be distinctively Canadian.)

If there is a more depressing sight than a room full of unmarked examination papers, I'd like to know what it is. It beats unmade beds, unwashed dishes and prewar British musical comedies into a cocked hat. It beats cocked hats, I may add.

And if you think that the feeling of depression vanishes as the work proceeds you are wrong, Buster. There is nothing which gives the teacher a more overwhelming certainty of his own incompetence than reading papers in which it begins to appear as if he has signally failed to teach anybody anything.

Sad Discovery

The English instructor asks himself if he can really have been responsible for the student's inability to distinguish between Spencer and Sidney; and the history teacher becomes suicidal when faced with answers which show that some people have not learned that there is a distinct difference between the Restoration and the Reformation.

If those who employ teachers want to strike a hard bargain about salaries I suggest they conduct negotiations immediately after examination-time, when the pedagogue is full of humility and a sense of his own unworthiness, and debilitated and bloodshot to boot.

"You must get some very funny answers," the lady says brightly. Lady, by 2 o'clock in the morning the marker may have retained his sense of what is funny, peculiar, but has long since lost any appreciation of what is funny, haha.

When I was once informed that in a certain part of the world "irrigation is carried out by means of enormous dames" it did not even raise a smile. It is a good thing for me that I have no time during these marking sessions to devote to the antics of Huckleberry Hound, for if he once lost the power to charm much of the magic would go out of life.

So one of my New Year's resolutions is to speak loudly, clearly and slowly during lectures, pausing frequently to define all terms and explain everything minutely. What matter if I only manage to cover a dozen years of history instead of several centuries?

I shall also make a practice of hurling questions with breath-taking suddenness at those students who are doodling, snoozing, ogling other students, reading lurid paperbacks, or holding hands. I shall make a more careful note than usual of those who do not laugh sycophantically at the two hoary academic jests buried deep in each course, and shall use it as evidence of inattentiveness, as well as downright disloyalty.

But all that is now behind me, at least until the final examinations come round with their usual unobtrusive speed. My papers are marked, the marks are in, and I can now transfer the load of worry to the student.

For Merit

While I am in the mood to rate and rank and classify and award marks, I'd like to distribute a few first-classes to people and institutions who have done good work in the field of general education during the year.

At the top of the class, equal first, I put the CBC and the National Film Board. These two organizations go from strength to strength, it seems to me, and it is difficult to find fault with their overall achievement, however much one may criticize individual productions. Have you seen the NFB film of "Canada Between the Wars?"

If you haven't, why not get hold of it for your school, church group, PTA, or what not? You will find the local NFB representative, Don Buchanan, more than helpful, and the number's in the telephone book. Let him suggest some films from the NFB list. You pay for this wonderful institution—why not use it?

Admiring Notice

High marks, too, to Colin Graham and the Exhibitions Committee at the Art Gallery for putting on some good shows this year to make full use of an enlarged Art Gallery that continues to attract admiring notice across the country. More and more of our citizens are beginning to discover what a variety of services the Gallery offers, which is a great encouragement to all concerned.

High in the awards list must come Don Adams' Contemporary Danish Furniture store on Fort Street for housing the Point Gallery, which has become a second focus for all who are interested in painting and sculpture in Victoria. In the six months it has been operating the Point has put on some excellent displays of work by local artists, and has made a niche for itself in the cultural life of the community.

Don't miss the Toni Onley show which opens on January 13 to become the Point's first show by an "outside" painter; his collages are the best things of their kind I have seen for years. It's been a good year, bright with promise. The Future Lies Ahead, to coin a phrase.

IS NORAD NOW USELESS?

By MAJ.-GEN. W. H. S. MACKLIN, CBE

The Blast of Russia's Bomb Swept Away Our Immunity

ONE of the most controversial items in our defence program has been the question of Canada's adherence to the North American Defence System called NORAD. I hold that our participation in this system has been a gigantic, costly blunder, based upon a great delusion.

In 1949 Russia exploded a nuclear bomb, and the grim truth is that in the blast of that device the long, comfortable military immunity of the North American continent was swept away.

It is gone, and gone forever, but the colossal error that our defence department has made is to assume that somehow, anyhow, we can get that immunity back if we just spend enough money on such things as jet interceptors, radar chains, anti-aircraft, missiles like the Bomarc, and fire control systems such as "Sage."

The establishment of NORAD was based on two hypotheses, both conceived in the Pentagon, and both accepted as divine revelations of truth by successive Canadian governments:

One: the bases of the strategic air force must be guarded against surprise destruction by a direct, military, aircum-missile defence system.

Two: such a system is practicable, and can be produced if enough money is spent on it.

As an example of the complete inconsistency of our defence department regarding the NORAD concept, look at what we are doing in Europe. We have 12 air squadrons trying to defend U.S. bases over there, as NORAD is supposed to do on this side.

Yet, a year ago the government announced the rearmament of eight of these units with the Starfighter, a wholly offensive type with nuclear rockets aimed at distant targets.

This rearmament is costing us hundreds of millions. How does it come that we can just abandon eight defensive squadrons, and replace them with units of another sort entirely? The answer is that the eight defensive squadrons were always quite useless, and never will be missed. The same applies to their nine counterparts in NORAD.

Useless

There is much talk of our buying yet another interceptor—the "Voodoo." Some think the government is trying to trade our excellent CL-44 transports for it. This airplane would be better named the "Hoodoo," and if we buy it at tremendous cost the money will be wasted, for in the missile age it will be as useless as its predecessors.

Then examine the first assumption, that the U.S. bases must have direct defence.

There are over 70 of these bases, scattered across four continents and many countries. The idea that all of these, or even any large proportion of them, could suddenly be knocked out of action by one gigantic raid, or rocket salvo, and so prevented from retaliating, is fantastic.

The chances of mistakes or misses would be so enormous as to make such an attempt on Russia's part the supreme folly of all time, since failure would lay her open to retaliatory destruction on a stupendous scale.

Indestructible

A U.S. senator said recently, "If they try it we will take them apart," and Mr. Eisenhower, who should know, has stated publicly that the deterrent cannot be destroyed.

Moreover, the nuclear deterrent power is steadily and rapidly passing from the U.S. Air Force to the U.S. Navy. Air force people hate to admit this, but they can't evade the facts. The nuclear-powered submarine George Washington sailed a few weeks ago with 16 Polaris missiles aboard. She is the first of many, and certainly needs no air defence, because her defence is in her mobility. An enemy can't knock her out if he doesn't know where she is.

She and her kind will produce a far more effective form of deterrent than static air bases, and with fewer political complications. As the London Times recently said with fervor:

Keep deterrents out at sea
Where the real estate is free
And they're far away from me.

Finally, of course, there is also the British component of nuclear deterrence, of great potency probably enough all by itself. But the British have more sense than to waste money on any counterpart of NORAD to defend it.

All this leads to the obvious conclusion that Canada should get out of NORAD. There is a widespread belief that this would imply adoption of a policy of neutrality, perhaps because James M. Minifie in a recent book urged neutralism on Canadians and regarded withdrawal from NORAD and NATO as concomitants.

Withdrawal from NORAD does not in any way imply neutralism, and has nothing to do with abandonment of NATO, which I never would advocate.

We should toss NORAD out simply and solely because it is an impotent military instrument, and also unnecessary, even assuming it had any military effectiveness.

This action would strengthen the alliance with the United States because NORAD is merely a futile drain on our resources. It would save us vast sums to devote to other and more fruitful projects in the national welfare.

As Our Readers See It

Killing Deer at Thetis

If the City Council would set the Thetis Lake area aside as a Park and dedicate it as such, then it could be turned into a game sanctuary.

There is a small portion that is a so-called sanctuary at present, but there are no boundaries a hunter or anyone else could see.

A large portion of this area is unorganized territory and some of it is in Saanich, which is a closed area to all hunting.

It is time the City Council came to some definite decision on this property. The public at large want it set aside as a Park, either to be administered by the city or to be turned over to the provincial government to look after.

A CONSERVATIONIST.

Free Food Stall

The committee of the Surplus Food Stall wishes to thank most sincerely the great number of people who have helped so generously during 1960. There have been so very many individuals, and so many organizations that it would be impossible to thank them all seperately.

Those who have donated food and those who have come down month after month to help sort over and distribute the provisions have all made it possible to carry on successfully.

For the many who have come with their cars to pick up donations and to deliver parcels, for the free rent of the building and co-operation of everyone the Committee is most grateful.

By Comparison, You Look Good

As old Omar put it: "New Year reviving old desires, the thoughtful soul to solitude retires." So we went to Shawnigan.

There, in the spartan simplicity of a rustic shack, I gazed into the glowing open fire and made my pledge. I repeat it here with explanations.

Stott

It is my solemn resolution to retain, as far as advancing years and inflation will permit, all the bad habits which have disgraced me in the past.

This is a gesture of pure altruism. I cannot afford my bad habits, financially or physically. My smoking has reached the proportions of a disease. My use of improper language excludes me from the elegant company I should like to enter. In affairs bibulous I am taxing the patience of a tired stomach—as also in affairs comestible. My lack of exercise is rendering me all but sessile. My lack of mental activity is apparent in my vacant stare and uncomprehending monosyllables.

★ ★ ★

I count these, and other afflictions, almost too much to bear. With a strong determination to pursue a hair-shirt existence, I shall persist—rather I will persist, as the grammarians say.

And why?

Because of my great love of humanity.

I smoke until my fingers turn yellow and my mouth turns brown, my digestion is ruined and my sense of smell is completely destroyed, my hands shake and my breath comes is an erratic wheeze.

All about me, seeing my distressed and abject state, feel infinitely superior. From my insecurity, they gain a degree of self-assurance. They cannot cry because they have no shoes when they see a man who has no feet. No matter how badly they may feel from smoking, they can acquire an inspirational lift merely from watching me. There, they can say, but for the grace, etc.

In a society (local) in which semantics are significant to a decreasing number of people, headed by Tony Emery, my poverty of language makes even the Gary Cooper types sound eloquent. No matter how they garble English, they can feel like polished phrase-makers after hearing me.

★ ★ ★

In matters of caloric intake, fluid and solid, I have developed the aptitudes of a domestic animal indelicately associated with Ireland. Even those gourmands among us can feel ascetic by comparison.

And since almost all people like to be flattered by the suggestion that they are athletic in part at least, my retreat from exercise makes me the horrible example at whom they can point. Watching me slouch in a chair, or waddle down a hall, they can feel like well-drilled soldiers or models, as the case may be.

Moreover, my inability to cerebrate converts almost everyone around me into an intellectual and intellectuals, at this phase of the cycle, are riding on top.

All this thrusts a heavy burden on the body and spirit of one who is weak both ways. Yet how better could one serve humanity than by making its members feel finer by comparison?

This I offer in a sacrificial way on the third day of January—a solemn resolve by a person who has never been able to keep any of his New Year's resolutions beyond the second day of January on any previous occasion in the last half-century.

'Help Hungry Red Chinese' Britons Urge

LONDON (AP) — A group of Britons, contending they are neither Communists nor fellow travellers, appealed to the West last week to offer massive aid to famine stricken Communist China.

Signers of the petition included Canon L. J. Collins of St. Paul's, whose office issued the public announcement and novelist J. B. Priestley and Parliamentarian Anthony Greenwood. Many of the signers have been active campaigners for British abandonment of nuclear weapons.

CLARENCE DECATUR HOWE

CONTROVERSIAL STATESMAN

He Was Architect Of Modern Canada

MONTREAL (CP)—Rt. Hon. Clarence Decatur Howe, 75, was a principal architect of modern Canada and one of the most powerful and controversial political figures of his time.

The statesman, whose career as a cabinet minister stretched from the Great Depression to Canada's post-war boom, died suddenly in his Montreal apartment Saturday of a heart attack.

There are few facets of Canada's economy which do not bear his imprint.

A millionaire engineer at 40, he was brought into politics by the late Prime Minister Mackenzie King and was made minister of railways and canals and minister of marine as soon as he won Port Arthur constituency in the 1935 general election.

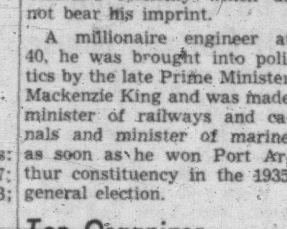

Top Organizer

A year later he began his activities as a creator of cabinet portfolios when he merged the two departments into the department of transport.

As transport minister he reorganized the debt-ridden Canadian National Railways and created Trans-Canada Air Lines out of the welter of small, private and financially shaky airlines which were then attempting to service the expanding country.

He set up the National Harbors Board and played a major role in the establishment of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

Shortly after the outbreak of the Second World War he became minister of the newly-created department of munitions and supply and supervised the spending of more than $200,000,000 on capital equipment. In 1944 he took on the reconstruction portfolio as well and began planning for Canada's post-war future.

In 1948 he became minister of trade and commerce and held this portfolio until his political defeat in 1957, and throughout the Korean War was minister of defence production as well.

An engineer first and a politician second, Mr. Howe often had little patience with the niceties of parliamentary practice or personal diplomacy.

His critics called him "minister of everything" and "czar or czars." J. M. Macdonnell, former Progressive Conservative financial critic, described him as a "Fascist but a nice Fascist."

His political career ended amid the controversy which had always surrounded it.

The last battle centred around the famous pipeline bill of 1956 in which he proposed that the government help a private company build a pipeline from the Alberta oil fields to Eastern Canada.

At first debate concerned the government policy but then it switched to a discussion of parliamentary rules when Mr. Howe, as impatient of opposition as ever fixed a deadline for passage of the bill and the little-used closure rule for cutting off debate was invoked to help meet it.

Packed galleries witnessed some of the stormiest scenes in the history of the Canadian Parliament and the uproar over the bill was partially blamed for his own defeat and that of the government in the subsequent general election.

Mr. Howe himself was defeated by Douglas Fisher, a school teacher and CCF candidate, and forthwith retired from active participation in politics.

He was still active in business. He accepted directorships in a dozen large Canadian companies and was chairman of the board of Ogilvy Flour Mills Limited.

Total Devotion

He had an enduring faith in the future of Canada and it earned him the title of "Canada's No. 1 optimist." This buoyancy carried over into his personal life and he lost it only once, when his ship was torpedoed in the North Atlantic during a wartime trip to England and he spent eight hours in an open boat before being rescued.

A colleague was killed during the rescue and Mr. Howe told friends he came out of the ordeal with the feeling he was living on borrowed time, which he would use in total devotion to the job he had to do for Canada.

Oddly, for a man so closely identified with Canada, he was born an American citizen in Waltham, Mass., Jan. 15, 1887, and though he later became completely Canadian in outlook he never lost his characteristic New England accent.

His father, William Clarence Howe, was a contractor and descendant of Hon. Joseph Howe, famous Nova Scotia statesman, and his mother was Mary Hastings Howe, a school trustee.

No Regrets

The young Howe received a degree in engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1907 and a year later moved to Halifax where he was a professor of civil engineering at Dalhousie University for five years.

Later he founded the C. D. Howe Engineering Company, specializing in the construction of grain elevators, docks, pulp mills and other plants.

He apparently felt no regrets about leaving the political wars and reporters who called on him for comment about Progressive Conservative government policies usually were politely but firmly turned down.

Mr. Howe is survived by his wife, the former Alice Worcester, daughter of his first employer in Boston, two sons, William and John, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Barbara and Mary.

. . . HIS CONTRIBUTION NEVER SURPASSED . . .

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

From across Canada a wave of tributes rolled in today for Rt. Hon. Clarence D. Howe who died Saturday.

They came from business leaders, former political allies and political foes who crossed swords with him in the House of Commons during his terms as a Liberal cabinet minister from 1935 to 1957.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker, one of Mr. Howe's most persistent critics during the stormy pipeline debate of 1957 which closed his political career, praised his "great ability, indomitable courage and energy" during the Second World War when he directed the country's wartime economy.

Liberal leader Lester Pearson, his one-time cabinet colleague, and former CCF leader M. J. Coldwell both said "Canada has lost one of her greatest citizens."

Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent, prime minister of Canada during Mr. Howe's last nine years in the cabinet, said:

"Like most Canadians, I am convinced Mr. Howe's place in history will be a lasting heritage to his family and friends."

Stuart Garson, justice minister in the former Liberal government:

"Even if we include the great Canadian prime ministers, our country in Mr. Howe's passing has lost the greatest cabinet minister of all time for getting the necessary things done at the doing level . . . when Mr. Howe died, the free world lost one of the greatest architects of its survival in the last world war."

J. G. Gardiner, agriculture minister in the former Liberal government:

"He and I entered the government when it was formed in 1935 and we were the only two who served the full 22 years of the life of that government. I shall miss him greatly in the future. No one gave more effective service to Canada throughout that period and particularly during and immediately following the war."

Premier Leslie M. Frost of Ontario:

"He made a very notable contribution to the development of this country. With him I had very many dealings and I can attest to his outstanding abilities of which we in many ways are beneficiaries today."

Chief Justice J. L. Ilsley of Nova Scotia:

"In peace and in war, the magnitude of C. D. Howe's contribution to Canada as a minister of the crown has, I believe, never been surpassed—some would say has never been equalled—in the history of Canada."

George Prudham of Edmonton, mines minister in the former Liberal government:

"Mr. Howe was one of the greatest statemen we ever had. His good, sound judgment contributed to Canada's prosperity in the post-war period. He was one of the best business brains we ever had in public life."

N. R. Crump, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway:

"Mr. Howe's contributions to his adopted Canada were notable and numerous. As an engineer and builder he carried out important construction work in Canada and abroad. In public life he was both architect and builder.

"In peace and war he was dedicated to his country's interest and gave unstintingly of his great administrative talents and driving energy."

Toronto industrialist Henry Borden, wartime associate of Mr. Howe, said: "No man since Confederation has contributed so much to the development of our country . . ."

CNR president Donald Gordon said Mr. Howe seemed indestructible and his death was a severe shock. Gordon McGregor, president of Trans-Canada Air Lines, also expressed shock at Mr. Howe's death.

"It is difficult to realize that anyone so hale and hearty as he was only a week ago is gone."

'Champion'

LONDON (CP)—The Daily Express pays tribute to the late C. D. Howe in an editorial entitled The Champion.

With his death, says the newspaper, Canada loses an "outstanding figure" in its political and economic life. He had used his power with vigor and wisdom.

Referring to his wartime career as munitions minister, it says that in a day to day work Howe's role was indeed more important than that of Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Tories Believe New Party Can Draft Tommy Douglas

OTTAWA (CP)—There's a persistent belief in some federal Progressive Conservative quarters that Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan can be drafted for leadership of the New Party.

This is an assessment giving full recognition to the fact that Tommy Douglas at the helm of the New Party would be bad news for the Conservatives, informants say.

It agrees only up to a point with the openly-expressed view among certain sponsors of the New Party that Mr. Douglas is the logical choice, however much he continues to insist he isn't interested.

A conviction that Mr. Douglas can be drafted next summer, when the left-of-centre party is founded in convention here, is held by government observers with lines out to Saskatchewan.

It's a view not shared by CCF Leader Hazen Argue, himself a candidate, who continues to indicate he has sound reasons for believing Mr. Douglas can't be talked out of his decision to stick with the province of which he has been premier since 1944.

PREMIER DOUGLAS
. . . logical choice

Mr. Argue's opinion seems general among the CCF MPs although, as one put it, a change of heart by Mr. Douglas would be a "pleasant surprise."

At 56, Premier Douglas has proven vote-catching ability and national stature which, backers say, would pack more punch than anything else in earning electoral support for the New Party amalgam of CCF, labor, farm and other interests.

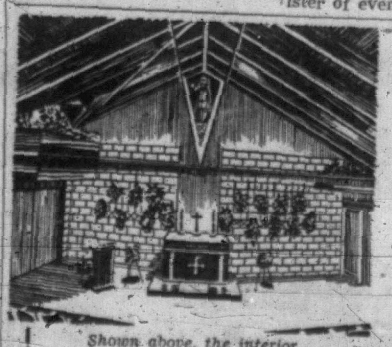

Conservative observers see his leadership as a threat to both Conservative and Liberal parties at a time when the government is making a special effort to patch up differences with western farm groups.

Agriculture Minister Alvin Hamilton made that a prime goal on taking over that department and, it is claimed, has made some strides in a series of speeches in Western Canada.

Conservative strategists are placing special emphasis on this operation, informants say, because of the apparent swing back to the Liberals in Quebec, some softening in Ontario strength and the consequent importance of preserving a Conservative edge in the West where 47 of the 48 Prairie MPs support Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

NAVY WINS

Army Pair Tough

Pattersons are still treading close on the heels of Navy in the Commerical Hockey League race, but the construction crew had to pull out all stops to start the New Year on the right foot.

Although managing twice as many shots on goal as their rivals, Pattersons barely managed to pull out a 4-3 decision over a scrappy Army club at Memorial Arena Monday night to remain two points behind the Sailors, who opened the weekly twin-bill with a 6-1 win over Independent Athletic Association.

Pattersons grabbed a 3-1 lead in the opening period and appeared on the way to an easy victory. But it turned out to be one of the fastest and most interesting games of the mercantile loop campaign for the 856 fans as the soldiers rallied to deadlock the score in the second session and stayed in the battle right down to the wire.

GOALIE GREAT

It was almost a two-man show for Army. Bob Larsen fired all three goals for the soldiers and goalie Vince MacDonald was a spectacular figure as he blocked 48 of 52 shots in the barrage fired by Pattersons.

Juvenile netminder Bob Fisher, playing his second game in the Commercial League, turned in a creditable performance as he stopped 24 shots at the Patterson nets.

Ex-pro Jack McIntyre, one of the standouts for the winners, made a neat play for the payoff tally in the final period, passing to Brian Erb for the scoring shot.

Also scoring for Pattersons were Bob Fowler, Arnold Elliott and Chuck Weeks.

LATE ERUPTION

Navy also had to struggle for two periods before getting their guns on target and running away with four goals in the final period.

Goals by Cliff Uhren and Paul Lapointe sent Navy into a 2-0 lead before Bob Anderson fired the lone tally for Independents late in the first period.

Play was fairly even during the scoreless second session, but after Lapointe counted for his second goal early in the final period, the Tars sailed steadily to their seventh victory in nine starts. Uhren, the league scoring leader, also picked up another goal in the third period, in which Navy outshot IAA 15-4.

ALL BY HIS LONESOME

Obliging referee is only company for Brent Wooten as Washington halfback gathers in pass from Bob Schloredt (15) for Huskies' first touchdown in Rose Bowl football game at Pasadena, Calif. Minnesota defenders weren't even close. Schloredt, voted game's outstanding player, sparked Huskies to 17-7 victory. Minnesota's Bob Deegan (89) and Washington's Ray Jackson (35) are other players

BELLINO HELD TO FOUR YARDS

Fleet Huskies Bury Top-Ranked Gophers

By The Associated Press

Bob Schloredt, Washington's one-eyed wonder, came back from an October injury and triggered a 17-7 Rose Bowl upset of national champion Minnesota Monday as the Huskies joined Mississippi, Missouri and Duke as bowl winners on a climax day of college football's New Year's party.

More than 325,000 fans—including President-Elect Kennedy—watched in person and the usual millions more on television to see:

Schloredt, sidelined since October 15 with a shoulder separation, pass for one touchdown and run for another in a spectacular first-half show that buried the Big Ten champion Gophers and the country's No. 1 team before 97,314 at Pasadena, Calif.

All-America Jake Gibbs scored both touchdowns as Mississippi, ranked second in the final season poll behind Minnesota, whipped Rice 14-6 before 82,851 in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl.

Hard-hitting Missouri held Heisman Trophy winner Joe Bellino to four yards rushing while forging a 21-14 victory over Navy before 71,218 in the Orange Bowl at Miami.

And pass-happy Duke rallied for a 7-6 upset of Arkansas' Southwest Conference champions before 74,000 at Dallas' Cotton Bowl. A nine-yard pass from Don Altman to lonesome end Tee Moorman and Art Browning's conversion with two minutes and 45 seconds left saved the day for Duke.

Breaking loose with an explosive attack, coach Jim Owen's Big Five champions from Seattle struck for a field goal in the first quarter and added two touchdowns in the second to take a 17-0 lead that Minnesota could not overcome in the Rose Bowl clash.

Once again it was a deadly combination of Washington stars which pulled off the wrecking job—Schloredt; halfback George Fleming, the ghost runner; halfback Don McKeta, outstanding on defence as well as offence, and fullback Ray Jackson.

LONG FIELD GOAL

Huskies led off with a 44-yard field goal by the gifted Fleming. But it was the double touchdown strike in the second quarter that ruined the chances of the visitors from Minneapolis.

Schloredt led Washington 62 yards in 11 plays and flipped a pass for four yards into the end zone to Brent Wooten for the touchdown.

Fleming kicked the first of his two extra points.

Then the smaller but quicker Washington line stopped the first scoring threat by Minnesota on the Washington 32 and the Schloredt-led Huskies roared back 68 yards in nine plays. The drive was highlighted by a 31-yard quarterback "sneak play" with the count third down and one yard to go—and Schloredt was the man on the go.

It was Schloredt who on the ninth play dived through the line for the touchdown.

Schloredt, All-America quarterback in 1959, is on the negotiation list of the British Columbia Lions, of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Trader Takes Job With Kansas City

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Frank Lane, vice-president and general manager of the Cleveland Indians baseball club, resigned today to accept a similar job with the Kansas City Athletics.

Lane was in Chicago today to sign a contract with Charles Finley, an insurance broker who recently bought control of the Kansas City team. Details of Lane's contract were to be announced at a news conference later today.

Informed sources said they believed Lane would receive a long-term contract at a better salary than he received here. He also was in line to receive stock in the Kansas City team.

Lane, known for his endless trading of players, was credited with reviving interest in baseball here.

Lane had two more years to go on his contract with the Indians. It was reported to call for a $50,000 a year salary and a bonus of five cents per person after home attendance reached 800,000. In one year here, attendance reached about 1,500,000.

Lane built attendance and a winning club, although he failed to produce a pennant winner. But his trades aroused some of the fans, especially last season when he traded Rocky Colavito and Minnie Minoso. He said he was trying to put together a balanced team with a good defence. The deal misfired with the Indians finishing fourth.

Visitors Receive Rough Treatment In Minor Games

Victoria teams came up with the best average in minor hockey exhibitions against visiting teams last week.

Victoria Bantams beat Ladner 5-1 but lost to Nanaimo 6-3. Victoria juveniles tied Nanaimo 6-6 and the Capitol City's midgets beat Nanaimo 10-1.

This week's schedule at Memorial Arena:

Wednesday—7 a.m., midget, Indians vs. Bisons; 4.30 p.m., midget, Bisons vs. Bears; 5.30 p.m., midget, Indians vs. Barons.
Thursday—7 a.m., juvenile, Leafs vs. Vics.
Friday—7 a.m., Peewee All-Stars vs. Bantam All-Stars.
Saturday—7 a.m., Peewee and Tom Thumb.
Sunday—10 p.m., Juvenile All-Star practice.

Pakistan Runs Up Big Cricket Lead

CALCUTTA (Reuters)—Pakistan led India by 151 runs with nine second-innings wickets still standing at the close of play today in their third cricket test match here.

Pakistan dismissed India for 180 after scoring 301 in the first innings. The visiting team then added 30 runs for one wicket by the close of play.

All Those Goals Added Dividend

Tactical Switch Paying Off Big For Hot Cougars

Cougars 6, Flyers 1

By DOUG PEDEN

George Agar got an unexpected result when he switched tactics, but you won't hear a whisper of complaint today from the Victoria coach.

Starting the Western Hockey League season, the freshman pilot drilled the Cougars in a free-wheeling, wide-open pattern of play that he hoped would produce a lot of goals. It did just that and the Cats were involved in a number of high-scoring arguments.

But there was still one big flaw. The other clubs were getting most of the goals and the Cougars skidded down to last place in the eight-team circuit.

Enough was enough, and George decided it was time to adopt a close-to-the-vest policy. The order of the day was "shorter passes and tighter checking." The aim was to cut down the wear and tear on the Victoria nets with Agar expecting low-scoring games and hoping Cats would be able to pull out their share of victories.

Batting .500 Now

The switch has produced dividends. The Cougars have won five of their last six games and are in sixth place, with an even record of 15 wins and 15 defeats. They are only three points away from third and seven behind Calgary and Vancouver, who are deadlocked in the top berth.

In those five victories, the Cougars have allowed only eight goals, which is exactly the result Agar had hoped for on defence.

But they're fooling him on the other side of the ledger.

Working more as a cohesive unit than at any time this season, the Cats are on a scoring binge. They have collected six goals in each of their last three games and tacked up a three-game win streak on home ice.

Edmonton's skidding Flyers are the latest victims of the new-look Cougars, sinking closer to the league cellar as Victoria exploded for four goals in the second period Monday afternoon at Memorial Arena and coasted to a 6-1 triumph.

Sinking Rapidly

It was the eighth straight loss and 12th in 13 games for the once-proud Flyers, who were only one point out of first place on Dec. 6.

Now only four points in front of Winnipeg, the Flyers are threatening to wreck coach Bud Poile's record of never having had a club out of the playoffs.

Gerry Goyer, George Ford, Bill Saunders, Doug Macauley, rookie Don Wilson and defenceman Jim Hay each picked up a goal for the Cougars, who make their next start at Spokane Tuesday and play their next home game Saturday against Vancouver.

Gene Achtymichuk nudged in Edmonton's goal while Jim Moro was serving a penalty midway in the second period, steering in the puck when goalie Marcel Pelletier misjudged a rebound off the end boards and allowed the puck to trickle in front of the goal.

Rest for Riggin

Pelletier came up with several fine saves and finished with a total of 30 stops, four more than the total chalked up by Dennis Riggin and Ron Griffis, who replaced Riggin in the Edmonton net for the final nine minutes.

Riggin suffered a painful chest bruise when he stopped a sizzling shot in the second period. He tried to finish out the game, but finally gave way to Griffis, who plays in the city commercial league. Griffis stopped all four shots that came his way.

Riggin is expected to be able to return to action Wednesday in the next Edmonton game.

Flyers, appearing dispirited and weary, were no match for the alert Cats after the opening period, although managing to outshoot Agar's crew 10-8 in the final period.

No Goal-Scorer, But Frank Arnett Attracts Publicity

Colin Kilburn, Vancouver Canucks' one-time assistant, came back to haunt his old club Monday and the hero in Winnipeg was veteran Lorne Davis. But Frank Arnett, who didn't even get a scoring point, was the main topic of discussion around the Western Hockey League today.

The Seattle Totem defenceman was suspended indefinitely Monday for clouting an official on the chin in Sunday night's game against Spokane Comets.

League president Al Leader, vacationing in California, informed the Seattle team of the suspension after getting a full report from his secretary and referee Lou Farelli.

The hassle came after Arnett was penalized by Farelli because of a mixup with Spokane's Forbes Kennedy. The Seattle player threw his helmet and gloves into the stands, took a swing at Farelli and hit linesman Pete Wywrot instead.

Several of Arnett's teammates restrained him and he left the arena shortly afterward.

After the game—won by Seattle 8-4—Roy McBride, Comet coach and general manager, asked Leader to fine Arnett at least $250 and suspend him for a month.

The loss dropped Comets out of third place, but they were back to share the rung with Seattle on Monday when Kilburn's overtime goal in Vancouver gave Spokane a 5-4 decision over the Canucks.

Davis fired the winner at Winnipeg as the last-place Warriors came back to edge Calgary Stampeders 4-3 in another Monday game. Sunday night in Portland, the hometown Buckaroos defeated Edmonton Flyers 4-3.

RACE CHANGES LITTLE

The league standings were relatively unchanged by the weekend results. Vancouver and Calgary are tied for first place, while Spokane and Seattle are six points back in a third-place tie. Buckaroos trail their American counterparts by one point.

Pat Ginnell, Gord Haworth, Arnie Schmautz and Art Jones scored for Portland against Edmonton, while Brian Smith, Len Haley and Chuck Holmes countered for the Flyers.

Bill MacFarland led Seattle's attack with two goals and three assists, while Tommy McVie also got two goals. Guyle Fielder, Don Chiupka, Rudy Filion and Ed Ehrenverth added single goals. For Spokane, it was Bob McCusker, Ching Johnson, Bev Bell and Steve Witiuk.

Bell, McCusker, Johnson and Forbes Kennedy were the other Spokane marksmen Monday, while Vancouver scorers were Frank Roggeveen, Dave Duke, Larry Popein and Bruce Carmichael.

At Winnipeg, Al Nicholson, Nick Mickoski, Don Bamburak and Davis scored for the Warriors.

The league's leading marksman, Ron Leopold, scored twice for Calgary while Wally Hergesheimer got the third.

West Indies Trounced By Aussies

MELBOURNE (Reuters)—Australia trounced the West Indies by seven wickets here today and took a 1-0 lead in their five-match test cricket series.

The Australians polished off the West Indians with a day to spare in the five-day match, the second of the series. The first test ended in a tie.

Conrad Hunte and Gerry Alexander tried to put the West Indies back in the game with some solid batting today. Hunte scored 110 and Alexander 72 before being out, but the visitors were so far behind following their batting collapse Monday that Australia needed only 67 second-innings runs for victory.

West Indian fast bowlers Wesley Hall and Chester Watson claimed three wickets before Les Favell drove Hall to the boundary for the winning runs.

Final scores were: West Indies 181 and 233; Australia 348 and 70 for three.

RECORD BOWLING PAYOFF

Jackpot So Big, Gibson Did Jig

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — It sounds easy. You just roll the heavy ball down the lane, knock all 10 of the wooden pins down six times in a row and stroll off with $75,000.

That's what veteran Detroit bowling instructor Therm Gibson, 43, did Monday night. The feat, considered difficult by bowlers under any conditions, was performed with hot television lights glaring at him and a multitude of people across the country watching on Milton Berle's "Jackpot Bowling" show at the Legion Lanes.

The show's sponsor said the $75,000 presented to Gibson was the biggest payoff for one match in bowling history.

The jackpot started at $25,000 and built up by $5,000 for each succeeding program. Gibson pulled off the six consecutive strikes trick in a match against Chicago's Don Ellis and when the last pin went down, he went into Detroit version of the Mexican hat dance.

He'll return next week to meet another opponent and try for the $25,000 base prize.

TELEPHONE DISCONNECTED . . . . . AND GARAGE IS EMPTY

Rainy Day Has Come and Gone

CINCINNATI (AP) — The telephone is disconnected at the Forest Avenue house of Ezzard Charles. The garage is empty. The $14,000 mortgage is due to be foreclosed.

That is the remainder of the material gains of the former heavyweight boxing champion of the world.

"I was saving for a rainy day and the rainy day has gone," said Charles, who earned close to $2,000,000. Then, chuckling at himself and the vagaries of finance, he added:

"It's more than a rainy day, it's a flood."

The 39-year-old Charles, who little more than 10 years ago took the title from Joe Louis, now is broke and without a job. Heavyweight title purses alone brought him $769,499, but now he rides the bus or hitches a ride.

EZZARD CHARLES

The big six-footer has taken on close to 50 post-championship pounds. He has tried several jobs between comeback efforts.

But he still wants something that pays the big money. Turned wrestler this year, he's hankering for a berth with one of the top wrestling alliances.

"It all stems back to being a fighter," he said. "You don't want to wait for things to happen. If I want to do something, I want to do it. Now I want to wrestle."

Hot Hall Helps Hawks In Vital Holiday Sweep

By THE CANDIAN PRESS

Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks celebrated the New Year's weekend holiday in great style, picking up four out of four points in the National Hockey League race.

The Black Hawks, who skidded from first place in the league standings to a poor fourth, shut out Detroit Red Wings twice with identical 3-0 scores and raised themselves into a third-place tie with Detroit in the league standings. Toronto clipped New York Rangers 2-1 and 4-1 in a home-and-home series.

Goalie Glenn Hall was the star for Chicago, kicking out 27 shots in Detroit Saturday night while his teammates could manage only 15 on Hank Bassen in the Red Wing net, and handling 37 shots Sunday night in Chicago.

The shutouts raised Hall's league-leading total to six.

Stan Mikita provided the offensive punch for the Black Hawks, scoring two goals Saturday and getting another Sunday. Ab McDonald, Ken Wharram and Ron Murphy got the other Chicago counters.

Rookie Dave Keon and Frank Mahovlich gave Toronto their twin wins.

Keon scored both goals Saturday night in Toronto and Mahovlich blasted two Sunday night as the Leafs got four goals in the third period to wrap up the victory.

Billy Harris and Johnny McMillan scored Toronto's other goals Sunday. Bill Gadsby and Ted Hampson got New York's efforts.

Montreal Canadiens and Boston Bruins split, Montreal winning 3-1 Saturday night in Mohtreal and Boston clipping the league leaders 3-2 Sunday in Boston.

PENALTIES NEAR RECORD

The Sunday night game was a wild, penalty-filled affair from the first few minutes, with a total of 32 penalties called by referee Dalton McArthur. The most penalties ever called in one game was 36, in a Toronto-Montreal struggle in 1953.

Major penalties were given to Jimmy Bartlett and Doug Mohns of Boston and Bill Hicke and Ralph Backstrom of Montreal. Misconducts went to Bartlett and Backstrom.

Willy O'Ree, the only Negro to play in the NHL, picked up his first league goal Sunday and it proved to be the winning one. Johnny Bucyk and Leo Boivin got the other Boston markers while Hicke and Henri Richard scored for Montreal.

The Canadiens' kid line—Hicke, Backstrom and Gilles Tremblay — handled all the scoring chores Saturday night. Bronco Horvath spoiled Charlie Hodge's bid for a shutout with a third-period goal.

FINED $200 for public criticism of National Hockey League referees is Toronto coach Punch Imlach (above). League president Clarence Campbell, announcing the Monday, said Imlach's outburst after Maple Leafs lost 6-3 verdict to Montreal on Dec. 1, reflected on "the general competence and integrity of officials."

NEW FASHION TREND?

Cherchez la Femme ...At the Racetrack!

—LONDON (AP) — The girls of England and Ireland today praised their French sisters for yet another lead in fashion —this time on the horse race tracks.

The French Jockey Club has bowed to demands that some racees should be open solely to women riders.

Now the girls across the English Channel and over the Irish Sea believe the men who rule horse racing in their lands should do the same.

The French girls will have races to themselves. In cases where riders are under 16 they must have written permission from their parents. Married women under 16 must get the okay from their husbands.

Some of the men here are all for the idea, too.

"British racing urgently needs new attractions," said Ryan Price, a leading trainer of steeplechasers and jumpers in England.

"Besides the girls in racing stables deserve a fair crack of the whip. They work very hard, love their horses and ride beautifully," added Price.

Noel Murless, champion trainer on the flat in England last year, was opposed.

"It's damn silly," he said. "Women are bad enough in point-to-point meets."

Over in Ireland, Helen Bryce Smyth, a point-to-point rider, is leading a campaign to get races for women in Ireland.

ONE JOB ENOUGH FOR EDDIE

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Oakland Raiders of the American Football League were without a president or a general manager today and Eddie Erdelatz said he wanted no part of either job.

The Raiders' head coach said he intended to continue as boss of the team on the field, but felt that the combined job of coach and general manager "is too much for one man."

The two top jobs opened late Sunday when Y. A. (Chet) Soda resigned the dual role. But Soda, one of the team's eight owners, said he intended to keep his stock and remain a director.

Raiders, in their first AFL season, lost an estimated $400,000.

BOWLING Fault Finder

Timing

BY TONY LINDEMAN
1951 ABC All-Events Champ

I doubt whether there is a sport played where the word timing isn't usually one of the main subjects of conversation among those who work or play at the game.

I work many hours practicing to get my timing down pat. I hope it comes easier for you.

Good timing in bowling means that the hand with the ball arrives at the foul line at exactly the same time the left foot slides to a complete stop.

When I'm in time, I have everything working for me. I'm able to come within a quarter of a board of hitting my spot out on the lane.

I'm able to apply just the correct amount of lift on the ball so that I roll a short, snappy hook.

Hand arrives with foot

Blanda Brilliant In Oiler Victory

HOUSTON (AP)—Houston Oilers are the first champions of the American Football League, thanks to the third-down passes of George Blanda.

Blanda threw three touchdown passes and the Oiler pass defence was amazing Sunday as Houston took the championship with a 24-16 victory over Los Angeles Chargers before a crowd of 32,183.

While Blanda's effectiveness on third down triggered the Oiler offence, the Houston defence was handing Jack Kemp, the league's No. 1 passer, his first touchdown shutout in five games.

All of Blanda's touchdowns came on third down, as did 11 of his 16 completions. The completions were good for 301 yards and all but 48 yards came on third-down plays.

Kemp had thrown six touchdowns in two regular-season games against the Oilers, who won the eastern division title despite the leakiest pass defence in the league. Kemp's 21 completions Sunday were good for 171 yards but this was well below the 276.7-yard average Houston had allowed in 14 regular-season games.

TOP DEFENSIVE GAME

"It was our best defensive game of the season," said Blanda, who spent 10 years with Chicago Bears of the National League before "retiring" two years ago.

Blanda's passing and kicking figured in every Houston point in a game in which a flurry of fist fights led to the ejection of three players.

He threw his touchdown strikes to Dave Smith, 17 yards; Billy Cannon, 88 yards, and to Bill Groman, for seven yards. The other Houston points came on a field goal and three converts, all booted by Blanda.

Ben Agajanian's three field goals, a convert and Paul Lowe's touchdown plunge from the two-yard line accounted for Los Angeles scoring.

Nanaimo Youngsters Can Learn From Scott

If Nanaimo's eager youngsters ever absorb some of the cleverness being demonstrated by centre-forward Jack Scott, the Coaltown kids are liable to spring a flock of upsets in the Victoria and District Football Association.

The veteran Scott, still a threat anytime he gets possession of the ball near the goal, banged in three goals at Beacon Hill Monday. But his effort wasn't quite enough as the Nanaimo youngsters, long on energy and short on finesse, dropped a 4-3 decision to Heaneys.

Getting another great game from fullback Dick Seward, the hustling Nanaimo squad held an edge in play after trailing 2-1 at the intermission, but couldn't quite head off defeat.

TWO FOR POTTS

Fred Potts fired both goals for Heaneys in the opening half and Al Boden and Ron Pedersen counted in the final session.

Canadian Scottish clubbed a chance to move within one point of second-place Kickers Sunday. The usually potent Scottish scoring attack couldn't break through an unexpectedly strong Gorge Hotel defence and the Scots went down to a 2-0 defeat.

Ian Holroyd and Dunc McCaig scored the goals that scuttled the Scots, who had track star Terry Tobacco playing his second game on the halfback line.

In other Monday matches, Saanich Thistles again mounted a situation defence and carved out a 1-0 triumph over Brodies Bakery on the strength of Dave Collett's first-half tally, and a goal by Les Stevenson, formerly with the Marcombe club in England's Lancashire League, collected the lone goal as Victoria West chalked up a 1-0 win at Ladysmith.

SCORERS HOBBLED

Kickers' vaunted scoring punch, which had produced 72 goals in 13 games, came a cropper against the fine defence of Evcoes at Royal Athletic Park Saturday.

Evcoes who have now allowed only 11 goals in 13 matches, climbed to the top of the league ladder with a 3-0 triumph.

What was expected to be a down-to-the-wire struggle as Kickers attempted to improve their one-point lead over the defending champions, proved to be a routine victory for the smooth-working Evcoes.

Obviously hampered by the absence of forward Volker Stoldt and halfback Hank de Bruin, Kickers never seriously threatened to spoil goalie Al Davies bid for a shutout.

Evcoes picked up all their goals in the opening half and missed several good opportunities to increase their total in the second half. Taking care of the scoring were Bill Abbott, Tim Walker and Maurice Bunyan.

Maroons Post Sixth Victory

JIHLAVA (CP) Winnipeg Maroons defeated a Czech army team 4-0 Monday night and playing coach Gordon Simpson described the game as one of the toughest the Maroons have played during their Czechoslovakian tour.

The victory was goalie Gordon Dibley's second straight shutout, and it gave the Maroons a record of six wins, two ties and one loss in their nine games so far. They will play one more game before returning to Canada.

The Maroons played excellent hockey despite the loss of two players—Tom Rendall and big Bill Juzda.

Rendall suffered a shoulder separation as Maroons scored a 2-0 victory Sunday and had to remain in hospital there. He is to rejoin the team in Prague for the trip home.

STARS BOLSTER CZECHS

Juzda is favoring a minor leg injury. He elected to sit out Monday night's game and play in the last game Wednesday at Pardubice.

The Jihlava Duckla army team, in last place in the Czech First Hockey League, was strengthened by five of this country's better players who are vying for spots with the Czechs national team. The same thing has been done in other games the Maroons have played.

Forwards Reg Abbott, Lloyd Orris, Jim MacKenzie and Tom Marshall were the Maroons' snipers.

Abbott and Orris accounted for Sunday's goals before 11,000 fans.

SPURNED BY BETTORS, MARE SETS TURF RECORD

ARCADIA, Calif (AP) — Geechee Lou, a five-year-old bay mare, set a U.S. record at a mile and an eighth on the turf Monday as she won the $39,300 San Gabriel Handicap before 43,559 fans at Santa Anita Park. She was timed at 1.46 3-5.

The previous mark—1.46 4-5—was set Feb. 16, 1960, at Santa Anita by Fleet Nasrullah.

Overlooked in the betting, she returned $63, $18.20 and $9.40.

How Now was second and show money went to the English-bred Sundown II.

The victory was worth $19,050 to owner Lawrence Krakower. Veteran jockey Johnny Longden was Geechee Lou's rider.

On Saturday, C. V. Whitney's Tompion came up with a strong stretch run Saturday to win the $27,650 Malibu Stakes, edging the betting favorite, Balph Lowe's New Policy.

First Balcony was third in the field of seven.

Receptions Held on the Ground and in the Air

Jorgen Svendsen Photos

RECORD TURNOUT AT LIVELY LEVEES

Thousands of Victorians "made the rounds" Monday in a record turnout at official New Year receptions.

The innovation of the year was hot bouillon at Government House, where about 2,000 people lined up for a personal handshake from Lieutenant-Governor George Pearkes.

At City Hall there were so many smokers they ran out of cigars.

At the Bay Street Armory, HMCS Naden, 2455 Squadron RCAF, and Work Point Barracks, the big service "levees" all drew record crowds.

It was, apparently, a combination of fine weather and the Sunday "layoff" which brought out the big crowds.

All the receptions went off without hitches or trouble.

It was a special day for the RCAF at 866 Yates, where 2455 Squadron held its last levee. The squadron is disbanding this year and Sqdn. Ldr. D. B. Ascott was host at a farewell New Year's Eve Ball Saturday.

There'll be more winding-up ceremonies in January and March.

More than 400 guests visited the Yates St. mess, with another 100 or more visiting the sergeants.

It was a bigger crowd this year at Government House. Last year, when Frank M. Ross played host, there were just under 2,000.

The hot bouillon introduced by Gen. Pearkes "went over very well," said an aide. Coffee and punch were also served.

"His honor enjoyed his first reception very much," said the aide.

NO LET UP

The count at City Hall was 658. It was 450 last year.

Mayor Percy Scurrah and all council members were present.

"It was an extremely heavy flow of people; there was no let up at all," said city clerk Franke Hunter. "We had to send out for two more cases of cigars."

HMCS Naden's turnout was estimated at between 1,000 and 1,200.

"They say only about half the guests signed the book, said Cmdr. John Bovey, Naden commander."

One of the guests on the reception line was Air Commodore G. G. Truscott, deputy maritime commander, Pacific coast.

It was "fast and furious" at Work Point Barracks, where Lieut.-Col. J. C. Allan of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry was host to what were described as larger-than-average crowds.

At Bay Street there were Canadian Scottish Regiment and Fifth Medium Battery, RCA, receptions in officers' and sergeants' mssses.

Although no counts were made 1,500 "servings" went between 10 and noon in the artillery mess.

"We just squeaked by with enough," said an official.

Other receptions with good crowds were held at HMCS Malahat and at Esquimalt Municipal Hall.

★ ★ ★ 3,000 SAY GOOD-BYE AND HELLO

Over 3,000 people visited Patricia Bay airport Monday to say "good-bye" to an old, familiar aircraft, and "hello" to a sleek new one.

It was Viscount day, staged by Trans-Canada Air Lines to introduce the 315-mile-per-hour turbo prop to the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle service.

The new aircraft, which carries from 44 to 54 passengers, replaces the "work-horse" DC-3s which have served the run faithfully since 1946.

Before being pulled off the run for good, a DC-3 put on two courtesy flights for airport visitors. Three flights were staged by Viscounts. Among the passengers were 15 Times carrier salesmen.

A ceremonious "good-bye" was said to the DC-3s at 1.30 p.m. by Don McLaren, veteran TCA flier and executive, now retired. The first scheduled Viscount flight, No. 145 from Vancouver, landed at 1.55 p.m., and was officially welcomed by Norman Donnelly, regional operations manager for TCA.

New Year cheer!

His Grace the Archbishop of British Columbia, Most Reverend Harold Sexton, DD, tells me that during one of his lone walks in the Fairfield district he came upon a very small boy trying to reach a door bell.

His Grace promptly went to the boy's assistance and pushed the bell long and hard.

"What do we do now?" he asked the very small boy.

"Run like hell!" the boy replied.

Heard on the B.C. government ferry to Vancouver:

"There must be a lot of Victoria people on board—we've run out of teapots!"

"When does the Session start?" asked a man on New Year's Day.

He sounded so eager . . . yet to many of us the legislative session seems like an interminable tunnel of wind lasting from late January to early Spring—day after day and often night after night.

You think of all the boring speakers who are let loose during this season—those who are so insensitive to the calloused ears of their listeners; so indifferent to the tax money that is being spent on keeping them talking!

★ ★ ★

I like the story of the boy who attended morning service at an Oak Bay church and found he had no money for the collection.

He put his pocket knife in the plate because it was all he had to give!

★ ★ ★

Catch of the Season . . . . Waldo Skillings landed a 150-pound Marlin measuring 9 ft. 8 in. during his recent flying visit to Mexico.

"It was a real whopper," he said, "I'm still getting my breath back."

TOPICS OF THE DAY

City Hall was caught by the New Year with its cash registers down a decade.

Ratepayers prepaying their 1961 taxes today found the cash register receipt stamp dated Jan. 3, 1951.

A cash register company representative was to replace the year stamp—contained in a block covering 10 years at a time—to bring the register up to date.

A porch-light blitz in December in aid of the Kiwanis Villa project has brought in $25,481 to date. This is slightly more than the figure for the same time last year.

Glen Hope, secretary-treasurer of the Kiwanis Village Society, said today money is still coming in and any contributions would be welcomed.

★ ★ ★

A provincial game branch official today said investigation had shown "there is no deer slaughter going on in Thetis Lake Park."

Robert Sinclair said two old deer hides had been found in the park but the animals had been shot during the hunting season and their hides dumped in the park as garbage.

(Numerous persons have illegally dumped all types of garbage in the park at various times.)

An investigation was launched by the game branch at request of city council which heard charges last week that deer were being slaughtered wholesale in the 1,000-acre city-owned watershed sanctuary.

★ ★ ★

Three Colombo Plan students from Ceylon studying government administration took first-hand views of City Hall operations today as part of their field work. Interviewing department heads on their methods of administration were K. D. H. Dharmawardew, Oliver Gurusinghe and R. W. M. A. Kaputoteuve.

Blood clinics will be held Wednesday and Thursday between 2.30 and 4.30 and 7 to 9 p.m. at Red Cross House on Fort Street.

Splashed by hot grease when it spilled into flame on her kitchen stove, Mrs. Rita Hayward, 2548 Dunlevy, is in good condition at Jubilee Hospital today.

Oak Bay fire department took the woman to hospital Saturday night after attending a fire call to her home.

They found flames had licked up a wall, but the fire was out when they arrived.

A general meeting of Old Age Pensioners' Association branch No. 5 will be held in the Naval Veterans' Hall, Broad Street, on Wednesday at 1.30 p.m.

Winners of the junior monthly bridge play-off in Victoria for December were as follows:

First, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Lewis; second, Mr. and Mrs. F. Groome; third, Mr. and Mrs. E. Marris; fourth, Mrs. E. C. Laidlaw and C. J. Hunter; fifth, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Booth.

Small amounts of cash were reported stolen in early-morning burglaries Sunday.

At Island Blueprint, 1124 Blanshard, $14 in silver is missing and desk and counter were ransacked.

Arnold's Bakery, 725 Discovery, said $7 was taken from a cash register and locker rooms were ransacked.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. A. S. Campbell, 1275 Verdier, was in "satisfactory" condition in Royal Jubilee Hospital today after suffering a broken arm and possible other injuries in a fall taken when she was hanging out the family washing.

She fell off a platform to the cement floor six feet below and was taken to hospital by Central Saanich volunteer fire department ambulance about 11.15 a.m. Monday.

★ ★ ★

Money to aid the blind was stolen by burglars who broke into headquarters of Canadian National Institute for the Blind New Year's Eve.

They took $118.42 cash, two cheques of unspecified amount, a number of transportation passes and two braille pocket watches valued at $30 each.

The break-in was reported at 10.15 p.m.

30 BLOOMS ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

Count Your 'Blessings'

How about holding an annual flower count on New Year's Day?

This suggestion comes from G. A. A. (Bert) Hebden, 1173 Lillian.

He feels that Victoria gardeners should hold an annual count of garden flora, similar to the bird count carried out by naturalists during the festive season.

Naturalists this year counted 116 specie of birds wintering in the Greater Victoria area—an all-time record for Canada.

It may be, Mr. Hebden points out, that Victoria can also hold the record for winter flowering plants. The B.C. mainland and the Niagara Peninsula in Ontario might, of course, be strong competitors.

In his own garden, Mr. Hebden counted 30 varieties of flowers in bloom. He thinks other gardens may have as many, perhaps more.

"Can anyone do better?" he asked.

Here is his list: wallflower, strawberry blossom, giant saxifrage, miniature rose, snapdragon, yellow marguerite, violet, stock, jasmine, valerian, yellow saxifrage, African marigold, standard marigold, white saxifrage, rock daphne, bush daphne, nasturtium, hydrangea, campunella, rock forget-me-not, chrysanthemum, pansy, Christmas rose, white marguerite, daisy, bumble bee flower, pink patience, heather, wanda primrose and alyssum.

Woman Dies at Nanaimo As Cigaret Burns Couch

Mrs. Doreen Downey, 37, died early Sunday in a Nanaimo apartment house when the chesterfield on which she was lying caught fire from a cigaret.

Fire department officials said she was found on the chesterfield, and had apparently suffocated from the smouldering lounge even before fire spread to gut the living room of the four-roomed second-storey apartment on Victoria Road.

A family of seven was evacuated from the downstairs apartment.

Mrs. Downey was alone at the time. Her husband, Joseph, a taxi driver, had been at work since 10 p.m.

The fire outbreak was noticed by neighbors at 1 a.m. New Year's Day.

Sad irony of the fatality was the fact the victim's 17-year-old daughter, Coleen, was baby-sitting at the time for city fireman George Command who turned out to battle the blaze.

Damage to the apartment was estimated at $2,000.

An inquest opened Monday night, then was adjourned to Jan. 9.

Mrs. Downey was a native of Nanaimo.

Besides the widower and daughter, survivors include her mother, Mrs. Grace Miller, Union Bay; a brother, John, Union Bay; two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Sullivan, North Vancouver, and Mrs. G. Ashcroft, Ucluelet.

Prayers will be said at 8 p.m. today in Westwood's chapel and funeral will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Mount St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church.

Contract Let For Gas Line To Serve V.I.

A $7,000,000 contract has been awarded to a British cable firm to build 53 miles of underwater pipeline which will eventually bring natural gas to Vancouver Island.

Magna Pipeline Co. of Vancouver will build the overall line from Ladner to Westholme, for a total cost of almost $13,000,000. B.C. Electric will build the Island distribution system.

The new type of pipe will be made by British Insulated Callenders Cables Ltd. It will be flexible lead-covered line, 4.85 inches inside diameter, similar in principle to the power line laid by the same company to the Island for B.C. Electric.

ONE LENGTH

Magna has asked the B.C. Public Utilities Commission for a year's delay, to late 1963, in the completion date, so the British firm can make the pipeline in one continuous length and send it here on its own cable-laying ship.

A start on the land line at either end is expected this April or May. It will be about a year before the undersea pipe arrives.

Magna soon will award another contract for compressors.

It has already announced it will get gas from Westcoast Transmission Co.

'Stop-Gap' Budget Up by $500,000

Victoria's provisional budget today was set at $10,249,950—up by more than $500,000 from last year's actual budget.

But the news isn't that bad for ratepayers.

The provisional budget is a required legal technicality to enable the city to make expenditures until the actual budget is set by May 15.

The actual budget — which determines the mill rate—consistently is much lower than the provisional figure after aldermen are finished trimming estimates.

FIRST BRICKS 'WHACKED' FOR WRECKERS

Health Minister Eric Martin today officially started demolition of Royal Jubilee Hospital's old administration building.

The morning ceremony signalled start of tearing down the red brick structure — oldest standing part of the hospital—to clear the site for a new $2,750,000 wing.

Demolition contract of $4,900 was awarded to Farmer Construction.

Courtney Haddock, chairman of the hospital board, said it was "likely" that tenders would be called for the main construction project while the administration building was being torn down.

The new five-storey wing is expected to employ up to 200 men during construction lasting about two years.

Young Girl, Elderly Man Car Victims

An eight-year-old girl in "fairly good" condition today is one of three people hurt in traffic crashes since New Year's Day in Victoria and Saanich.

Olivia Larkin, 541 Niagara, was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital with head cuts, shock and bruises after she was in collision with a car driven at Niagara and Clarence by John B. Fraser, 3339 Cedar Hill, at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Wong You, 1615½ Government, who police said is 79, is described as "good" with forehead abrasions and a deep cut to his upper right arm received when he was in collision with a car at Fisgard and Government at 10.45 p.m. Monday.

The pedestrian was in a crosswalk on Fisgard when in collision with a car driven by Sarah Brown of Nanaimo, police said.

HIT HYDRANT

Passenger Laurel Page of 2092 Byron, escaped with forehead bruise and knee cut after the car in which she rode was in collision with a fire hydrant on Townley at 3.40 a.m. Sunday.

The car, driven by Gary Reginald Sheppard, 3009 Irma, had $300 damage and the hydrant an estimated $100, Saanich police said.

In the worst accident in Saanich New Year's Day, one car was wrecked and two others damaged, but no one was hurt in the three-car crack-up on Royal Oak Avenue at 4.40 a.m.

Police said a car driven by Frank Barlow, 4916 Maxine, was in collision with two others parked at the side of Royal Oak causing damage estimated at $300, $150 and $1,000 respectively.

WINTER WORK FOR 70 MEN ON FIVE SAANICH PROJECTS

Saanich hopes to launch five major projects in the next month under its 1961 winter employment program.

The projects should provide employment for at least 70 men.

They include preliminary work on a $1,200,000 Cadboro Bay-Shelbourne sewer system and a $100,000 joint fire-police hall at Swan Lake.

Other projects are the development of Cadboro Bay Park, miscellaneous work to some 15 parks and playgrounds, and the cleaning of open ditches.

Park Fire Guts Nursery Building

Fire burned out half of the city's Beacon Hill Park nursery building—centre of parks administration—two hours before employees showed up for work today.

Firemen held the 6 a.m. blaze to the east end interior and stopped it spreading beyond second storey siding and roofing.

Loss was estimated at several thousand dollars. First reports indicate the damage is repairable.

City manager Cecil Wyatt said replacement insurance is carried.

Fire Chief James Bayliss said exact cause of the fire could not be determined, but that all wiring checked out to the satisfaction of an electrical inspector.

It was assumed by the chief that certain treated rainwear hung next to a radiator in one of the building's workshops could have caught fire after long exposure to heat, especially if they contained something else, such as oily rags or matches.

TRUCKS SAVED

Firemen removed two trucks and a small tractor from the building's shed areas, preventing any damage to them. Other vehicles were parked outside.

Interior of the two offices, occupied by Mr. W. H. Warren and his assistant Cliff Bate, were gutted.

Flames broke through into a storage loft where the city's famed hanging baskets and special effect lighting equipment were stored.

Much of the outside parks equipment such as boulevard hoses and sprinklers, were removed to separate locations some time ago.

HEAT NEEDED

An adjoining greenhouse, housing a large number of plants and flowers being readied for spring planting, escaped fire damage. But workmen must restore heat to the building to keep the plants alive through another frost.

Parks operations were transferred today to MacDonald Park and Royal Athletic Park pending restoration of facilities at Beacon Hill.

City firemen attended two smaller fires over the weekend, one in a sawdust bin at the home of Martin Vermanning, 140 Wellington, at 7.20 p.m. New Year's Day, where the house was filled with smoke, and in a mattress at the home of R. H. Lowe, 1044 Redfern, at 7.34 p.m. Monday.

Another Jolt For Chest's 'Second Look'

A second Community Chest agency has turned in a revised budget requesting more money.

All 22 agencies were asked to give their budgets a second look in an attempt to meet the $65,000 deficit in the 1960 Community Chest campaign.

Last week the St. John Ambulance Brigade provided the first shock with its presentation of a budget increased by about $11,000. Now the Canadian Mental Health Association has upped its former request for $11,000 by $5,848.

So far 18 agencies have completed revision of their budgets. In their original budgets they asked for a total of $233,298 — their economy budgets ask for $232,626.

With four more agencies yet to be heard from, final figure asked for will likely be close to $350,000—the goal Community Chest failed to reach by $65,000.

ASK The TIMES

Q. Could you please tell me the value (money) of St. Peter's Church in Rome? J.B.

A. The world's largest church, in the Vatican, can have no firm value placed on it—but estimates range upwards from $50,000,000.

Q. Was there ever a car made by the name of Holiday around 1920-1925, or what year? H.B.

A. There was a car called the Halladay manufactured from 1907 to 1922 by the Halladay Motor Car Co. of Attica, Indiana.

New Pets Help Children To Keep Happy and Busy

By PENNY SAVER

By Thursday morning, younger brothers and sisters will feel a twinge of loneliness as older ones tuck their text books under their arms and start off on another school term. When you find yourself being plagued with the incessant "what can I do now, Mummy?" it is the right time to consider a pet in the home. It's not necessary to invest in a blue-blooded dog or a cat with a pedigree a mile long. There are other less demanding and less expensive pets that will keep small fry amused for hours.

Have you ever thought about getting them a turtle? These hardy little creatures take a minimum of care and can be kept in the smallest room. Ones I've seen sell at 59 cents. Keep them where they can be accessible to water at any time, change the water every day and you have a pet that will interest young ones for a long time.

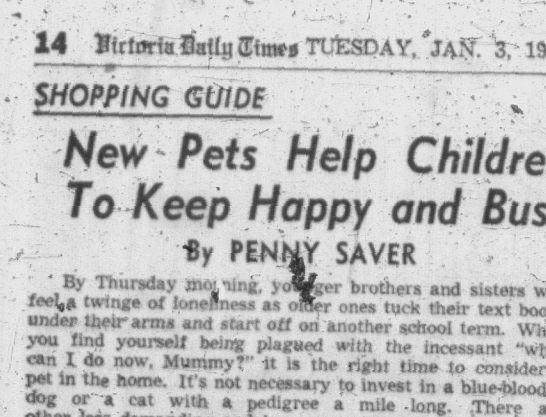

Turtles thrive on scraps such as bits of hamburger and vegetables and there's a prepared food that sells at 15 cents a half-ounce tin. Ingredients include dried insects, shrimp, fish and meat meal—just the sort of a meal that any husky turtle will like!

Many fascinating hours can be spent watching a bowl of goldfish. Small fish sell at 25 cents; medium at 39 cents, and large ones are priced at 59 cents. Popular fantails sell at 49 cents, 59 cents or 98 cents depending on size. Black moors sell at 49 cents, 89 cents or $1.49; calico fantails can be had at the same prices while shubunkins are priced at either 39 cents, 59 cents or 98 cents.

Tins containing 1¼ ounces of food sell at 15 cents and young owners should be cautioned to feed them just a wee smidgeon a day. For those that prefer using a wafer fish food, it's priced at 15 cents for ½ ounce.

If you would like to know where Penny shopped today give her a ring at EV 2-3131.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"According to my records you owe me 328 buttons for 1960."

Local Businessman Hosted At New Year's Day Party

More than 50 of his descendants gathered to wish Matthew B. Wellburn a "Happy Birthday" at a family party held in the private dining room of the Monterey Restaurant on New Year's Day. Now 90 years old, Mr. Wellburn was born in Scarborough, Eng., on Jan. 1, 1871.

There are three sons, Gerald E. Wellburn, Tom W. Wellburn and George W. Wellburn. All attended the party with their families. Three daughters, all of Victoria, also were present. These were Mrs. Mollie Foxall, Mrs. Kathleen Richardson and Mrs. Grace Knight. Mr. Wellburn now makes his home with Mrs. Knight at 1331 Grant Street.

Younger guests at the party included 16 grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Coming to Canada in 1911, Mr. Wellburn and the late Mrs. Wellburn settled in Victoria where he has lived ever since. With no idea of retirement in mind, Mr. Wellburn still operates a grocery business on Pandora Avenue, together with his son, George.

Highlight of the party was the presentation of a leather-backed folder that contained a "family tree" in pictures of all of Mr. Wellburn's family.

Mr. Wellburn received many gifts.

For the children, there was great excitement when the sparklers that topped the huge birthday cake were lighted.

Luck Helps Out

BRUNO, Alta. (CP) — Mrs. Noella Tegenkamp won a $16,000 bungalow at a recent turkey shoot and later learned her son Robert had won $1,000 for selling her the ticket. A widow with seven children, she had been living on social aid since her husband died of cancer a year ago.

Modern Days, Different Ways

TORONTO (CP) — Nowadays people don't throw dried codfish skins in the coffee pot. But they used to. Some people used egg shells or butter.

They weren't to add taste to the brew but the albumen they contain acted as a coagulant in separating the grounds from the liquid.

E. Gene Laughery, president of a coffee brewing institute, explained during a Toronto visit that today's coffee pots have filters that perform the task.

"Making good coffee," he said, "is simply putting the given amount of water with the given amount of coffee for a given amount of time—then separating the liquid and grounds."

Sipping a cup of restaurant coffee which he pronounced "very good," he advised coffee makers to stick to a formula once they find one that suits them.

A PRIME RULE

Use hodgepodge methods and you get hodgepodge results, he says. The first rule of good coffee is to make sure the pot is clean. A pipe cleaner does a dandy job of cleaning the stem if you don't own a percolator brush.

It's important, too, to buy the right type of grind for the type of pot to be used.

Although some coffee lovers pride themselves on their home-ground coffee beans, Mr. Laughery says coffee ground at the factory or store is usually better because it is ground more uniformly.

The institute recommends starting with a clean coffee maker, fresh coffee and fresh cold water. Coffee should not be stored for more than one week.

Never make less than three-quarters of the capacity of the pot and allow two level tablespoons of ground coffee for each six ounces of water.

FAVOR PERCOLATOR

The majority of Canadians use a percolator. When perking starts, reduce the heat and perk gently for six to eight minutes. Never boil. If the coffee is to be left on the stove to keep warm, remove the basket and reduce the heat.

The Jackie Look

What with all the talk about Jacqueline Kennedy's bulky shocking pink sweater and orange velveteen slacks, the bulky sweater is certain to get even a bigger play this winter. It's shown usually with turtle neck or Puritan collar.

SPADEA'S INTERNATIONAL DESIGNER PATTERN

NS-321

Charles Montaigne of France

Only six pieces to the pattern and the sewing couldn't be simpler. Designed by Charles Montaigne, the wide sleeves are cut in one with the V-necked bodice. A contour self-belt tops the slim skirt of released pleats. Simple gusset details through the waist and sleeves perfect the fit. Try lightweight wool, silk or rayon, crepe, shantung or novelty cottons. From this size chart select the one size best for you. Our measurements are comparable to ready-to-wear sizes.

DEAR ABBY

What's in a Name!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter married a nice young man whose Christian name is Everett. I think Everett is a lovely name, but nobody calls him that. They call him "Tiny", which is ridiculous because he weighs almost 300 pounds.

We feel that now that he is 27 and married, they should put the nickname aside and address him by his correct name. We tried to get the ball rolling, thinking others would soon follow suit, but it didn't work. When we call him "Everett" everyone (including our own daughter) looks at us as though we are out of our minds. Are we wrong? Are they? What can be done?

EVERETT'S IN-LAWS

DEAR IN-LAWS: I've yet to meet the 300-pound man who wasn't good-humoredly called "Tiny." A nickname is not easy to shed, so call him "Tiny," and don't make a mountain out of a 300-pound mole-hill.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: A child wrote to you saying her father sent her away from the table without her Thanksgiving dinner because she suggested he say "grace" before starting to eat. You took the father's part and said, "Honor thy father."

When parents are wrong, they do not deserve to be honored. I know you were quoting the Ten Commandments, but you should have quoted Matthew, 11.37: "He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me."

AN ABBY FAN.

DEAR FAN: I received a blizzard of protests expressing the same opinion as yours. In my eagerness to uphold parental authority I bent over backward too far and broke my spiritual back. My apologies. The father was wrong.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Recently my husband, who is an executive with a large oil company, purchased a rather expensive gift for his private secretary. I found out about it when I intercepted the bill.

When I confronted him with it, he told me he had given the gift to his secretary as a "prize."

The company offers "prizes" occasionally, to employees, but they are paid for out of company funds. Why should my husband have to give his secretary a "personal" prize?

"PRIZE FOOL (?)"

DEAR "PRIZE FOOL (?)": Could it be that your husband is rewarding his secretary for services performed above and beyond the call of duty?

CONFIDENTIAL TO SHIRLEY: Horse sense is what keeps a woman from becoming a nag.

TODAY'S RECIPE

APPLE-TOPPED SAUSAGE PIN WHEELS

Six cored apple slices, half-inch thick, 3 tbsp. brown sugar, 1 lb. sausage meat, ½ cup bread crumbs, 2 tbsp. tomato ketchup, 2 tbsp. milk, 1 cup crushed rice flakes, ¾ cup instant mashed potato, ¼ cup chopped onion.

Generously grease an oblong baking dish and sprinkle with brown sugar. Cover with one layer of apple slices. Combine the sausage meat, bread crumbs, ketchup and milk. Mix thoroughly.

Pat out into a rectangle about 6 x 7 inches on a floured board sprinkled with the rice flakes. Spread with masked potato and sprinkle with onions. Roll up like a jelly roll and cut in 6 slices. Place cut side down on the apple slices, pour about ¼ cup water around the rolls.

Bake at 350 degrees F. for about 40 minutes. Serve with cream-style corn. Serves 6.

Seasonal Activity For Rose Manor

Seasonal entertainments have provided a whirl of activity for the hundred ladies of Rose Manor Home. Concerts with familiar carols were given by groups from the Musicians' Union, Local 247, the Studio Group of the Victoria Musical Art Society, the Cathedral, First Baptist and Central Baptist churches. Pre-Christmas supper and entertainment was given by Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Junior Chamber of Commerce were hosts to the ladies on tour of Christmas lights in the city and when the Girl Guides visited the home they presented a corsage to each lady. Home League of Salvation Army distributed "sunshine bags" when they visited.

Planning the activities were Mrs. Bina L. Whitney, matron; the staff of the home; Mrs. C. Foot, president and members of the board of management.

Satin Roses Highlight Bride's Wedding Gown

A white antique satin gown was choice of Miss Ellen Diane Puddy when she was married recently in Greenwood, B.C., to Const. Ralph William Phillips, RCMP. It was styled with swathed waistline gathered at back with a row of white satin roses and lily point sleeves. The full hooped skirt was slightly en train. A finger-tip veil extended from a dainty pearl coronet. Her pearl necklace and earrings were the gift of the groom. Her colonial bouquet was of pink roses.

Ceremony took place in St. Columba United Church with Rev. E. Miller officiating. Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the candlelit church. Mrs. T. W. MacArthur, Jr., played organ music and D. Jeffries sang "O Promise Me" during signing of register.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse R. Puddy of Greenwood. Her father gave her in marriage. Mrs. Sidney Phillips, Victoria, and the late Mr. Phillips are parents of the groom.

FOUR ATTENDANTS

Party of four attended the bride. Maid of honor was Miss Della Puddy, the bride's sister from Montreal. Another sister, Miss Donna Puddy, and Miss Virginia Forlin, both of Trail, were bridesmaids.

They wore emerald green velveteen dresses with tiny veiled chapeaux in similar material. White carnations were in their bouquets.

Miss Donna Clover was flower girl for her cousin, in a white satin frock and carrying a nosegay of pink roses.

Michael Kendall, Victoria, was best man and ushers were Const. Donald Nordick, Nelson, and William Whelan, Kelowna. Bradley Haines, small godson of bride, acted as ring bearer.

High school gymnasium in Greenwood was setting for the reception. Decorations included baskets of white chrysanthemums and bridal motifs with white candles and small chrysanthemums centred on the table. Toast was proposed by H. H. Summersgill.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Kendall, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. M. Kendall, and Miss Nancy Kendall of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. W. Whelan of Kelowna; Mr. and Mrs. J. Puddy and Miss B. Puddy of Penticton; Mr. and Mrs. D. Puddy of Summerland; Mrs. G. Benzies of Trail; Miss E. Gathercole of Calgary and Mr. and Mrs. R. Glover of Rossland.

Leaving on a honeymoon in Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle the bride donned a white brocade sheath dress with amethyst accessories, a beige coat and a corsage of small bronze chrysanthemums.

Const. and Mrs. Phillips will make their home in Granbrook, B.C.

Party In Naden Gymnasium

The New Year's Eve frolic arranged by chief petty officers and petty officers in HMCS Naden gymnasium was much enjoyed. Tables were arranged cabaret style and 850 members and friends attended. A supper was served and dancing enjoyed to the music of Jack Carmichael and his Ambassadors.

Among those present were Rear-Admiral E. W. Finch-Noyes and Mrs. Finch-Noyes, Commodore H. V. W. Groos and Mrs. Groos, Commander C. A. Bovey and Mrs. Bovey, Commander J. M. Leeming and Mrs. Leeming, Cmdr. O. Halikowski and Mrs. Halikowski, and Master at Arms Reid and Mrs. Reid.

Committee in charge of the frolic included Chief Petty Officer R. G. Miller, H. Sherman, S. A. Matte, W. Ona, W. C. Shaw, M. Taylor, W. Roberts, A. Aylward and their wives.

Class Reunion And Dance

Class reunion and dinner dance was arranged by 1959 graduates of Mount Douglas High School in Olde England Inn last week. Present were Misses Elinor Jacura, Sandra Corboys, Helen Stark, Sharon MacKay, Jean Dunlop, Merry Martin, Diana Smith, Beryl Galland, Wendy Dimint, Velda Bradshaw, Marilyn Haney, Ruth Foster, Diane Bolton, Linda Slocomb, Valerie Marshall, Loraine Noel, Donna Lambie, Lorraine Bell, Sharon Effa, Carol Liggett, Dorry McMillen, Judy Taylor and Ann Aylmer, and Messrs. Sensational Skin Cream Discovery

FADES UGLY BROWN SPOTS*

Face, Neck, Hands and Arms

At last! Cosmetic scientists have developed a delightful white skin cream called FAYD, that quickly helps dim and fade away ugly brown weathered age spots and freckles on face, hands, neck and arms. It quickly makes skin clearer, smoother, younger-looking.

*FAYD is an all purpose cream for every member of the family. For women, it helps clear complexion, coaxes return of young-like skin, for men, it softens skin roughness, even helps reduce enlarged pores. For teenagers, it starts drying up surface pimples the moment it is applied. For every member of the family, its miracle-like action helps clear complexion.

New FAYD...

Helps Nature Restore Young-Looking Skin FAST

FAYD is not a cover-up. This potent, medicated cream penetrates under the skin surface to aid in breaking up clots of pigment which cause surface blemishes. So if your skin is dry, flaky, blemished, rough, red, weather-beaten or old-looking, start using FAYD today. For best results use it twice daily as directed. Never messy—it's delicately fragrant and kind to your skin. Get a jar today only $1.50—30-day supply. Economy size—3 full ounces—90-day supply only $3.95 plus tax.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Walk, Do Not Ride, To Nearest Errand

There is no doubt that, as a society, we have become less and less active physically. This has happened to us so gradually that we have not realized what a great change has taken place.

Lowman

Many factors have played a part. Here are a few. There has been a trend to smaller more convenient homes. There are myriad labor-saving devices at home and at the office; the work week is shorter. Ours is a motorized age and we jump into the car for any errand. Many people sit for hours before the television set when they would have been more active otherwise. The tendency today is to spend the weekend watching sports on TV rather than indulging in outdoor sports or exercise.

Unfortunately, along with this lessened activity, we are more tempted than ever to buy and eat more food. Never has it been so attractively packaged, so easy to prepare or so constantly advertised. In our society hospitality means food. We do not think of entertaining without offering some sort of refreshment. Few middle-aged folks have scaled their caloric intake to their energy requirements.

It would help some if we would exercise more. Even if you are not going to take time for sports, the walk always is available. Some physicians feel that three 15 minute periods of brisk walking daily are better than one long walk. Even if you walk up and down the porch or go around and round the block, it is most advantageous.

The brisk walk is so much more valuable than the stroll because it whips up circulation. Walk this way unless there is some reason not to do so. A brisk walk which is maintained is rather strenuous exercise. Check with your doctor about this first.

We should not sit for long periods of time without getting up and walking about for a few minutes anyway.

Some physicians feel that three 15-minute periods of brisk walking daily are better than one long walk.

If you would like to have my leaflet "General Reducing Routine," send a stamped self-addressed envelop with your request for leaflet No. 1. Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

Seasonal Decorations a Frame For Attractive Bridal Party

Recent wedding of Miss Elda Frances Donahue and Lieut. Donald George Wallace in Esquimalt United Church had a seasonal decorative theme with candles, bells and bows to mark guest pews and holly at the chancel and used with flowers in the church.

Rev. Howard Turpin heard the wedding vows. He was assisted at the double ring ceremony by Capt. William Buxton. Col. M. Morgan was organist.

Parents of the couple are Sheriff and Mrs. Francis Joseph Donahue of Cochrane, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Alexander Wallace of Fort William, Ont.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of pure silk taffeta with delicate hand embroidery in pearls outlining the oval neckline and the panel of Alencon lace down front. Gown buttoned down centre back and sleeves ended in lily points. A pearl-studded Swedish crown held the tiered circular veil of hand-rolled illusion lace. Her cascade bouquet of three white gardenias was centred with peppermint red feather carnations.

Bridesmaid was Miss Ann Hepburn, Vancouver, who wore a velvet dress in poinsettia red velvet. She carried shaggy white chrysanthemums. A red velvet bow was in her hair.

Best man was Lieut. John R. S. Ryley, Victoria. Lieut. Sam C., Dunbar, Chilliwack, and Lieut. Carl Kuspira, Vancouver, were ushers.

Fellow officers of the groom formed a guard of honor as the bridal party left the church.

Guests were received at a reception in the Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry officers' mess at Work Point.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip to Seattle, the bride changed into a brown Blin and Blin sheath dress topped with a muskrat stole. Her turban-styled hat and gloves were in moss green. Other accessories were brown.

Lieut. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace will make their home at 2856 Wyndeatt Avenue, Victoria.

School by Phone

TRAFALGAR, Ont.—A Trafalgar township girl, encased in a cast from head to foot, keeps up with her studies via telephone. Carol Shaw, 13, has been in a cast since doctors operated on her in September to correct curvature of the spine.

Co-operation between the telephone company and school officials has resulted in a communication system connecting her bedroom with her classroom.

New Handbags and Shoes Harmonious in Design

PARIS (Reuters) — Paris silhouette trends for winter have influenced the style and shape of new accessories. Handbags and shoes, designed with harmonious, rounded lines, are in tune with the fluid dress lines.

The latest handbags are supple, over-size models, with curved contours and rounded corners replacing stark, angular shapes.

Prettiest new footwear supports the idea that it is smart to be comfortable. Oval toes take priority over the pinched and pointed arrowhead court shoes of recent seasons. Low heels now are in highest fashion, enabling women to rediscover the long-lost pleasure of walking with a graceful glide.

Ferest, a leading Paris handbag specialist, insists that his clients relate the shape of their handbag to the particular style of a dress.

"The handbag completes the picture of a woman dressed with good taste," he declares, explaining that a dress with a marked waistline and a wide skirt calls for a handbag with modified horseshoe shape, reiterating the line of width at the bottom. On the other hand, horizontally-curved or cradle-shaped bags are needed to strike the contrast to tall, unbroken sheath silhouettes.

SQUARE IS OUT

Whatever the basic shape a handbag may have this season, the new trend is towards rounded lines, outmoding the envelope and square boxy styles recently in favor. Pierre Cardin features a special collection of large bags in supple pouch and satchel shapes.

Footwear suddenly re-emerges for the first time in more than five years as something comfortable to walk in, rather than a physically painful but mandatory fashion style. Designers have raised the curtain on a new shoe look which is pretty as well as practical.

Over-all, shoe lines remain long, slender and patrician. News is in the low heels, instead of needle-thin spikes which are retained only for the most formal occasions. The simultaneous return of the gracefully-rounded toe likewise spells comfort.

Roger Vivier, designer for the Dior-Delman shoe salons in Paris launches two new heel styles for daywear. There is the Louis XV heel, worked in spindle effects, but the season's innovation is the "far west" heel, featuring a modified copy of the underslung heel on a cowboy boot.

FASHION NOTES

The short evening gown continues to rate far ahead of the long length in popularity. It's easier to wear, easier to pack and sees service on many more occasions.

The right hat and the right coiffure complement each other. When you buy a hat consider how it will top off not only your ensemble but your hairdo as well.

There's an art to wearing gloves and the proper length is important. Either have your gloves meet your sleeves or wear gloves that show a lot of arm between sleeve and glove. A halfway compromise isn't chic.

When you're buying a soft-shell pump (which means it has no boxing, only a soft leather lining), buy it a half-size smaller than your regular shoe size. Otherwise, when it loosens, it will be too large.

Welcome Wendy Wilde

Focal point of beaming pleasure in picture at right is Wendy Wilde, Greater Victoria's New Year's Baby. Mother Gwen, 23, and father, Allen, 22, have one other child, Kenny, "almost two." Wendy arrived at 1.41 a.m. in Royal Jubilee. The Wilde's who understandably say they are "as pleased as can be," were married in Victoria, although both are from other points, he from Nelson and she from Hardisty, Alta. Mr. Wilde said today they plan sizable family, but they aren't in any hurry. Father came around Times in mid-morning to arfange for merchandise prizes family receives for 1961's No. 1 baby "which we can certainly use," then took off in a hurry to visit his wife. "Everything is just fine," he said. "Gwen is as healthy as can be, and it will be nice to have children around the same age. They can help each other much better that way." (Robin Clarke Photo.)

Trainman's Hospital Dash Wins New Year Baby Race

Six children bowed in with the New Year in Victoria hospitals, four at Royal Jubilee and two at St. Joseph's.

They were four girls and two boys.

Earliest arrival to capture traditional honors as the New Year's Baby was a healthy six-pound, ten-ounce girl born at 1.41 a.m. at Royal Jubilee to Mrs. Gwen Wilde, 4042 Carey Road.

Mrs. Wilde arrived at the hospital just ten minutes before the birth.

She and her hsuband, Allen, a CPR brakeman, have one other child, an 18-month-old boy.

As the baby sweepstake winner the first arrival will receive merchandise scrip from the Times, a playpen, shoes, and baby necessities from city merchants while "dad" receives a Stetson hat and mother, flowers.

First baby to enter the world at St. Joseph's was a healthy boy, seven pounds, two ounces, born to Mrs. Susan Campbell, 2307 Blanshard, at 10.02 a.m. Husband Glenn will also receive a Stetson hat as father of the first child born at St. Joseph's.

The year's first arrival was well ahead of 1960's first baby, a boy born at 3.37 a.m. to Mrs. Howard Langlois, also at Royal Jubilee.

Other New Year's babies at Royal Jubilee were born to Mrs. Joanne Ebbett, 1955 Kings Road, a seven-pound, three-and-a-half-ounce girl at 3.48 a.m.; Mrs. Mary Galbraith, 800 Royal Oak, a seven-pound, seven-ounce boy at 2.24 p.m.; Mrs. Muriel Szotak, 1150 Mason, a seven-pound, 14-ounce girl, at 10.07 p.m.

Other baby born at St. Joseph's was a seven-pound, six-ounce girl to Mrs. Barbara Custance, Lund, B.C., at 2.16 p.m.

FIRST DUNCAN BABY ARRIVES WHEN YEAR ONLY MINUTES OLD

The stork delivered Duncan's first baby of the New Year, a boy, to King's Daughters' Hospital at 12.05 a.m. Jan. 1.

Proud mother is Mrs. George Jonninen, Port Renfrew, who gave birth to a son weighing 6 pounds 9¼ ounces. Mother, father and new son are all well.

Chemainus and Ladysmith hospitals today were still awaiting their first babies of 1961.

KHRUSHCHEV HIGH ON CHARM--THAT'S ALL

Kennedy 'World's Most Seductive'

PARIS (UPI) — U.S. president-elect John F. Kennedy has been chosen "the world's most seductive man" by a jury of Parisian women.

French President Charles de Gaulle did not do so well in the contest organized by the French weekly magazine "Confidences." He placed ninth.

The 14 jurors included "Casino De Paris" music hall queen Line Renaud, American-born singer Josephine Baker, beautician Helena Rubinstein, French woman parachutist Colette Duval, movie star Martine Carol and others from the world of Paris society and the arts.

Jacques Chaban-Delmas, President of the French National Assembly, about the same age as Kennedy was judged the "second-most-seductive man."

However, contest officials said Saturday the scoring was done not on looks or youth alone but on "the total personality."

Russian premier Nikita Khrushchev, who was rated tops for "slavic charm" during his state visit to France early this year, did not place at all in the contest.

Officials said this may prove that you can be charming and still not be seductive to women, no matter how total your personality.

Comedian Charlie Chaplin placed third, Prince Philip fourth and writer Ernest Hemingway fifth.

Other placings, from sixth to 15th, in that order:

Actor Gregory Peck, actor Gary Cooper, French culture minister Andre Malraux, French actor Jean Marais, the Shah of Iran, jungle doctor Albert Schweitzer, painter Pablo Picasso and Italian movie director Vittorio De Sica.

Is there something you want to know? Do you want to win a set of valuable books or other instructive prizes? Then ask Andy

Andy will answer questions submitted by child readers and those who submit the questions he selects to answer will receive worthwhile prizes.

The youngster who asks the first question answered each day receives a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia, and of the second question a Hammond Atlas or Globe.

Address your questions to "Ask Andy," Victoria Daily Times.

Andy sends a complete, 20-volume Encyclopedia to Sandra Martindale, age 12, of Sand Springs, Okla., for her question:

What Causes the Auroras?

The auroras, the Northern Lights and the Southern Lights, came under investigation during the International Geophysical Year. New information was gathered by teams of scientists and by satellites. What's more, the auroras themselves seemed eager to help. During the IGY, there was more aurora razzle-dazzle than usual. The old explanation of the auroras, however, has not been scrapped. The research of the IGY has merely added more information and given a fuller explanation.

Scientists have known for a long time that the shimmering lights were caused by charged particles from the sun. The displays always come a day or two after a solar flare-up. They knew, too, that the showy activity occurs between 60 and 600 miles above the earth. They also knew that the displays centre near the north and south polar regions because of the influence of the earth's magnetic field.

These simple facts were proved to be true. But the new information showed that the entire story was far from simple. The cause of the auroras is very complex indeed. The most important new factor was discovered early in the IGY. Satellites discovered belts of charged atomic particles high above the earth. They are called the Van Allen belts in honor of the head of the U.S. team that discovered them.

An aurora display begins with a flare-up on the sun. Clouds of energetic atomic particles pour forth into space. Some 92 million miles away is the solid earth, a magnet surrounded by a vast magnetic field. Clouds of the particles speeding from the sun become trapped in the earth's magnetic field. Some 10,000 miles above the planet, they meet the outer Van Allen belt, a huge doughnut of proton and electron particles. Here their paths are swerved by lines of magnetic force.

Particles Swerve to Poles

Clouds of the visiting particles, we are told, are swerved around towards one of the earth's magnetic poles. Here they get a boost which bounces them back along lines of magnetic force to the opposite pole. Back they bounce again and again. Some of the particles fail to swing with this see-saw. They fall or dip down towards the earth's magnetic poles. These energetic proton and electron particles crash into atoms of oxygen and nitrogen high in the atmosphere. In the collisions, X-rays are given off as are the shimmering colors of the auroras.

The glimmering blue and the vibrant red of the aurora are caused by atomic collisions 600 miles above the ground. Streamers, arcs and shimmering curtains of hazy green occur 60 and 150 miles above the ground. The halos of ghostly yellow and the wavy ribbons of primrose are blended from the higher level reds and the lower level greens and sandwiched between them.

Andy sends a Hammond's International World Globe to Clair Ellis, age 11, of Logan, Utah, for the question:

Where do lemurs live?

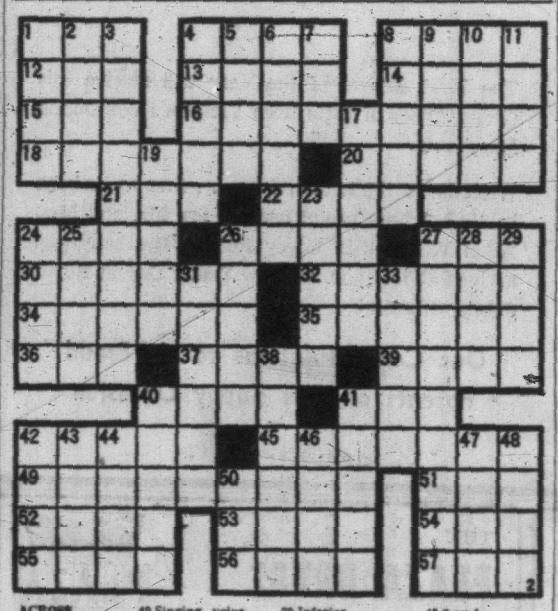

You might think that the charming lemurs are related to the squirrels or house cats. Actually they are the simplest members of the monkey clan. Africa, India, Ceylon and the Philippines all claim to have lemurs of their own. However, the only true lemurs are natives of a few islands in the Indian Ocean.

The lemur islands are off the east coast of South Africa. The largest island is Madagascar, where at least 50 true lemurs make their homes. Lemurs are also found on the small island of Comoros which is between Madagascar and the coast of Africa.

FAMED GUARDS MAKE FINAL LONDON MARCH

LONDON (Reuters) — The 3rd Battalion of the Grenadier Guards marched through London for the last time Monday to place its historic colors in the Household Brigade Barracks near Buckingham Palace.

The battalion, which traces its origin back 300 years, has been ordered suspended under the government's economy plan for the British army. Its men will be absorbed into other battalions.

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—At last Dick Nixon is starting to relax.

Might as well, I guess!

The Vice-President and wife Pat were on the town the other night and morning — first they were at "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," then they went to Basin St. East, where they saw the sick comedians' sick comedian, Lennie Bruce, and trumpeter Al Hirt.

Nixon sent a note backstage to Tammy Grimes at "Molly Brown," gave a note to Ticket Broker Harry Bloomfield about how much he liked the show (for publication, yet!) and shook hands with everybody from the bus boys on up at Basin Street though he didn't seem to meet Bruce.

The Veep had gin-on-the-rocks and Mrs. Nixon had bourbon-on-the-rocks.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jonathan Winters spotted Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt buying a toy lion at the F. A. O. Schwarz store. Going over to him, Winters said, "Shame! You have enough money to buy a real lion."

Insultin' comedian Don Rickles turned to Jack Lemmon, in the audience at the Las Vegas Sahara, and told him, "I saw you in 'The Apartment' — you should have left the gas on." He told Dean Martin, "You're really great the way you smoke and drink on the stage, and I hear a rumor tomorrow night you may even sing."

Mary Martin seems to have another "My Fair Lady" on her hands in "Sound of Music." Since opening Nov. 16, 1959, it hasn't had an empty seat — and all 28 standee spaces have always been sold. Yet some critics thought it was "sugary" and "sentimental" — pretty sweet for Mary!

Science Now Shrinks Piles Without Pain Or Discomfort

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain And Itching As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids

Toronto, Ont. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain and itching. Thousands have been relieved with this inexpensive substance right in the privacy of their own home without any discomfort or inconvenience.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was promptly relieved. And while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

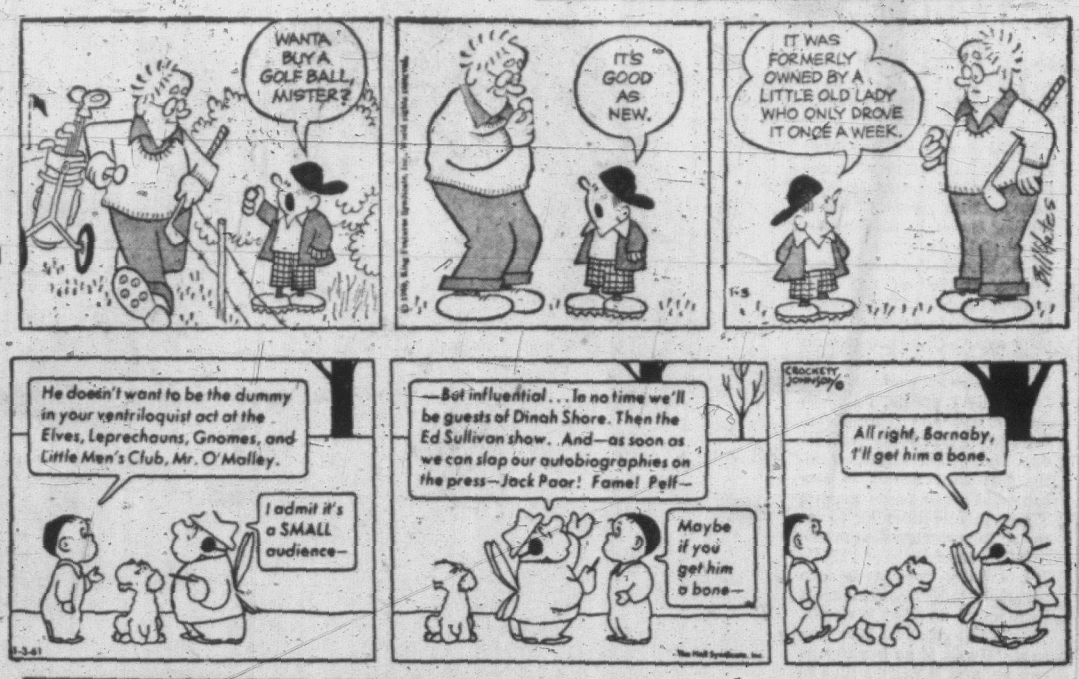

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of even 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a famous scientific institute. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H. Suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

MORNING DRESS, SWORDS, MARTIAL MUSIC

Old World Mood at Vanier's Levee

OTTAWA (CP)—The corridors of the Parliament Building were filled with an Old World atmosphere of morning dress, swords and spurs, martial music and hot punch as Governor-General Vanier held his second New Year's levee Monday.

He spent nearly two hours exchanging greetings with 1,041 persons—politicians, diplomats, the clergy, military officers and ordinary citizens—who formed a long queue into the red-carpeted Senate chamber where he sat to receive them.

Gen. Vanier, 72, had a firm handshake and a "Happy New Year" for all comers. Because of the loss of his right leg during the First World War, he stood to receive his guests only for the first 15 minutes and then remained seated.

The levee in Canada mixes the protocol and formalities of an official London levee with the traditional open-house conviviality of the levees of New France, held when the French governors made it known that they would receive greetings.

First in line to shake Gen. Vanier's hand was Prime Minister Diefenbaker. He was followed by Chief Justice Patrick Kerwin, and other members of the cabinet and the Supreme Court of Canada.

First woman to enter the Senate chamber—an occasion, until recent years, reserved by custom for men—was Mrs. Pin Pihjung, third secretary at the Nationalist Chinese Embassy here. The second was Mayor Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa, wearing her badges of office.

There was only one embarrassing moment. An army officer, resplendent in red tunic and ceremonial sword, snapped to attention before the governor-general and saw one of his spurs go jangling across the carpet.

He retrieved it with an undignified stoop and retired from the scene.

Holidaying Soviets Have Ruble Problems

MOSCOW (UPI) — Millions of Russians nursing their New Year's hangovers had the added problem today of coping with the Soviet Union's new "heavy" ruble.

COST SAME

Mental gymnastics are required to remember that one new ruble equals 10 old ones, and that prices of goods should be one-tenth as much as before.

The old rubles, however, will continue to be usable until March 31, the deadline for the complete changeover to the boosted currency.

The Soviet government claims the new ruble will be worth $1.11. But the old official exchange rate of four rubles to $1 will be actually 9-1 under the new system. Foreign exchange prices will be adjusted accordingly but informed sources said this change was unlikely to affect the average Soviet citizen.

COST SAME

The government claimed the cost of goods will remain the same under the new ruble. But this has not prevented a noticeable rush in recent months by some Russians to turn their old money into hard goods such as table silver and television sets, just in case.

Russians have not forgotten the last currency re-evaluation in 1947 when they also got a one for 10 exchange. They got no adjustment in prices then and they had to pay 10 times as much for an item.

The government announcement that there would be a three-month switchover period during which both old and new rubles would be circulating did not dispel fears of some Russians who are not anxious to show up at banks and be questioned as to where they got the large sums they were exchanging.

LONDON GETS LUXURY HOTEL

LONDON (Reuters) — London's new £2,000,000 ($5,600,000) American-owned luxury hotel, the Carlton Towers, has been finished six months ahead of schedule. The 18-storey hotel, which has 330 rooms, will be officially opened Wednesday.

"IT'S GOING TO H—" says Dragnet star Jack Webb about television. Webb is turning his back on the medium that built him to fame and fortune to take a comedy role in the film "The Last Time I Saw Archie."

Bopped Beak Sours Fair Play Tour

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A punch in the nose gave indications Monday night that Americans, returning from a Fair Play for Cuba-sanctioned tour, were not entirely in accord with travelling companions.

Lewis McWillie of Miami took a poke at Vernon Kautt of Chicago after a Cubana Airlines plane landed at Miami.

Ben Silver of Miami radio station WCKT quoted McWillie as saying he was "sore" at a speech which Kautt, 54, a high school teacher, made at Havana airport before takeoff.

Kautt said he was only expounding on "some of the nice things" he saw in Cuba. He said he "couldn't see why McWillie found it necessary to attack people merely because of a difference of opinion."

Kautt declined to press charges and left for Chicago after the plane brought back the Fair Play tourists, most of them U.S. college students.

France Has Surplus

PARIS (AP)—France ended the year with a healthy $2,100,000,000 in gold and foreign currency holdings. This nest egg has been built from almost zero two years ago when President Charles de Gaulle returned to power and the French recovery started.

'Bill of Rights' Drawn by Youth

CHICAGO (AP)—Delegates to a youth conference which the FBI has labelled Communist-directed have concluded their first national meeting by adopting a five-point "bill of rights."

The conference co-ordinating committee announced its immediate objectives Sunday after three days of meetings. Organizers denied statements by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, that the meeting was arranged by Communists to formulate plans for a new national youth organization.

The conference issued a statement saying it would strive for these objectives:

1. The right to plan lives free from the threat of nuclear annihilation and the burden of military service, free to exchange ideas and skills with the youth of other countries.

2. The right of all youth to organize freely; to examine all ideas; to express their demands and to improve conditions of their lives.

3. The right to an education based on ability to learn, but not on ability to pay.

4. The right of all Negro and other minority youths to seek opportunities for employment, education and in all public services.

5. The right of all youth, men and women, to job training and full employment of their skills with a future of job advancement and economic security.

Newspaper men were barred from the session.

8 CARDS OF THANKS

Mrs. Emily Parkinson wishes to express her sincere thanks and gratitude to relatives, friends and neighbors for all their kind deeds, beautiful floral tributes, cards and messages of sympathy in the loss of her dear husband Arnold. Special thanks to RCN Chaplain H. Todd for his kindness and comforting words, also McCall Bros., funeral directors.

We wish to express heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy in the recent loss of our beloved wife and mother. — Mr. B. R. Bensen and family.

9 IN MEMORIAM

ANDERSON—In loving memory of Tina Anderson, who passed away Jan. 2, 1960.
Deep in our hearts a memory is kept.
Of one we loved, and will never forget.
—Always remembered by Mary and Ray and Mrs. Kate Dawson.

ROWBOTHAM — In memory of Uncle Bill Rowbotham, who passed away Jan. 3, 1960.
One year has passed since that sad day,
When one we loved was called away;
God took him home—it was His will;
Within our hearts he liveth still,
—Ever remembered by Margaret and Jim Cassells.

Harry Belafonte Interviewed at 10; New Quest Series Starts at 10.30

By PHIL LEE, Times TV Editor

I, FOR ONE, THOROUGHLY enjoyed CBC's "Salute to the Armed Forces," last Wednesday eve—with certain reservations which I will mention later, reservations that are entirely personal.

Most awesome for Second World War vets, I suppose, were the tremendous technical improvements on display.

Who, for instance, in the days of the Lancs, Spits and trainer Harvards could have envisioned these new, sleek corsairs of the air that travel faster than sound? Who of the navy could have imagined the modernistic, stream-lined destroyer escorts and other craft on view? What contrast between these and those squat, ungainly corvettes and sweepers that used to shepherd the convoy lanes across the Atlantic. The army, too, with its walkie-talkies, its mammoth tanks, its missiles and other impedimenta of war had kept pace with the surge of progress.

However, as a very "ex" navy type, I was rather miffed at the comparison of the film turned in by photographer-representatives of the three services.

One saw the army working hard among the perils of the Congo, the RCAF making thrilling helicopter rescues. But the navy? To judge by the bulk of the film allegedly representing the RCN at work it would seem that life in the navy in peacetime is limited to parades, delightful cruises and time spent photographing idols in foreign lands.

Of course most of us know this isn't true, that ships of the RCN are rarely idle, forever taking part in NATO exercises, in tactical exercises with units of the U.S. and British fleets in order to keep in fighting trim as well as going to rescues and generally guarding our waters against alien submarines and aircraft.

I would that the navy segment has been devoted more to such matters.

* * *

SPEAKING TECHNICALLY, that was a poor story that turned up on NBC-TV's Wagon Train last Wednesday, being, for me at least, most difficult to swallow.

Therefore it says a lot for stars Leslie Nielsen, Mari Aldon, James Lydon and Michael Burns and the rest that "The Jeremy Dow Story" held one's interest the way it did.

In the field of fiction one coincidence is allowed early on in the story. After that coincidence is out and the plot must rely on its characters working things out in a purely logical manner in order that the whole may be believed.

But "The Jeremy Dow Story" asked that you believe: (1) a man would forsake his pretty wife in favor of a statue to his false heroism; (2) that by sheer accident he takes a shine to a boy who turns out to be his son; (3) that he has volunteered to drive for a man who happens to be his wife's new husband.

Nonetheless, I hung on to the end and managed to enjoy it tolerably even while disbelieving thanks to Nielson's acting and the acting of all concerned. No wonder this horse opera boasts one of the highest ratings on TV.

Of course I miss the old wagonmaster—the late Ward Bond.

UPLANDS SMALL ESTATE
We are pleased to offer a charming modern home in one of the Uplands' most unique settings. The natural beauty of this setting has been capitalized on by the owner, who has created a miniature estate on 2-3 of an acre. Perfect seclusion in the back garden by natural screening areas, extensive covered patios, a pitch-and-putt golf course, a spring-fed trout pool, a large greenhouse, are part of the activities a retired couple would enjoy owning this property. The home is a true ranch bungalow offering a living room 20x16, a dining room 14x11, three large bedrooms and two four-piece bathrooms. This home is in immaculate condition and will warrant your closest inspection.

Russia-U.S. Goodwill Two-Sided Issue—Mr. K

MOSCOW (Reuters)—Nikita Khrushchev Monday repeated his wish for good relations with the incoming United States administration but said "it is not up to us alone—there are two sides to the question."

The Soviet premier was speaking to reporters soon after making a speech at a Cuban Revolution Day celebration here in which he described the Eisenhower administration as having "always showed its aggressive character."

Commenting on rumors that Soviet rocket bases directed against the U.S. have been—or are being—built in Cuba, Khrushchev said: "It is well known that this is a base slander.

"There are no Soviet military bases in Cuba or in other countries."

He said rumors of Soviet bases in Cuba were being used as a pretext for intervention by the U.S.

DOESN'T NEED BASES

The Soviet Union does not want bases anywhere, Khrushchev said, and does not have them because it has rockets at home capable of striking anywhere in the world.

Khrushchev also disclosed that the 22nd Soviet Communist party congress will probably take place at the end of this year. This appears to be a postponement, since it was thought it would be held in the first few months of the year.

Khrushchev said he hopes that reasonable people in the United States will restrain the reactionary forces.

The most sensible thing now would be not to aggravate the international atmosphere, he went on.

★ ★ ★

Mr. K, Mac Swap Hopes

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Macmillan received a telegram from Premier Khrushchev today expressing the hope that 1961 "will be a year of profitable co-operation between the two states in the solution of urgent international problems."

Macmillan responded with a New Year telegram in which he urged wider exchange of information and ideas between London and Moscow aimed at promoting better understanding.

13 SALVAGERS PERISH IN BLAZING FREIGHTER

ROTTERDAM (AP) — Thirteen salvage crew members died today when the blazing freighter Indian Navigator sank in 30 seconds in the Bay of Biscay, Dirkzwagers shipping agency reported.

The agency first said the men had taken to a lifeboat but later reported rescue tugs found only "all kinds of wreckage."

The salvage men went aboard the burning Indian Navigator from a sister ship Monday when the Navigator's crew abandoned her 110 miles off the southwest coast of England. A fleet of tugs had been standing by the 6,660-ton ship, preparing to claim her as a prize of the high seas.

One of the 68 original crew members was lost. Rescue vessels saved the others.

KASAI TOUR HILARIOUS, CONFUSING, TRAGIC

Kasavubu Trip a 'Riot'

★ ★ ★

JOSEPH KASAVUBU
. . . prestige?

LULUABOURG (Reuters) — Congolese President Joseph Kasavubu has completed a fantastic three-day visit to divided Kasai Province a visit packed with tension and tragedy, as well as with confusion and hilarity.

In the course of the tour which ended Saturday, cars in the official procession collided or had to be pushed by officials; cabinet ministers were drenched in the tropical rain; Kasavubu refused for an hour to leave his plane because the wrong flag was flying over an airport and a member of the presidential suite was kidnapped and beaten up.

Kasavubu was making his first visit to the west central province accompanied by army strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu.

The tour was intended to restore the prestige and the authority of the central Leopoldville government in the province now ruled by two governments.

In the provincial capital of Luluabourg, 600 policemen staged a noisy demonstration because the cashier who had to pay them for the New Year could not be found.

In Bakwanga, capital of South Kasai, where "President" Albert Kalonji has proclaimed his "mining state," Kasavubu firmly refused to leave his plane because a guard of honor from the South Kasai Army had been drawn up at the airport.

Kalonji, who was waiting on the tarmac to greet Kasavubu, sent his "prime minister" and his "commander-in-chief" into the plane to negotiate with him—but Kasavubu remained adamant.

Eventually the guard of honor was removed—but the Kasai flag stayed over the airport building, and Kasavubu stayed in his plane.

After nearly an hour of heated discussion, Kalonji ordered the Congo flag to be removed from the car assigned to Kasavubu and left the airport angrily. Kasavubu and his party were further enraged when the Congo flag removed from the car was trampled under foot by a Kasai officer.

Following further negotiations, Kasavubu agreed to leave the aircraft—but refused to enter the car, and began to walk 2½ miles to the place where a reception had been arranged.

But later the two leaders kissed and embraced each other in the presence of photographers, anxious officials, and an excited crowd.

Laos Situation 'Grave' U.S. Builds Up Forces

PRINCE BOUN OUM
. . . claims key city recaptured.

Assembly Approves New Rule

VIENTIANE (CP)—Prince Boun Oum's government announced today that its forces recaptured the key northeastern city of Xieng Khouang Monday night from pro-Communist rebels.

Information Minister Bouavan Norasing said the city was retaken by a battalion of paratroopers that jumped three and one-quarter miles east of Xieng Khouang.

Norasing's announcement was the government's first admission that the rebels had taken Xieng Khouang.

King Savang Vathana meanwhile convoked an extraordinary session of the National Assembly today to give a vote of confidence to the provisional government of Premier Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosoavan, the military strongman whose troops drove leftist rebels from Vientiane in mid-December.

This move wa aimed at placing the government on a constitutional footing and depriving former neutralist premier Souvanna Phouma of a claim to legality. He fled to Cambodia after his efforts to conciliate leftists and pro-Westerners failed.

WOULD STIFLE CLAIM

Legalizing Boun Oum's government through constitutional processes also should help deprive the Soviet Union of a basis for claims that its airdrops of supplies and weapons to the Pathet Lao guerrillas and other leftist troops driven from the capital are conducted at the request of the legal government.

The Prince meanwhile announced his givernment had ordered its representative at the United Nations to indict Rusia before the Security Council on charges of violating territory and of illegally supplying arms to the leftist forces.

In Bangkok, Thailand, today Pote Sarasin, secretary-general of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, said he believes there still is a way for a political settlement in Laos.

A SEATO spokesman stressed that there was a big difference between "intervention" and an "invasion" and said the confusing situation in Laos should be studied carefully before any action is taken.

U.S. WARSHIPS ARRIVE

The army command of Communist North Viet Nam charged today that an American aircraft carrier and several other warships of the U.S. Seventh Fleet had arrived in the South Viet Nam port of Ta Nang.

The agency said the army command also charged that the United States had sent eight helicopters, 13 bombers and fighters and a large group of military personnel into South Viet Nam, which borders on the war-torn kingdom of Laos.

The command protested to the International Control Commission for Viet Nam.

Ike Seeks 'Fast, Clear Action'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today accused the Soviet Union and North Vietnam of airlifting "extensive air materials" and "substantial numbers" of North Vietnamese Communists into Laos in support of Red rebels there.

The state department issued the accusation "in view of the grave situation in Laos."

It said it has "hard evidence" that Soviet and North Vietnamese transport planes have made at least 130 flights into Laos since Dec. 15.

Earlier the Communist North Viet Nam army command charged that a carrier and several other warships of the U.S. Seventh Fleet had arrived in the South Viet Nam port of Ta Nang.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the army command also charged the U.S. had bombers, fighters and a large group of personnel in South Viet Nam which borders Laos.

President Eisenhower today received additional intelligence reports on the Laos situation from his top advisers.

FAVORS FAST ACTION

In advance of today's meeting, Eisenhower was represented as convinced that fast and clear action is the best way to avoid any Communist commitment to agression in Laos. But he was said to be hopeful of a solution short of military intervention by outside powers.

In Moscow, Soviet Premier Khrushchev warned at a Cuban Embassy reception that the "dangerous hotbed of the fire which has started in Laos must be extinguished in time."

In London, reliable sources said Britain, favoring a broadly-based neutralist government, has come around to full support for revival of the three-country truce commission established in 1954.

The commission, comprising representatives of India, Canada and Poland, was established to supervise a truce in the Indo-China War at the 1954 Geneva conference but it was adjourned indefinitely in the summer of 1958.

CANADA UNWILLING

In Ottawa Monday night an official said the Canadian government is unwilling to reconvene it against the wishes of the Laotian government.

India, Russia and Communist China all have called for revival of the commission.

In Paris, a French government spokesman said Monday that the rightist regime of Prince Boun Oum does not meet the objectives of the 1954 Geneva agreement which ended the war in the former French colony.

British newspapers almost unanimously opposed any American active intervention in Laos.

HOWE FUNERAL ON WEDNESDAY

MONTREAL (CP)—A large group of government officials and top businessmen will attend the funeral of Clarence Decatur Howe Wednesday.

The controversial statesman, who for more than 20 years played a leading role in both government and business circles, died New Year's Eve of a heart attack, He was 75. (See stories, page 5.)

Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Associate Defence Minister Sevigny will represent the federal government at the service, to start at 2 p.m. EST. at Christ Church Cathedral in downtown Montreal.

Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson and a large group of Mr. Howe's former associates will represent the Liberal party.

NEW MANAGER FOUND

Two Resign Arena Board

By JOHN MIKA

The Memorial Arena controversy, which simmered quietly through the holiday season, boiled over again today with these developments:

- Mayor Percy Scurrah prepared to replace vacationing chairman Frank Mulliner;
- Commissioner Courtney Haddock resigned to protest "unfair" treatment to six former employees;
- A commission sub-committee prepared final touches to appointment of Jack Morgan, Nelson, as the new arena manager.

Mayor Scurrah, asked about rumors that he had obtained Mr. Mulliner's resignation, said:

"I expect his resignation today. I expect to name a replacement today but it will not be in my speech."

(He was referring to his inaugural address before city council this afternoon in which the 1961 council committees and civic boards are named.)

Mr. Mulliner, who was in the centre of the controversy following resignation of the arena's office staff and three other employees, left for a six-week vacation just before Christmas after council refused to fire the commission at its own request. He went to Montreal for the holiday but is reported to be in Bermuda at present.

Mr. Haddock, who previously had threatened to resign, turned in his withdrawal from the commission this morning.

Slim Prospect for Rehiring

"I agreed to withhold my resignation previously on the distinct assurance that there would be fair treatment for the employees—which meant reinstatement until a new manager was appointed," he said.

"There doesn't appear to be any prospect of that now so I'm resigning in protest."

Mr. Morgan, currently manager of the Nelson Arena, was interviewed by commission members during a visit here last week.

A reliable source said he had been "selected" for replacing present manager Joe Dukowski although the actual appointment still had to be made.

Mr. Dukowski tendered his resignation, effective in three months, during the controversy that broke out when the other employees quit.

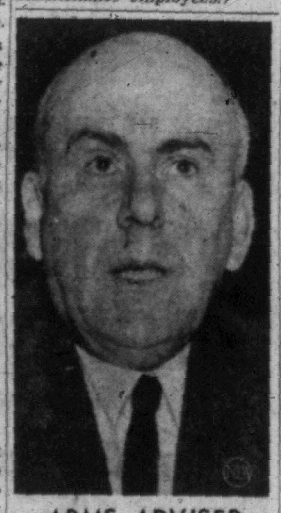

No selection for filling the job vacated by former office manager Kenneth Noakes has been made.

"Mr. Noakes has been out of work for 2½ months now—including through Christmas—and he still doesn't know whether he will be re-engaged," said Mr. Haddock. "It isn't good business to throw away his 11 years of experience.

"That isn't justice. We should be grateful to these employees for pointing up the situation instead of punishing them.

"I've done all I could for them but apparently it isn't enough. I just can't understand the commission's position."

(Allegations in affidavits submitted by Mr. Noakes and his colleagues said that purchases of liquor were made for consumption in the arena, and work on Mr. Dukowski's house and boat were made by arena maintenance employees.)

ARMS ADVISER
Former Allied high commissioner in Germany, John J. McCloy was named today by president-elect Kennedy to be his chief adviser and policy planner on disarmament. McCloy, 65, a Republican, is a former assistant secretary of war under President Truman.

Puck Coach Crash Victim

SASKATOON (CP)—Eight persons were killed and five were severely injured in two head-on car collisions during the holiday weekend in Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wagner of Winnipeg and playing coach Vic Kreklewetz of Yorkton Terriers of the Saskatchewan Senior Hockey League were killed when their cars collided Monday near Elfros, 120 miles east of Saskatoon.

MOGADISCIO, Somalia (AP)—Thousands of angry demonstrators marched through this capital today for the second consecutive day, protesting against neighboring Ethiopia and U.S. military aid to it.

Pro-Lumumba Rebels Attack Whites

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—Wild with excitement after repulsing troops of Col. Joseph Mobutu, pro-Lumumba rebels in Bukavu have gone on an anti-white rampage, the United Nations reported today. Several Europeans were arrested Monday and some were beaten up. A UN spokesman described the situation as tense.

Storm Lashes Atlantic Provinces

HALIFAX (CP)—The Atlantic provinces appeared today to have escaped serious damage from a howling winter storm that pounded the area during the New Year's weekend.

No deaths were attributed to the storm which brought winds up to 80 miles an hour and heavy drifting snow.

ISLAND SHOOTING

Two Airmen Found Dead

COURTENAY—Two RCAF flight sergeants were killed here Monday in a double shooting that RCMP today described as an apparent murder-suicide.

CPR HEAD DIES
W. A. Mather, chairman of the CPR and a railroad worker since he was 19, died Monday in hospital at Winnipeg after an illness of four months. Funeral service will be held in Winnipeg Thursday. (See story page 3.)

The bodies of Flt. Sgt. B. B. Simms and Flt. Sgt. K. A. MacGregor were found side by side in the front room of MacGregor's home off Campbell River Road on the northern outskirts.

A 7.65-millimetre automatic pistol lay between them.

Both men had been shot in the head. Two shots had been fired from the pistol.

INQUEST TODAY

In a joint statement, the RCMP at Courtenay and the RCAF at Comox said investigations were incomplete and that while murder-suicide is "strongly suspected," possible motive for the shootings or other details could not yet be released.

An inquest was to open this afternoon, with a date for the main hearing to be set.

The men were found by a neighbor, Robert Lay, together with other friends of MacGregor.

Police said Mr. Lay knocked on the front door of the MacGregor house and noticed what appeared to be a bullet hole in the front window pane.

FULLY CLOTHED

With two companions he partially forced the rear door of the house and saw one of the bodies sprawled on the front room floor.

This was at 4 p.m.

Mr. Lay immediately notified RCMP. Neither he nor his friends went into the house.

RCMP entered by the rear door and found the bodies, fully clothed.

The weapon involved belonged to MacGregor.

Simms, 38, is survived by the widow and two sons at RCAF Station, Comox. MacGregor, about 40, was on temporary duty at the station as a member of No. 2 construction maintenance unit. He is survived by the widow in Calgary.

MacGregor's home station was Lincoln Park, Calgary.

Socialists Lose Vote In Belgium

BRUSSELS (CP)—Parliament today rejected a Socialist move to scrap the government's economic austerity program as violent demonstrations against the measure continued to hit strike-crippled Belgium.

Roman Catholic and Liberal party members, linked in Premier Gaston Eyskens' coalition government, combined to defeat a Socialist motion calling for withdrawal for the government austerity bill. The chamber rejected the motion by a vote of 121 to 83, with one Liberal abstention.

Several tanks guarded the packed parliament building as legislators debated the controversial bill, designed to meet losses by Belgium in The Congo.

Socialists attacked the economic plan, which would increases taxes, for causing the "extreme social tension" gripping the country.

SOCIALISTS JEER

Eystens paid tribute to Catholic trade union members who did not join the Socialist-called strikes. Socialists jeered the premier as he made no concession to their demands to withdraw the program.

Georges Bohy, Socialist leader in the House, called on Eyskens to resign, declaring: "You have plunged this nation into a state of siege. It is time for you to go."

Taking the floor, the premier lashed out at the strikers.

"An enormous amount of damage is being done to the country," the Conservative premier said. "Private industry is suffering heavy losses and these will have considerable repercussions on the budget."

Favor Sunday Films

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP)—In a plebiscite held as part of civic elections here Monday, voters were strongly in favor of Sunday movies. The count was 14,653 in favor and 9,744 opposed.

HECTIC DAYS AHEAD FOR U.S. CONGRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Congress convened today already embroiled in a liberal vs. conservative struggle such as clearly will be waged over much of president-elect John Kennedy's program.

In both Senate and House of Representatives, Democrats who call themselves liberals were bidding for a bigger voice in charting the legislative course to be followed in the next two years.

House insurgents want to break up a coalition of conservative Democrats and Republicans on the rules committee which has managed in the past to block or delay legislation not to their liking.

$60 MILLION TREASURE HERE 20 YEARS

Canada Returns Polish Art

DERBY LINE, Vt. (CP)—A fortune in Polish art en route to its homeland after 20 years in Canada crossed the border into the United States today under heavy guard. The value of the shipment was estimated at $60,000,000.

RCMP escorted two huge moving vans carrying the art shipment from Quebec City to the border. Vermont state troopers took over at Derby Line.

Officials in charge of the convoy declined information about its destination or its route across New England to Boston.

In addition to the two vans, the convoy included several carloads of officials who declined to identify themselves.

Twenty years of Canadian custody of the treasures came to an end, as well as 13 years of international wrangling and bargaining, as the province of Quebec agreed to give them up.

M. Drobrosielski, a deputy of the Polish ambassador in Washington, was at the border to receive the valuable cargo.

He told reporters relations between Canada and Poland will improve "because the treasures question has been a big gulf between us."

He said they will be loaded on a Polish ship in Boston.

The transfer, ending one quarrel, opened the possibility of another—with the Polish government-in-exile.

The government-in-exile's representative in Montreal, Octawian Jastrzembski, was shocked by news of the transfer—which would have been made in complete secrecy but for a leak in Montreal.

"Why the speed? Why the secrecy? Why? Mr. Jastrzembski cried. "I was always informed before.

". . . I cannot believe that any Western government would do this to the legal government of Poland, which deposited the treasures in Canada."

He said he will appeal to the federal government. Court action might be taken.

The treasures had been in the provincial museum since 1948, when the late premier Maurice Duplessis took them into custody and steadfastly refused the Communist government's claim to them.

He maintained to his death that the government-in-exile, as the last democratically-elected government of Poland, was the only one with any title to the treasures.

The treasures include gold-encrusted robes of the ancient Polish kings, tapestries, gold and silver ornamental plate, jewelled swords and crowns and a solid-gold saddle. Many date back to the 15th century.

Looks like there's a fight developin' over whether or not there's a fight in Laos.

TCA Sets Several Records

MONTREAL (CP)—Trans-Canada Air Lines, rapidly assembling one of the most modern aircraft fleets in the world, reflected the efficiency of its new planes in its annual statistics for 1960.

The government-owned airline carried more than 3,440,000 passengers—a seven-per-cent increase over 1959. About 140,000 persons flew in TCA's seven DC-8 jetliners.

TCA introduced jet service April 1 on a trans-continental route serving Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver. On June 1, daily jet flights between Canada and Britain were started.

Since then Winnipeg has been added to the trans-continental jet stops and Edmonton and Calgary are to be added early this year.

SEATING SETS RECORD

TCA President Gordon R. McGregor said in the annual review that the company flew a record 2,000,000,000 seat-miles during the year. To arrive at this figure, the airline multiplied the number of seats occupied by the number of miles flown.

Total aircraft miles flown amounted to 60,000,000—an increase of about 10 per cent over 1959.

Revenue ton-miles jumped 11 per cent to 231,435,000.

Air freight traffic expanded at double the rate of the fast-growing passenger traffic.

The airline carried more than 17,400,000 ton-miles of freight in 1960, an increase of 15 per cent.

Air express traffic increased by 7.6 per cent to 2,855,000 ton-miles and mail traffic increased 2.3 per cent to 11,164,000 ton-miles.

LOW RATES INTRODUCED

TCA introduced some of the lowest rates in North America, effective Monday. They mean heavily reduced fares on routes more than 600 miles long, maintained fares on routes in the 400 to 600-mile range, and increased fares on routes less than 400 miles long.

By next summer, TCA's fleet will consist of 10 DC-8s, 20 Vanguards and 49 Viscounts. The DC-8s carry 127 passengers and are used on long and medium-range routes, and the short-range Viscounts have 56 seats.

Most of TCA's piston-engined planes—North Stars, DC-3s of Super Constellations—will be retired this year.

TCA opened a $20,000,000 maintenance base at Montreal and construction began late in 1960 on new maintenance and overhaul facilities at Vancouver and Halifax.

Installation work began in 1960 on a $3,500,000 electronic reservation system expected to be in operation by next December.

The airline's jets set two official trans-Atlantic records. DC-8s made the Ottawa-to-London 3,822-mile flight in five hours, 55 minutes, and the 3,247-mile Montreal-to-London flight in five hours, 44 minutes.

THE DRINKING MACHINE — Dr. H. Rotter is head of the Vienna bureau established to combat alcoholism in Austria. Dr. Rotter designed this machine to show how liquor affects the human brain. He pours liquor into the funnel. Bulbs in the figure's brain become brighter. (Indication: brain activity increases; tensions and fears disappear along with inhibitions.) More liquor and the lights go out. (Indications: dead drunk.)

Ottawa Plans Early Study Of Federal Farm Policy

OTTAWA (CP) — Agriculture Minister Alvin Hamilton has entered 1961 with a dozen resolutions, many of them touching on federal farm policy.

He intends to review the grain-delivery permit system and the present method of making federal payments for grain storage. He also plans to seek another way of calculating acreage payments.

These points were included Monday in a statement that also revealed Mr. Hamilton's hopes of stepping up the information and public relations work of his ministry, which he took over last October. An aide said later that the minister has been dissatisfied with this work in the past.

The resolution on acreage payments calls for a study, with farm organizations, of ways and means of "coming a step closer to a true domestic wheat price by basing the formula on a bushel basis or a unit basis."

He did not elaborate on this point. At present, Ottawa is making a payment of $1 a cultivated acre to farmers, up to $200 each, to compensate them for current high cost of production and the depressed world price for wheat.

This system — offered in lieu of farm organizations' demand for deficiency payments on wheat, oats and barley already marketed—was revived last August, after being first offered three years ago, and will cost about $42,000,000 in the current fiscal eyar.

REVIEW PERMIT SYSTEM

Mr. Hamilton said he has asked the Canadian Wheat Board to review the present grain-delivery permit system to "remove any injustices and inequities and cut down on the red tape."

The resolution on storage said he has asked his department for a complete review of present facilities, and he intends to consider—also with the farm organizations, the merits of farm storage.

Informants said later Mr. Hamilton envisages a system of compensating farmers for keeping grain on their farms. At present, the federal government and the farmers each pay one cent a bushel to the elevator companies for total storage exceeding 278,000,000 bushels.

Another key resolution calls for consideration of extending the boundaries of areas eligible for aid under the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Administration—an agency concerned chiefly with irrigation, stock-watering and pasture development.

At present, PFRA work is confined to drought areas on the prairies. It is understood Mr. Hamilton hopes to make all parts of Western Canada eligible for PFRA services, although its manpower and working funds may remain unchanged for the time being.

EXTEND PROGRAMS

Mr. Hamilton also will be pressing for adoption of the crop-insurance program — a cost-sharing plan—in more provinces. Manitoba now has the only one in operation. But the minister said Monday he expects other insurance programs to be set up soon in Saskatchewan, Alberta and Prince Edward Island.

Mr. Hamilton would also "like to see" an independent, unbiased organization established to do research on farm policy, which he said would benefit both the federal government and the farm organizations.

AMC Chief Retracts Statement

DETROIT (AP) — President George Romney of American Motors Corporation, admitting he had been "seriously inaccurate," retracted Monday his Dec. 15 statement that General Motors Corporation built plants abroad to import car parts to the U.S.

Romney made his retraction in a public statement in which he admitted error in comment to a press conference in New York.

At the press conference Romney criticized foreign expansion of General Motors and Ford as "economic imperialism." He deplored what he called "excessive foreign investments" by American companies.

The AMC president said Monday the verbatim account of his press conference showed a "seriously inaccurate statement."

"General Motors is charged," Romney said, "with intention to use its facilities abroad for importation of components into the United States and for the purpose of disregarding national boundaries and policies.

"Such facilities were not established for that purpose and there is no evidence of the intention now."

U.S. Dollars Cost More Than Ours At Victoria Banks

While Victoria banks were quoting U.S. currency at a slight discount this morning—99¾ cents for all practical purposes U.S. dollars actually cost a little more than Canadain when handling charges are included.

To buy $100 in U.S. cash would cost $100.25 Canadian, while a $100 U.S. bank draft or travellers' cheques would cost $100.13 Canadian.

Banks charge a little more for the American cash since they take more of a foreign exchange risk in handling it. Cheques and drafts are discounted through the banks' head offices at prevailing rates of exchange while in currency transactions there is no means of adjustment once the currency has been sold.

London Gold Market Proves Most Active

LONDON (Reuters) — In 1960 London consolidated its position as the most active and best-supplied gold market in the world, it was reported in the annual circular of Mocatta and Goldmid, bullion brokers and a subsidiary of Hambros Bank.

The circular said the structure of the market was found to be proof "against the exceptionally violent strains" to which it was subjected.

MARKET SUMMARIES

Blue Chips Decline In Trading at N.Y.

Blue chip issues sagged as trading opened today on the New York stock market today. Dealings were slow at the first session of the New Year.

American Telephone was about four points late in the session. Some other high-quality issues took fairly sharp losses. Union Carbide, General Electric and Westinghouse Electric were all down more than a point.

Industrials were also down in Toronto trading. Business was quiet. Bank of Montreal, Dominion Stores and Gatineau Power led industrial losers.

AT TORONTO Dome, off ⅛ at 23⅜, led a handful of gold losers, while Hollinger went against the trend with a half-point gain at 19½.

Geco led base metals along the comeback trail, up ¼ at 19½, although Cassiar and International Nickel both eased ⅛ at 13 and 58.

Western Oils were quiet, Home A gaining 10 cents at $7.70, Calgary and Edmonton easing ¼ at 13¾.

AT NEW YORK International Nickel dipped ⅝ in the Canadian list. Hudson Bay Mining and Dome Mines dipped ⅜ each and Aluminium Ltd., Canadian Pacific and Distillers Seagrams were all ⅛ lower.

Prices were mixed on the American exchange. Eureka, Preston, and Brazilian Traction scored gains, Canadian Marconi and Shawinigan lost and most of the Canadian oils were unchanged.

AT MONTREAL the stock exchange was lower amid light trading today. Changes were mostly fractional.

AT LONDON early uncertainty gave way to selective improvement on the stock market for the first day of New Year trading today.

Industrials showed a brighter tendency. Gilt-edged were generally unchanged. Dollar issues, oils and golds eased.

Canadians Buy Full Ownership Of Canada House

NEW YORK (CP) — Canadians have assumed full ownership of Canada House, a handsome skyscraper in the heart of New York, it was announced today.

Webb and Knapp Incorporated, New York real estate firm with interests in Canada, reported it has sold its 50 per cent interest to the original group of Canadian sponsors of the 26-storey building on Manhattan's Fifth Avenue.

A statement said the transaction fulfils a commitment to aid the establishment here of a permanent centre for Canadian commerce and culture without profit to itself made by Webb and Knapp three years ago.

The project is the brainchild of Ray Lawson, former Canadian consul-general in New York and also former lieutenant-governor of Ontario.

Completed in 1958, the $11,000,000 limestone-faced office building, housing many Canadian government offices and Canadian enterprises, is fully leased.

B-A Oil Earnings Take Jump

TORONTO (CP) — Earnings of British American Oil Co. Ltd. for 1960 are expected to be between $29,000,000 and $30,000,000, says E. D. Loughney, president.

This compares with 1959 earnings of $25,601,649.

The 1960 earnings, Mr. Loughney says, will include some $2,000,000 of non-recurring profit, realized on disposal of the company's fleet of tank cars and liquidation of some long-term investments. They will also include, however, expenses of a non-recurring nature in the establishment of data-processing centres, set up to reduce future administration expenses.

The company's daily average net crude oil and condensate production in Western Canada in the fourth quarter is estimated at 32,500 barrels, compared with 34,400 barrels in the corresponding period of 1959. Total net crude and condensate production for the year will be about the same as in 1959.

Gas sales in the quarter are estimated at more than 160,000,000 cubic feet per day, compared with 112,000,000 for the same period a year ago. Estimated gas sales for the year in Western Canada show an increase of more than 60 per cent.

TODAY'S GRAIN PRICES

WINNIPEG (CP) — Most grain prices showed a firm undertone in moderately active trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

Export business in feed grains and flax continued quiet.

The flax market disclosed some buying from international interests.

It was also marked by an increase in hedging sales representing deliveries to elevators during the holiday.

Oats and barley prices moved narrowly with a firm undertone, bolstered by fair demand from domestic shippers in connection with feed supply.

The rye market was somewhat irregular in mostly local trade as it followed the trend of United States markets.

Export loadings of Canadian wheat for last Friday: Japan, 1,000,015 bushels; Peru, 450,000; The Netherlands, 400,000; United Kingdom, 190,000; Norway, 110,000; Okinawa, 55,000; Honduras, small lot.

Lakehead prices for class two, IWA and domestic wheat all were up ⅛ from Friday.

AS BUSINESS STARTS OFF NEW YEAR

Some Bright Spots Show for 1961

By FORBES RHUDE
CP Business Editor

Somewhat woozy from festive fare and from figures from year-end statements, business now turns to the task of building 1961 into a reasonably satisfactory year.

Announcements of the year's final week were an assortment of light and shadow; not very bright light, but not very deep shadow.

They continued along the theme that 1960 was a generally good year, but one which fell below expectations; that 1961 will probably continue the pace, and perhaps start a new climb as the months move along.

The Canadian construction industry expects to maintain 1960's building total of $7,000,000,000, but will be working below capacity.

The pulp and paper industry reports record production in 1960, up about 5 per cent, but thinks it may stay around that level this year, though optimistic about the long-term outlook.

Highway and street building set its 15th consecutive record in 1960 but the Canadian Good Roads Association expects that future increases will be at a more gradual rate than "the phenomenal rate of increase of the last decade."

NATURAL GAS BOOMING

Natural gas promises to be one of the real growth industries of this year and for some time to come. E. D. Loughney, president of British American Oil Co. Ltd., says its expansion will rival the growth made by oil in the last decade.

Bell Telephone Co. of Canada says it will spend some $200,000,000 on additional and improved services, about the same as in 1960.

Canadian automobile manufacturers produced 395,069 vehicles in 1960, an increase of seven per cent over 1959, and predictions for this year are cautiously optimistic.

American Motors Canada Ltd. is getting into production at its new plant at Brampton, Ont., after having been out of production in Canada since 1957.

Among individual bright spots is the announcement by de Havilland Aircraft of Canada of a $16,000,000 order from the United States Army for its Caribou aircraft. This will add 600 additional employees to the 2,900 now working at the company's Toronto plant.

While Canada's economy will respond to what takes place in the United States and Europe, it will also be affected by the working out of the changes made by the December budget.

The premium on the Canadian dollar stiffened at year-end after a rather precipitate drop following the budget, but the reduced premium is already a substantial encouragement to exporters.

The other side of the coin is to be seen in such things as announcement of a 2¾-cent increase in the Canadian price of nickel, to adjust the price to the lessened value of Canadian currency in terms of American, in which the basic nickel price is set.

The budget discourages Canadian borrowing in the United States, and so presumably will bring greater demands on the money available in Canada. Bank of Canada statements will be watched for any indications of change in the money supply.

Receptions Held on the Ground and in the Air

Jorgen Svendsen Photos

RECORD TURNOUT AT LIVELY LEVEES ★ ★ ★ 3,000 SAY GOOD-BYE AND HELLO

Thousands of Victorians "made the rounds" Monday in a record turnout at official New Year receptions.

The innovation of the year was hot bouillon at Government House, where about 2,000 people lined up for a personal handshake from Lieutenant-Governor George Pearkes.

At City Hall there were so many smokers they ran out of cigars.

At the Bay Street Armory, HMCS Naden, 2455 Squadron RCAF, and Work Point Barracks, the big service "levees" all drew record crowds.

It was, apparently, a combination of fine weather and the Sunday "layoff" which brought out the big crowds.

All the receptions went off without hitches or trouble.

It was a special day for the RCAF at 866 Yates, where 2455 Squadron held its last levee. The squadron is disbanding this year and Sqdn. Ldr. D. B. Ascott was host at a farewell New Year's Eve Ball Saturday.

There'll be more winding-up ceremonies in January and March.

More than 400 guests visited the Yates St. mess, with another 100 or more visiting the sergeants.

It was a bigger crowd this year at Government House. Last year, when Frank M. Ross played host, there were just under 2,000.

The hot bouillon introduced by Gen. Pearkes "went over very well," said an aide. Coffee and punch were also served.

"His honor enjoyed his first reception very much," said the aide.

NO LET UP

The count at City Hall was 658. It was 450 last year.

Mayor Percy Scurrah and all council members were present.

"It was an extremely heavy flow of people; there was no let up at all," said city clerk Franke Hunter. "We had to send out for two more cases of cigars."

HMCS Naden's turnout was estimated at between 1,000 and 1,200.

"They say only about half the guests signed the book, said Cmdr. John Bovey, Naden commander.

One of the guests on the reception line was Air Commodore G. G. Truscott, deputy maritime commander, Pacific coast.

It was "fast and furious" at Work Point Barracks, where Lieut.-Col. J. C. Allan of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry was host to what were described as larger-than-average crowds.

At Bay Street there were Canadian Scottish Regiment and Fifth Medium Battery, RCA, receptions in officers' and sergeants' mssses.

Although no counts were made 1,500 "servings" went between 10 and noon in the artillery mess.

"We just squeaked by with enough," said an official.

Other receptions with good crowds were held at HMCS Malahat and at Esquimalt Municipal Hall.

Over 3,000 people visited Patricia Bay airport Monday to say "good-bye" to an old, familiar aircraft, and "hello" to a sleek new one.

It was Viscount day, staged by Trans-Canada Air Lines to introduce the 315-mile-per-hour turbo prop to the Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle service.

The new aircraft, which carries from 44 to 54 passengers, replaces the "work-horse" DC-3s which have served the run faithfully since 1946.

Before being pulled off the run for good, a DC-3 put on two courtesy flights for airport visitors. Three flights were staged by Viscounts. Among the passengers were 15 Times carrier salesmen.

A ceremonious "good-bye" was said to the DC-3s at 1.30 p.m. by Don McLaren, veteran TCA flier and executive, now retired. The first scheduled Viscount flight, No. 145 from Vancouver, landed at 1.55 p.m., and was officially welcomed by Norman Donnelly, regional operations manager for TCA.

Woman Dies at Nanaimo As Cigaret Burns Couch

. . . HERE AND THERE . . .

With NORMAN CRIBBENS

New Year cheer!

His Grace the Archbishop of British Columbia, Most Reverend Harold Sexton, DD, tells me that during one of his lone walks in the Fairfield district he came upon a very small boy trying to reach a door bell.

His Grace promptly went to the boy's assistance and pushed the bell long and hard.

"What do we do now?" he asked the very small boy.

"Run like hell!" the boy replied.

★ ★ ★

Heard on the B.C. government ferry to Vancouver:

"There must be a lot of Victoria people on board — we've run out of teapots!"

★ ★ ★

"When does the Session start?" asked a man on New Year's Day.

He sounded so eager . . . yet to many of us the legislative session seems like an interminable tunnel of wind lasting from late January to early Spring—day after day and often night after night.

You think of all the boring speakers who are let loose during this season—those who are so insensitive to the calloused ears of their listeners; so indifferent to the tax money that is being spent on keeping them talking!

★ ★ ★

I like the story of the boy who attended morning service at an Oak Bay church and found he had no money for the collection.

He put his pocket knife in the plate because it was all he had to give!

★ ★ ★

Catch of the Season . . . . Waldo Skillings landed a 150-pound Marlin measuring 9 ft. 8 in. during his recent flying visit to Mexico.

"It was a real whopper," he said, "I'm still getting my breath back."

Contract Let For Gas Line To Serve V.I.

A $7,000,000 contract has been awarded to a British cable firm to build 53 miles of underwater pipeline which will eventually bring natural gas to Vancouver Island.

Magna Pipeline Co. of Vancouver will build the overall line from Ladner to Westholme, for a total cost of almost $13,000,000. B.C. Electric will build the Island distribution system.

The new type of pipe will be made by British Insulated Callenders Cables Ltd. It will be flexible lead-covered line, 4.85 inches inside diameter, similar in principle to the power line laid by the same company to the Island for B.C. Electric.

ONE LENGTH

Magna has asked the B.C. Public Utilities Commission for a year's delay, to late 1963, in the completion date, so the British firm can make the pipeline in one continuous length and send it here on its own cable-laying ship.

A start on the land line at either end is expected this April or May. It will be about a year before the undersea pipe arrives.

Magna soon will award another contract for compressors.

It has already announced it will get gas from Westcoast Transmission Co.

'Stop-Gap' Budget Up by $500,000

Victoria's provisional budget today was set at $10,249,950—up by more than $500,000 from last year's actual budget.

But the news isn't that bad for ratepayers.

The provisional budget is a required legal technicality to enable the city to make expenditures until the actual budget is set by May 15.

The actual budget — which determines the mill rate—consistently is much lower than the provisional figure after aldermen are finished trimming estimates.

FIRST BRICKS 'WHACKED' FOR WRECKERS

Health Minister Eric Martin today officially started demolition of Royal Jubilee Hospital's old administration building.

The morning ceremony signalled start of tearing down the red brick structure — oldest standing part of the hospital—to clear the site for a new $2,750,000 wing.

Demolition contract of $4,900 was awarded to Farmer Construction.

Courtney Haddock, chairman of the hospital board, said it was "likely" that tenders would be called for the main construction project while the administration building was being torn down.

The new five-storey wing is expected to employ up to 200 men during construction lasting about two years.

Young Girl, Elderly Man Car Victims

An eight-year-old girl in "fairly good" condition today is one of three people hurt in traffic crashes since New Year's Day in Victoria and Saanich.

Olivia Larkin, 541 Niagara, was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital with head cuts, shock and bruises after she was in collision with a car driven at Niagara and Clarence by John B. Fraser, 3339 Cedar Hill, at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Wong You, 1615½ Government, who police said is 79, is described as "good" with forehead abrasions and a deep cut to his upper right arm received when he was in collision with a car at Fisgard and Government at 10.45 p.m. Monday.

The pedestrian was in a crosswalk on Fisgard when in collision with a car driven by Sarah Brown of Nanaimo, police said.

HIT HYDRANT

Passenger Laurel Page of 2092 Byron, escaped with forehead bruise and knee cut after the car in which she rode was in collision with a fire hydrant on Townley at 3.40 a.m. Sunday.

The car, driven by Gary Reginald Sheppard, 3009 Irma, had $300 damage and the hydrant an estimated $100, Saanich police said.

In the worst accident in Saanich New Year's Day, one car was wrecked and two others damaged, but no one was hurt in the three-car crack-up on Royal Oak Avenue at 4.40 a.m.

Police said a car driven by Frank Barlow, 4916 Maxine, was in collision with two others parked at the side of Royal Oak causing damage estimated at $300, $150 and $1,000 respectively.

Mrs. Doreen Downey, 37, died early Sunday in a Nanaimo apartment house when the chesterfield on which she was lying caught fire from a cigaret.

Fire department officials said she was found on the chesterfield, and had apparently suffocated from the smouldering lounge even before fire spread to gut the living room of the four-roomed second-storey apartment on Victoria Road.

A family of seven was evacuated from the downstairs apartment.

Mrs. Downey was alone at the time. Her husband, Joseph, a taxi driver, had been at work since 10 p.m.

The fire outbreak was noticed by neighbors at 1 a.m. New Year's Day.

Sad irony of the fatality was the fact the victim's 17-year-old daughter, Coleen, was baby-sitting at the time for city fireman George Command who turned out to battle the blaze.

Damage to the apartment was estimated at $2,000.

An inquest opened Monday night, then was adjourned to Jan. 9.

Mrs. Downey was a native of Nanaimo.

Besides the widower and daughter, survivors include her mother, Mrs. Grace Miller, Union Bay; a brother, John, Union Bay; two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Sullivan, North Vancouver, and Mrs. G. Ashcroft, Ucluelet.

Prayers will be said at 8 p.m. today in Westwood's chapel and funeral will be at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Mount St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church.

WINTER WORK FOR 70 MEN ON FIVE SAANICH PROJECTS

Saanich hopes to launch five major projects in the next month under its 1961 winter employment program.

The projects should provide employment for at least 70 men.

They include preliminary work on a $1,200,000 Cadboro Bay-Shelbourne sewer system and a $100,000 joint fire-police hall at Swan Lake.

Other projects are the development of Cadboro Bay Park, miscellaneous work to some 15 parks and playgrounds, and the cleaning of open ditches.

Park Fire Guts Nursery Building

Fire burned out half of the city's Beacon Hill Park nursery building—centre of parks administration—two hours before employees showed up for work today.

Firemen held the 6 a.m. blaze to the east end interior and stopped it spreading beyond second storey siding and roofing.

Loss was estimated at several thousand dollars. First reports indicate the damage is repairable.

City manager Cecil Wyatt said replacement insurance is carried.

Fire Chief James Bayliss said exact cause of the fire could not be determined, but that all wiring checked out to the satisfaction of an electrical inspector.

It was assumed by the chief that certain treated rainwear hung next to a radiator in one of the building's workshops could have caught fire after long exposure to heat, especially if they contained something else, such as oily rags or matches.

TRUCKS SAVED

Firemen removed two trucks and a small tractor from the building's shed areas, preventing any damage to them. Other vehicles were parked outside.

Interior of the two offices, occupied by Mr. Warren and his assistant Cliff Bate, were gutted.

Flames broke through into a storage loft where the city's famed hanging baskets and special effect lighting equipment were stored.

Much of the outside parks equipment such as boulevard hoses and sprinklers, were removed to separate locations some time ago.

HEAT NEEDED

An adjoining greenhouse, housing a large number of plants and flowers being readied for spring planting, escaped fire damage. But workmen must restore heat to the building to keep the plants alive through another frost.

Parks operations were transferred today to MacDonald Park and Royal Athletic Park pending restoration of facilities at Beacon Hill.

City firemen attended two smaller fires over the week-end, one in a sawdust bin at the home of Martin Vermanning, 140 Wellington, at 7.20 p.m. New Year's Day, where the house was filled with smoke, and in a mattress at the home of R. H. Lowe, 1044 Redfern, at 7.34 p.m. Monday.

Another Jolt For Chest's 'Second Look'

A second Community Chest agency has turned in a revised budget requesting more money.

All 22 agencies were asked to give their budgets a second look in an attempt to meet the $65,000 deficit in the 1960 Community Chest campaign.

Last week the St. John Ambulance Brigade provided the first shock with its presentation of a budget increased by about $17,000. Now the Canadian Mental Health Association has upped its former request for $11,000 by $5,848.

So far 18 agencies have completed revision of their budgets. In their original budgets they asked for a total of $233,288 — their economy budgets ask for $332,626.

With four more agencies yet to be heard from, final figure asked for will likely be close to $350,000—the goal Community Chest failed to reach by $65,000.

ASK The TIMES

Q. Could you please tell me the value (money) of St. Peter's Church in Rome? J.B.

A. The world's largest church, in the Vatican, can have no firm value placed on it—but estimates range upwards from $50,000,000.

Q. Was there ever a car made by the name of Holiday around 1920-1925, or what year? H.B.

A. There was a car called the Halladay manufactured from 1907 to 1922 by the Halladay Motor Car Co. of Attica, Indiana.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask the Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily.

All questions should deal with matters of fact and be of general interest. The Times does not undertake to solve conundrums or legal problems. Nor will it attempt to put a value on old coins, stamps or antiques. These should be submitted to dealer.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

City Hall was caught by the New Year with its cash registers down a decade.

Ratepayers prepaying their 1961 taxes today found the cash register receipt stamp dated Jan. 3, 1951.

A cash register company representative was to replace the year stamp—contained in a block covering 10 years at a time—to bring the register up to date.

A porch-light blitz in December in aid of the Kiwanis Villa project has brought in $25,481 to date. This is slightly more than the figure for the same time last year.

Glen Hope, secretary-treasurer of the Kiwanis Village Society, said today money is still coming in and any contributions would be welcomed.

★ ★ ★

A provincial game branch official today said investigation had shown "there is no deer slaughter going on in Thetis Lake Park."

Robert Sinclair said two old deer hides had been found in the park but the animals had been shot during the hunting season and their hides dumped in the park as garbage.

(Numerous persons have illegally dumped all types of garbage in the park at various times.)

An investigation was launched by the game branch at request of city council which heard charges last week that deer were being slaughtered wholesale in the 1,000-acre city-owned watershed sanctuary.

Blood clinics will be held Wednesday and Thursday between 2.30 and 4.30 and 7 to 9 p.m. at Red Cross House on Fort Street.

Splashed by hot grease when it spilled into flame on her kitchen stove, Mrs. Rita Hayward, 2548 Dunlevy, is in good condition at Jubilee Hospital today.

Oak Bay fire department took the woman to hospital Saturday night after attending a fire call to her home.

They found flames had licked up a wall, but the fire was out when they arrived.

Winners of the junior monthly bridge play-off in Victoria for December were as follows:

First, Mr. and Mrs. Quincy Lewis; second, Mr. and Mrs. F. Groome; third, Mr. and Mrs. E. Marris; fourth, Mrs. E. C. Laidlaw and C. J. Hunter; fifth, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Booth.

Small amounts of cash were reported stolen in early-morning burglaries Sunday.

At Island Blueprint, 1124 Blanshard, $14 in silver is missing and desk and counter were ransacked.

Arnold's Bakery, 725 Discovery, said $7 was taken from a cash register and locker rooms were ransacked.

Mrs. A. S. Campbell, 1275 Verdier, was in "satisfactory" condition in Royal Jubilee Hospital today after suffering a broken arm and possible other injuries in a fall taken when she was hanging out the family washing.

She fell off a platform to the cement floor six feet below and was taken to hospital by Central Saanich volunteer fire department ambulance about 11.15 a.m. Monday.

★ ★ ★

Money to aid the blind was stolen by burglars who broke into headquarters of Canadian National Institute for the Blind New Year's Eve.

They took $118.42 cash, two cheques of unspecified amount, a number of transportation passes and two braille pocket watches valued at $30 each.

The break-in was reported at 10.15 p.m.

30 BLOOMS ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

Count Your 'Blessings'

How about holding an annual flower count on New Year's Day?

This suggestion comes from G. A. A. (Bert) Hebden, 1173 Lillian.

He feels that Victoria gardeners should hold an annual count of garden flora, similar to the bird count carried out by naturalists during the festive season.

Naturalists this year counted 116 specie of birds wintering in the Greater Victoria area—an all-time record for Canada.

It may be, Mr. Hebden points out, that Victoria can also hold the record for winter flowering plants. The B.C. mainland and the Niagara Peninsula in Ontario might, of course, be strong competitors.

In his own garden, Mr. Hebden counted 30 varieties of flowers in bloom. He thinks other gardens may have as many, perhaps more.

"Can anyone do better?" he asked.

Here is his list: wallflower, strawberry blossom, giant saxifrage, miniature rose, snapdragon, yellow marguerite, violet, stock, jasmine, valerian, yellow saxifrage, African marigold, standard marigold, white saxifrage, rock daphne, bush daphne, nasturtium, hydrangea, campunella, rock forget-me-not, chrysanthemum, pansy, Christmas rose, white marguerite, daisy, bubble bee flower, pink patience, heather, wanda primrose and alyssum.

MORNING DRESS, SWORDS, MARTIAL MUSIC

Old World Mood at Vanier's Levee

OTTAWA (CP)—The corridors of the Parliament Building were filled with an Old World atmosphere of morning dress, swords and spurs, martial music and hot punch as Governor-General Vanier held his second New Year's levee Monday.

He spent nearly two hours exchanging greetings with 1,041 persons—politicians, diplomats, the clergy, military officers and ordinary citizens—who formed a long queue into the red-carpeted Senate chamber where he sat to receive them.

Gen. Vanier, 72, had a firm handshake and a "Happy New Year" for all comers. Because of the loss of his right leg during the First World War, he stood to receive his guests only for the first 15 minutes and then remained seated.

The levee in Canada mixes the protocol and formalities of an official London levee with the traditional open-house conviviality of the levees of New France, held when the French governors made it known that they would receive greetings.

First in line to shake Gen. Vanier's hand was Prime Minister Diefenbaker. He was followed by Chief Justice Patrick Kerwin, and other members of the cabinet and the Supreme Court of Canada.

First woman to enter the Senate chamber—an occasion, until recent years, reserved by custom for men—was Mrs. Pin Pihjung, third secretary at the Nationalist Chinese Embassy here. The second was Mayor Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa, wearing her badges of office.

There was only one embarrassing moment. An army officer, resplendent in red tunic and ceremonial sword, snapped to attention before the governor-general and saw one of his spurs go jangling across the carpet.

He retrieved it with an undignified stoop and retired from the scene.

Holidaying Soviets Have Ruble Problems

MOSCOW (UPI) — Millions of Russians nursing their New Year's hangovers had the added problem today of coping with the Soviet Union's new "heavy" ruble.

COST SAME

Mental gymnastics are required to remember that one new ruble equals 10 old ones, and that prices of goods should be one-tenth as much as before.

The old rubles, however, will continue to be usable until March 31, the deadline for the complete changeover to the boosted currency.

The Soviet government claims the new ruble will be worth $1.11. But the old official exchange rate of four rubles to $1 will be actually 9-1 under the new system. Foreign exchange prices will be adjusted accordingly but informed sources said this change was unlikely to affect the average Soviet citizen.

COST SAME

The government claimed the cost of goods will remain the same under the new ruble. But this has not prevented a noticeable rush in recent months by some Russians to turn their old money into hard goods such as table silver and television sets, just in case.

Russians have not forgotten the last currency re-evaluation in 1947 when they also got a one for 10 exchange. They got no adjustment in prices then and they had to pay 10 times as much for an item.

The government announcement that there would be a three-month switchover period during which both old and new rubles would be circulating did not dispel fears of some Russians who are not anxious to show up at banks and be questioned as to where they got the large sums they were exchanging.

LONDON GETS LUXURY HOTEL

LONDON (Reuters) — London's new £2,000,000 ($5,600,000) American-owned luxury hotel, the Carlton Towers, has been finished six months ahead of schedule. The 18-storey hotel, which has 330 rooms, will be officially opened Wednesday.

Bopped Beak Sours Fair Play Tour

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A punch in the nose gave indications Monday night that Americans, returning from a Fair Play for Cuba-sanctioned tour, were not entirely in accord with travelling companions.

Lewis McWillie of Miami took a poke at Vernon Kautt of Chicago after a Cubana Airlines plane landed at Miami.

Ben Silver of Miami radio station WCKT quoted McWillie as saying he was "sore" at a speech which Kautt, 54, a high school teacher, made at Havana airport before takeoff.

Kautt said he was only expounding on "some of the nice things" he saw in Cuba. He said he "couldn't see why McWillie found it necessary to attack people merely because of a difference of opinion."

Kautt declined to press charges and left for Chicago after the plane brought back the Fair Play tourists, most of them U.S. college students.

France Has Surplus

PARIS (AP)—France ended the year with a healthy $2,100,000,000 in gold and foreign currency holdings. This nest egg has been built from almost zero two years ago when President Charles de Gaulle returned to power and the French recovery started.

'Bill of Rights' Drawn by Youth

CHICAGO (AP)—Delegates to a youth conference which the FBI has labelled Communist-directed have concluded their first national meeting by adopting a five-point "bill of rights."

The conference co-ordinating committee announced its immediate objectives Sunday after three days of meetings. Organizers denied statements by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, that the meeting was arranged by Communists to formulate plans for a new national youth organization.

The conference issued a statement saying it would strive for these objectives:

1. The right to plan lives free from the threat of nuclear annihilation and the burden of military service, free to exchange ideas and skills with the youth of other countries.

2. The right of all youth to organize freely; to examine all ideas; to express their demands and to improve conditions of their lives.

3. The right to an education based on ability to learn, but not on ability to pay.

4. The right of all Negro and other minority youths to seek opportunities for employment, education and in all public services.

5. The right of all youth, men and women, to job training, and full employment of their skills with a future of job advancement and economic security.

Newspaper men were barred from the session.

Bowl Hero Favors Canadian Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Bob Schloredt, Washington's Rose Bowl game hero, probably will play professional football next fall in Canada.

Schloredt revealed, just before taking off to play in the Hula Bowl in Honolulu, that he "favored" playing for the British Columbia Lions in Vancouver.

Father Beat Son With Belt—Jailed

TORONTO (UPI)—A father who severely beat his son because he would not do his homework was sentenced to six months in jail today.

Alexander Robinson's 11-year-old son, Michael, told the court last week his father sometimes beat him so severely with a belt that the buckle flew off.

First Pirate Dividend in 15 Years

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Stockholders of Pittsburgh Pirates received dividend cheques of $4 per share in 1960, the first dividend in almost 15 years, the baseball club reported today.

The Pittsburgh management last rewarded stockholders in 1946 when the National League team was sold by the late Mrs. Barney Dreyfuss to Frank McKinney, John W. Galbreath, Tom Johnson and Bing Crosby.

Pro-Lumumba Rebels Attack Whites

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP)—Wild with excitement after repulsing troops of Col. Joseph Mobutu, pro-Lumumba rebels in Bukavu have gone on an anti-white rampage, the United Nations reported today. Several Europeans were arrested Monday and some were beaten up. A UN spokesman described the situation as tense.

Storm Lashes Atlantic Provinces

HALIFAX (CP)—The Atlantic provinces appeared today to have escaped serious damage from a howling winter storm that pounded the area during the New Year's weekend.

No deaths were attributed to the storm which brought winds up to 80 miles an hour and heavy drifting snow.

25 Killed in Finnish Airliner Crash

VAASA, Finland (CP) — All 25 persons aboard a Finnish airliner were killed early today when the DC-3 crashed into a wooded area north of the west coast port of Vaasa, Finnish police reported.

More Half-Hour Parking Urged

Mayor Percy Scurrah today urged city council to double street parking meter rates to five cents per 30 minutes in more downtown areas, the same as they are now on Broad.

He said the move was a necessary first step towards encouraging private enterprise to erect off-street parking facilities.

He made the reference in his inaugural address to council.

Noting that the city's per capita debt had been cut from $144.99 to $137.69 during 1960, he passed on for favorable consideration seven new public works projects:

Redecking Johnson Street Bridge, widening Quadra between Hillside and Tolmie, completion of widening and paving of Foul Bay Road, redevelopment of the Wharf-Johnson intersection, development of Finlayson Street as an east-west route, completion of widening Wilson Street, and widening and paving of Tyee Road to link the two bridges.

U.S. Builds Up Forces in Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today accused the Soviet Union and North Viet nam of airlifting "extensive air materials" and "substantial numbers" of North Vietnamese Communists into Laos in support of Red rebels there.

The state department issued the accusation "in view of the grave situation in Laos."

It said it has "hard evidence" that Soviet and North Vietnamese transport planes have made at least 130 flights into Laos since Dec. 15.

Earlier the Communist North Viet Nam army command charged that a carrier and several other warships of the U.S. Seventh Fleet had arrived in the South Viet Nam port of Ta Nang.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the army command also charged the U.S. had bombers, fighters and a large group of personnel in South Viet Nam which borders Laos.

President Eisenhower today received additional intelligence reports on the Laos situation from his top advisers.

FAVORS FAST ACTION

In advance of today's meeting, Eisenhower was represented as convinced that fast and clear action is the best way to avoid any Communist commitment to agression in Laos.

But he was said to be hopeful of a solution short of military intervention by outside powers.

In Moscow, Soviet Premier Khrushchev warned at a Cuban Embassy reception that the "dangerous hotbed of the fire which has started in Laos must be extinguished in time."

In London, reliable sources said Britain, favoring a broadly-based neutralist government, has come around to full support for revival of the three-country truce commission established in 1954.

The commission, comprising representatives of India, Canada and Poland, was established to supervise a truce in the Indo-China War at the 1954 Geneva conference but it was adjourned indefinitely in the summer of 1958.

In Ottawa Monday night an official said the Canadian government is unwilling to recon-

Gov't Troops Retake Key City

VIENTIANE (CP)—Prince Boun Oum's government announced today that its forces recaptured the key northeastern city of Xieng Khouang Monday night from pro-Communist rebels.

Information Minister Bouavan Norasing said the city was retaken by a battalion of paratroopers that jumped three and one-quarter miles east of Xieng Khouang.

Norasing's announcement was the government's first admission that the rebels had taken Xieng Khouang.

King Savang Vathana meanwhile convoked an extraordinary session of the National Assembly today to give a vote of confidence to the provisional government of Premier Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi Nosoavan, the military strongman whose troops drove leftist rebels from Vientiane in mid-December.

This move was aimed at placing the government on a constitutional footing and depriving former neutralist premier Souvanna Phouma of a claim to legality. He fled to Cambodia after his efforts to conciliate leftists and pro-Westerners failed.

WOULD STIFLE CLAIM

Legalizing Boun Oum's government through constitutional processes also should help deprive the Soviet Union of a basis for claims that its airdrops of supplies and weapons to the Pathet Lao guerrillas and other leftist troops driven from the capital are conducted at the request of the legal government.

The Prince meanwhile announced his government had ordered its representative at the United Nations to indict Rusia before the Security Council on charges of violating

HOWE FUNERAL ON WEDNESDAY

MONTREAL (CP)—A large group of government officials and top businessmen will attend the funeral of Clarence Decatur Howe Wednesday.

The controversial statesman, who for more than 20 years played a leading role in both government and business circles, died New Year's Eve of a heart attack. He was 75. (See stories, page 5.)

Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Associate Defence Minister Seyigny will represent the federal government at the service, to start at 2 p.m. EST, at Christ Church Cathedral in downtown Montreal.

Liberal Leader Lester B. Pearson and a large group of Mr. Howe's former associates will represent the Liberal party.

Socialists Beaten In Belgium Vote

BRUSSELS (CP)—Parliament today rejected a Socialist move to scrap the government's economic austerity program as violent demonstrations against the measure continued to hit strike-crippled Belgium.

Roman Catholic and Liberal party members, linked in Premier Gaston Eyskens' coalition government, combined to defeat a Socialist motion calling for withdrawal for the government austerity bill. The chamber rejected the motion by a vote of 121 to 83, with one Liberal abstention.

Several tanks guarded the packed parliament building as legislators debated the controversial bill, designed to meet losses by Belgium in The Congo.

Socialists attacked the economic plan, which would increases taxes, for causing the "extreme social tension" gripping the country.

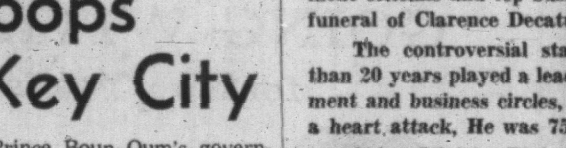

SOCIALISTS JEER

Eystens paid tribute to Catholic trade union members who did not join the Socialist-called strikes. Socialists jeered the premier as he made no concession to their demands to withdraw the program.

Georges Bohy, Socialist leader in the House, called on Eyskens to resign, declaring: "You have plunged this nation into a state of siege. It is time for you to go."

Taking the floor, the premier lashed out at the strikers.

"An enormous amount of damage is being done to the country," the Conservative premier said. "Private industry is suffering heavy losses and these will have considerable repercussions on the budget."

Looks like there's a fight developin' over whether or not there's a fight in Laos.

New Manager Said Selected

By JOHN MIKA

The Memorial Arena controversy, which simmered quietly through the holiday season, boiled over again today with these developments:

- Mayor Percy Scurrah prepared to replace vacationing chairman Frank Mulliner;
- Commissioner Courtney Haddock resigned to protest "unfair" treatment to six former employees;
- A commission sub-committee prepared final touches to appointment of Jack Morgan, Nelson, as the new arena manager.

Mayor Scurrah, asked about rumors that he had obtained Mr. Mulliner's resignation, said:

"I expect his resignation today. I expect to name a replacement today but it will not be in my speech."

(He was referring to his inaugural address before city council this afternoon in which the 1961 council committees and civic boards are named.)

Mr. Mullinier, who was in the centre of the controversy following resignation of the arena's office staff and three other employees, left for a six-week vacation just before Christmas after council refused to fire the commission at its own request. He went to Montreal for the holiday but is reported to be in Bermuda at present.

Mr. Haddock, who previously had threatened to resign, turned in his withdrawal from the commission this morning.

Slim Prospect for Rehiring

"I agreed to withhold my resignation previously on the distinct assurance that there would be fair treatment for the employees—which meant reinstatement until a new manager was appointed," he said.

"There doesn't appear to be any prospect of that now so I'm resigning in protest."

Mr. Morgan, currently manager of the Nelson Arena, was interviewed by commission members during a visit here last week.

A reliable source said he had been "selected" for replacing present manager Joe Dukowski although the actual appointment still had to be made.

Mr. Dukowski tendered his resignation, effective in three months, during the controversy that broke out when the other employees quit.

No selection for filling the job vacated by former office manager Kenneth Noakes has been made.

"Mr. Noakes has been out of work for 2½ months now—including through Christmas—and he still doesn't know whether he will be re-engaged," said Mr. Haddock. "It isn't good business to throw away his 11 years of experience.

"That isn't justice. We should be grateful to these employees for pointing up the situation instead of punishing them.

"I've done all I could for them but apparently it isn't enough. I just can't understand the commission's position."

(Allegations in affidavits submitted by Mr. Noakes and his colleagues said that purchases of liquor were made for consumption in the arena and work on Mr. Dukowski's house and boat were made by arena maintenance employees.)

ISLAND SHOOTING

Two Airmen Found Dead

COURTENAY—Two RCAF flight sergeants were killed here Monday in a double shooting that RCMP today described as an apparent murder-suicide.

The bodies of Flt. Sgt. B. B. Simms and Flt. Sgt. K. A. MacGregor were found side by side in the front room of MacGregor's home off Campbell River Road on the northern outskirts.

A 7.65-millimetre automatic pistol lay between them.

Both men had been shot in the head. Two shots had been fired from the pistol.

INQUEST TODAY

In a joint statement, the RCMP at Courtenay and the RCAF at Comox said investigations were incomplete and that while murder-suicide is "strongly suspected," possible motive for the shootings or other details could not yet be released.

An inquest was to open this afternoon, with a date for the main hearing to be set.

The men were found by a neighbor, Robert Lay, together with other friends of MacGregor.

Police said Mr. Lay knocked on the front door of the MacGregor house and noticed what appeared to be a bullet hole in the front window pane.

FULLY CLOTHED

With two companions he partially forced the rear door of the house and saw one of the bodies sprawled on the front room floor.

This was at 4 p.m.

Mr. Lay immediately notified RCMP. Neither he nor his friends went into the house.

RCMP entered by the rear door and found the bodies, fully clothed.

The weapon involved belonged to MacGregor.

Simms, 38, is survived by the widow and two sons at RCAF Station, Comox. MacGregor, about 40, was on temporary duty at the station as a member of No. 2 construction maintenance unit. He is survived by the widow in Calgary.

MacGregor's home station was Lincoln Park, Calgary.

HECTIC DAYS AHEAD FOR U.S. CONGRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new Congress convened today already embroiled in a liberal vs. conservative struggle such as clearly will be waged over much of president-elect John Kennedy's program.

In both Senate and House of Representatives, Democrats who call themselves liberals were bidding for a bigger voice in charting the legislative course to be followed in the next two years.

House insurgents want to break up a coalition of conservative Democrats and Republicans on the rules committee which has managed in the past to block or delay legislation not to their liking.

India, Russia and Communist China all have called for revival of the commission.

In Paris, a French government spokesman said Monday that the rightist regime of Prince Boun Oum does not meet the objectives of the 1954 Geneva agreement which ended the war in the former French colony.

British newspapers almost unanimously opposed any American active intervention in Laos.

territory and ot illegally supplying arms to the leftist forces.

In Bangkok, Thailand, today Pote Sarasin, secretary-general of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, said he believes there still is a way for a political settlement in Laos.

A SEATO spokesman stressed that there was a big difference between "intervention" and an "invasion" and said the confusing situation in Laos should be studied carefully before any action is taken.

The army command of Communist North Viet Nam charged today that an American aircraft carrier and several other warships of the U.S. Seventh Fleet had arrived in the South Viet Nam port of Ta Nang.

Soviet's Tass said the army command also charged that the United States had sent eight helicopters, 13 bombers and fighters and a large group of military personnel into South Viet Nam, which borders on the war-torn kingdom of Laos.

The command protested to the International Control Commission for Viet Nam.

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP)—In a plebiscite held as part of civic elections here Monday, voters were strongly in favor of Sunday movies. The count was 14,653 in favor and 9,744 opposed.

What Causes the Auroras?

The auroras, the Northern Lights and the Southern Lights, came under investigation during the International Geophysical Year. New information was gathered by teams of scientists and by satellites. What's more, the auroras themselves seemed eager to help. During the IGY, there was more aurora razzle-dazzle than usual. The old explanation of the auroras, however, has not been scrapped. The research of the IGY has merely added more information and given a fuller explanation.

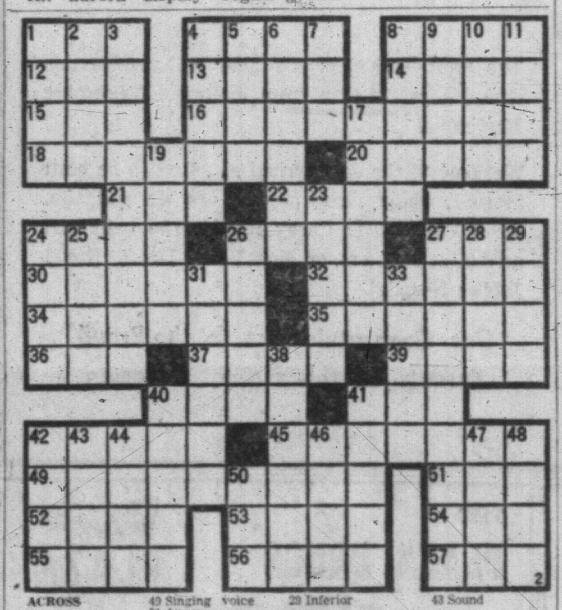

Scientists have known for a long time that the shimmering lights were caused by charged particles from the sun. The displays always come a day or two after a solar flare-up. They knew, too, that the showy activity occurs between 60 and 600 miles above the earth. They also knew that the displays centre near the north and south polar regions because of the influence of the earth's magnetic field.

These simple facts were proved to be true. But the new information showed that the entire story was far from simple. The cause of the auroras is very complex indeed. The most important new factor was discovered early in the IGY. Satellites discovered belts of charged atomic particles high above the earth. They are called the Van Allen belts in honor of the head of the U.S. team that discovered them.

An aurora display begins with a flare-up on the sun. Clouds of energetic atomic particles pour forth into space. Some 92 million miles away is the solid earth, a magnet surrounded by a vast magnetic field. Clouds of the particles speeding from the sun become trapped in the earth's magnetic field. Some 10,000 miles above the planet, they meet the outer Van Allen belt, a huge doughnut of proton and electron particles. Here their paths are swerved by lines of magnetic force.

Clouds of the visiting particles, we are told, are swerved around towards one of the earth's magnetic poles. Here they get a boost which bounces them back along lines of magnetic force to the opposite pole. Back they bounce again and again. Some of the particles fail to swing with this see-saw. They fall or dip down towards the earth's magnetic poles. These energetic proton and electron particles crash into atoms of oxygen and nitrogen high in the atmosphere. In the collisions, X-rays are given off as are the shimmering colors of the auroras.

The glimmering blue and the vibrant red of the aurora are caused by atomic collisions 600 miles above the ground. Streamers, arcs and shimmering curtains of hazy green occur 60 and 150 miles above the ground. The halos of ghostly yellow and the wavy ribbons of primrose are blended from the higher level reds and the lower level greens

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—At last Dick Nixon is starting to relax.

Might as well, I guess!

The Vice-President and wife Pat were on the town the other night and morning — first, they were at "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," then they went to Basin St. East, where they saw the sick comedians' sick comedian, Lennie Bruce, and trumpeter Al Hirt.

Nixon sent a note backstage to Tammy Grimes at "Molly Brown," gave a note to Ticket Broker Harry Bloomfield about how much he liked the show (for publication, yet!) and shook hands with everybody from the bus boys on up at Basin Street though he didn't seem to meet Bruce.

The Veep had gin-on-the-rocks and Mrs. Nixon had bourbon-on-the-rocks.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jonathan Winters spotted Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt buying a toy lion at the F. A. O. Schwarz store. Going over to him, Winters said, "Shame! You have enough money to buy a real lion."

Insultin' comedian Don Rickles turned to Jack Lemmon, in the audience at the Las Vegas Sahara, and told him, "I saw you in 'The Apartment' — you should have left the gas on." He told Dean Martin, "You're really great the way you smoke and drink on the stage, and I hear a rumor tomorrow night you may even sing."

Mary Martin seems to have another "My Fair Lady" on her hands in "Sound of Music." Since opening Nov. 16, 1959, it hasn't had an empty seat — and all 28 standee spaces have always been sold. Yet some critics thought it was "sugary" and "sentimental" — pretty sweet for Mary!

Richard Burton, the male sex spot in "Camelot," may not wish it known, but his wife told me at Sardi's that she cuts his hair.

There's a big Hollywood drive on to get Bob Hope an Oscar in '61 for "Facts of Life, which he did with Lucille Ball. Friends of Hope think he deserves the Oscar (and the picture does, too) . . . The idea of showing "The Misfits" in L.A. before New York so Clark Gable could be eligible for a '61 Oscar about the time the baby is due, was abandoned. Wasn't time to do all the editing.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: When Brendan Behan was a little under the weather, Variety observed that he had probably been "aleing."

. . . That's earl, brother.

Science Now Shrinks Piles Without Pain Or Discomfort

Finds Healing Substance That Relieves Pain And Itching As It Shrinks Hemorrhoids

Toronto, Ont. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain and itching. Thousands have been relieved with this inexpensive substance right in the privacy of their own home without any discomfort or inconvenience.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was promptly relieved. And while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

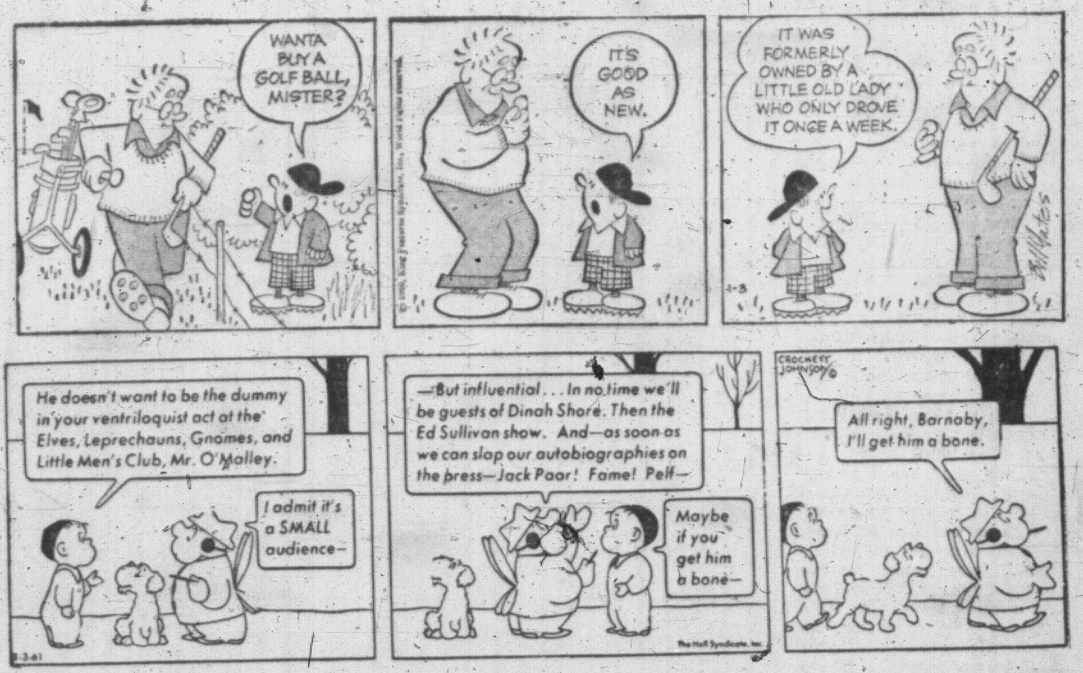

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of even 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — the discovery of a famous scientific institute. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance, is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
